MAURY DEFEATS SNOW HILL

(By Maury Sports Editor)

Maury High Schools' boys and girls basketball teams racked up a smashing victory over the Snow Hill High School teams in an exciting double header Friday night, Jan. 17. Maury boys took the lead in the first quarter with a score of 10 to 4, and continued to lead by a safe margin throughout the game. The final score was Maury 32 and Snow Hill 20.

High scorer for Maury boys was Edgar Thomas with 13 points. Priced led Snow Hill with 8 points.

The score for the girls game was 33 to 9 in Maury's favor. High scorer for Maury girls was Mary Gray Wood with 20 points.

C OF C. MEETS

The Children of the Confederacy met on January 9 at the home of Mary Anne Townsend. The president, William Carr, called the meeting to order. Salutes were respectfully given to the United States and Confederate flags. After the twenty-first Psalm had been read by Chaplain, Alice Harper Parker, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Yvonne Smith called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting. John Parker read "Belle" by Edgar Allen Poe. After the business had been discussed, the meeting adjourned. Mrs. Haywood Smith, leader of the C. of C., then conducted a quiz program.

Refreshments consisting of fruit juice, nuts, and angel food cake were served.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Christian Church wishes to extend its heartiest congratulations to the Baptist Church of Farmville upon the completion of their beautiful and useable Church plant so recently erected among us.

It is not only a thing of beauty beside the highway, but a constant reminder of Him who rules above. We trust it will add to your joy and efficiency in worship, make more effective your plans to teach Jesus' way of life in our community, and thus be a blessing to all of us as we pluck the fruit from its extending and overhanging branches.

Our congratulations to the able minister, building committee and all those who helped to make this edifice possible.

Sincerely,
 C. B. MARRISON, Minister.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Was Outstanding Event

Parties and Meetings Are Festive Affairs of The Past Week

The members of the second year Home Economic class graciously entertained their mothers and additional guests in the cottage on Thursday evening, under the supervision of their student teachers, Miss Nell Michael and Miss Marie Smith.

The tables were attractively decorated with miniature flags, Uncle Sam hats, red, white and blue tapers and nut cups in patriotic motif. The speakers table was centered with a graceful arrangement of white narcissus and fern.

As guests took their places, the group was led in singing "God Bless America," by Mrs. Holmes. Grace was given by J. H. Moore, Supt.

Miss Wilma Stancil welcomed the guests after which Mrs. J. S. Gates responded. Songs by Misses Nancy Gates, Mary Ruth Bailey, Alma Grey Lilly, Mablee Allen and Lois Jones and a solo by Miss Lucille Allen received enthusiastic applause.

Following this, the out-of-town guests were recognized.

The three course dinner included tomato juice cocktail, ham, pineapple top hats, butter beans, patriotic salad, hot rolls, strawberry shortcake, coffee and mints.

Guests, other than mothers and members of the class, were: Mrs. Ethel Walters, supervisor of student teachers; Miss Katherine Holtzclaw, head of Home Economics Department of East Carolina Teachers College, Misses Ester Koonce, Edna Kirby and Ruth Askew, student teachers, and J. H. Moore, Superintendent.

this group in the local school—carrying out the State project of North Carolina Juniors.

Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, club reporter, gave an interesting talk, taken from the Club Magazine, on Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles—a pioneer Club Woman and president of the General Federation during the last World War.

Officers elected for the year, beginning in September, are: President, Mrs. T. S. Ryon; Vice President, Mrs. J. Leroy Parker; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Claude Tyson; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Jimmy Surette; Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, Treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Pollard, Reporter, and Mrs. L. J. Williford, Parliamentarian.

During a delightful social hour, Russian tea with a variety of sandwiches and cookies, was served.

The Lamrad Club met on Friday afternoon with Miss Mary Friar Rouse as hostess. Additional guests included: Mrs. John King, Mrs. T. S. Ryon, Mrs. G. M. Holden and Miss Elizabeth Davis. Mrs. King, scoring high for guests, received a novel vase.

Between progressions, aniced drink with sandwiches and pickles was served.

Mrs. L. E. Walston delightfully entertained the members of the New Deal Bridge Club and additional guests on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. A. Parker, scoring high for the club, received bath powder, and Mrs. W. E. Joyner, high for guests, was presented handkerchiefs.

Following the play, the hostess served ice cream in heart shape with cake, coffee and cheese straws. Tallies also carried the Valentine motif.

Special guests were: Mesdames W. C. Askew, W. L. Smith, J. H. Paylor, L. T. Pierce, W. E. Joyner, Hugh Blount, Irvin Morgan, Jr., and W. A. Allen.

Mrs. George Edwards charmingly entertained a number of Farmville friends at bridge on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Snow Hill.

Mrs. R. T. Williams, scoring high, received a double deck of cards; Mrs. Ted Albritton, second high, won stationary; Mrs. John King, low score, was presented novel cookie cutters. Mrs. Williams and Miss Mary Friar Rouse scoring high in the last hand played, received dainty guest towels.

Following the play, guests were invited into the dining room where coffee, with sandwiches, cookies and pickles, was served. Arrangements of snapdragons and daffodils, flanked by yellow tapers, graced the beautifully appointed table.

Mrs. H. W. Kemp conducted a very comprehensive contest, pertaining to the North Carolina Legislature. Miss Lottie Smith, daughter of the hostess, received a potted plant for her knowledge of the Legislative affairs of our State.

Mrs. Arthur Jones, guest of the program leader, brought the meeting to a close with two lovely vocal selections, "In the Garden of Your Heart," and "The Sunshine of Your Smile." She was accompanied by Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Smith.

During the social hour, a sweet course, with coffee, was served.

Joyner-Berry Wedding Vows Spoken In New Bern Saturday Jan. 18

New Bern—Miss Mary Elsie Berry of New Bern and Farmville and Frank Carl Joyner of Farmville and Charlotte were married here Saturday morning in an impressive wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. Leon Russell, pastor, in the presence of many friends, at Centenary Methodist Church.

Madonna lilies, white chrysanthemums, potted palms and ferns, similar and white candles were used as chancel decorations.

Before the ceremony, there was a program of nuptial music. Miss Mary Whitehurst, church organist, played "Drink To Me Only With Thing Eyes." John D. Holmes of Farmville sang a solo, "All Joy Be Thine." Elbert C. Holmes of Farmville sang "At Dawning," and both sang a duet, "The Want of You." Miss Whitehurst played the wedding marches, and rendered "O Perfect Love" during the ritual.

Ushers were Phil C. Bunn of Spring Hope and Edward T. Berry, Jr., of New Bern, brother of the bride. The bridegroom was attended by his father, Dr. C. C. Joyner of Farmville, as best man.

Miss Susan Berry of Durham was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gold crepe dress, with gold turban and brown accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The bride was given in matrimony by her father, Edward Thomas Berry. She was dressed in Precious rose crepe, with powder blue coat trimmed in azure blue fox. Her powder blue hat had a brown veil. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and pink sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left by motor for points South. Upon their return, they will be at home in Charlotte.

Mrs. Joyner is a native New Bernian. For some time she has been private secretary to A. C. Monk, a prominent tobaccoist of Farmville.

Mr. Joyner is a graduate of Oak Ridge Military Institute and the University of North Carolina. At present he is connected with the Winchester Surgical Supply Co., of Charlotte.

Junior Club To Sponsor Cosmetics

In a demonstration of the "House of Wakefield" line of cosmetics, which the Junior Woman's club is to sponsor, Miss Mary Jo Wakefield will be at the Vogue Beauty Salon each day of next week, Jan. 27, through Feb. 1st, to give facial treatments to every woman in Farmville, free of charge.

Appointments may be made thru Mrs. Carl Blackwood—Dist 377-5.

BIRD CLUB MEETS

At an interesting meeting of the Bird Club on Saturday, "Birds of the Bible," was used as the program subject. Neal Howard read "The Oldest Bird Story," (Genesis 8:6-12) about Noah sending the raven and dove from the ark to learn if the water had abated—then the return of the dove with an olive leaf in her mouth.

Many other references to birds were studied, including the names of those not to be eaten (Deuteronomy 14: 11-19).

NOTE OF THANKS

Mrs. R. C. Shirley and children wish to thank friends for the many acts of kindness shown them during their bereavement. They will always be remembered with deep gratitude.
