FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1941

Mrs. E. C. Carr spent Monday in

* * *

. . .

* * *

. . .

Wilson.

ket.

Newton.

Sunday.

Wednesday.

J. D. Owens.

Olympia Jones.

during the week end.

from a recent illness.

Ky., tobacco market.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE, FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C.

Vows Said In Late

Afternoon Ceremony

Delightful Sessions

Tompkins-Hardy

THUN CHERROLD MAN BOLD FARMVILLE SCHOOL FEBRUARY 3-7 Monday-Beef stew, creamed potatoes, carrots and peas, stewed prunes, biscuit, 10c; Chocolate pie 5c. Tuesday-String beans with bacon, corn budding, apple sauce, baked potatoes, corn bread, 10c; Caramel pie;

Wednesday-Meat loaf, rice, gravy, In a ceremony, impressive in its stewed tomatoes, okra fritters, gradignity and simplicity, Miss Eva Mae ham muffins, 10c; Cocoanut pie 5c. Thursday-Corn beef, succotash, slaw, parsley potatoes, corn bread, 10c; Banana pie, 5c.

> Friday-Salmon croquettes, salad greens, Irish potatoes, baked tomatoes, corn bread, 10c; Lemon pie, 5c.

> W. E. JOYNER HEADS MASONS

W. E. Joyner was duly installed as master of Farmville Lodge No. 517, for the next ensuing year, Other officers installed at the same time were Charlie Walston, Senior Warden, R. E. Belcher, Junior Warden, C. F. Baucom, Treasurer; M. W. Rollins, Secretary; Dr. W. M. Willis, Senior Deacon; L. P. Yelverton, Junior Deacon, and Paul Vaughan, Tiler:

by Augusta Tucker

When an author spends six years preparing for a novel-six years of living right in the midst of what she wants to tell about, then her story is bound to be vital and interesting. Miss Tucker lived in a medical boarding house; she rode ambulances; she stood all nite in accident rooms, she attended classes and operations with the students. She haunted John Hopkins. And out of her experiences she gives us a heart-warming story of Miss Susie and the medical students who lived at her boarding house, their classmates, professors, and sweethearts. The book covers a wide emotional range-comedy, tragedy, romance, high hopes and ideals-and it is told with lovingkindness and understanda part of John Hopkins an had a place in the hearts of famous doctors The bride entered the church with the world over-men who had found

PAGE THE

PRICES REDUCED

On All OIL Heaters in Our Present Stock.

SOCIAL CALENDAR Monday, February 3 Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Sheppard were Greenville visitors, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Smith were Kinston visitors, Wednesday. Mrs. Abe Joyner has returned from a visit to relatives in Grifton. Mrs. C. C. Joyner. R. E. Pickett has returned from the Knoxville. Tenn. tobacco market. James Monk returned Saturday from the Danville, Ky., tobacco marin the Church. Mrs. B. B. Phillips, of Macclesfield, the Church. spent Wednesday with Mrs. R. R. Mrs. Emma L. Jones. Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keffer and Tuesday, 4 son, Bobby, were Kinston visitors, 6:30 P. M .- Rotary Club. Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., and daught-8:00 P. M.-Junior Order. er, Ann, were Rocky Mount visitors Wednesday, 5 with Mrs. J. Y. Monk. Miss Frances Tugwell has return-Thursday, 6 ed to Fountain after a visit to Mrs. Miss Jeanne Jones, of Greenville, spent Tuesday with her sister, Miss Friday, 7 3:00 P. M.-Lamrad Club. 3:30 P. M.-U. D. C. Rev. Jesse McCarter. of Wake Forest, was a guest of J. W. Holmes 7:30 P. M .- Boy Scouts. World. Friends will be glad to learn that Saturday, 8 Mrs. Agnes Blount is recovering Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Royster re-M. Parrott as hostesses. turned Sunday from the Lexington,

Social and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Bradham returned Sunday from the Carthage, Tenn., tobacco market. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nash Warren and Mrs. J. M. Stansill visited rela-

2:30 P. M .- Spiritual Life Group, Methodist, meets in the Church. 3:00 P. M .- Baptist Missionary Society meets in the Church with Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Mrs. A. B. Moore as joint hostesses. 3:00 P. M .- Circle No. 1, Presbyteriam Auxiliary, meets with 3:00 P. M .- Episcopal Auxiliary meets with Mrs. J. C. Gibbs. 3:00 P. M.-Methodist Woman's Society Christian Service meets 3:00 P. M .- Woman's Council of the Christian Church meets in 8:00 P. M .- Circle No. 2, Presbyterian Auxiliary, meets with 3:00 P. M .- Contract Club meets with Mrs. Claude L. Barrett. 3:30 P. M.-Literary Club meets 3:00 P. M .- Junior Woman's Club meets at the home of Mrs. T. S. Ryon, with Miss Frances Winstead as joint hostesses. 7:00 P. M.-American Legion 8:00 P. M. - Woodmen of the 2:30 P. M.-Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., meets with Mrs. L. O. Moseley and Mrs. J. DEATH OF INFANT Friends here will regret to learn of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warren, -of Speed, which occurred at the Edgecombe General Hospital in Tarboro,

The delightful refreshments, serv ed after the program, consisted of officiated. stuffed angel cake and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones were gracious hostesses to the Couple Club on Monday evening. Hawthorne predominated in the floral decorations in the home on Belcher street. Mrs. Chas. E. Fitzgerald won the high score award for ladies, a rose bush, ans Arthur F. Joyner received the men's prize of toiletries. The hosts served a delicious sweet course with salted muts. The Ace Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Lynn Davis, when Mrs. David T. Harris scored high for members and won crystal ash trays, and Mrs.' R. E. Pickett was awarded the guest prize, bon bon dishes. Delicious tipsy cake and salted nuts were followed by coffee. Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. R. E. Pickett and Mrs. Hubert Register.

The Fine Arts Department of the Woman's Club held an enjoyable meeting this week at the home of Mrs. George W. Davis, Mrs. A. Q.

Roebuck was joint hostess to the Department with Mrs. Divis. Spring flowers were in evidence throughout

Mrs. W. J. Rasberry led the de votional program and Miss Mamie

Davis presented an interesting paper on the subject of Chili.

Farmville Clubs Meet

the home.

Members of the Progressive Bridge Club enjoyed an afternoon of bridge with Mrs. B. S. Sheppard as the hostess. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, which was decorated with early spring flowers. High score prizes, white vases, went to Mrs. R. O. Lang, a member, and to Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, a visitor. A delectable salad course with coffee was served after the games. Special guests of the hostess were: Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, Mrs. L. E. Walston, Mrs. R. A. Parker, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck and Mrs. George Moore, Jr.

A delightful meeting of the Merry Matrons was held on Tuesday with Mrs Wesley R. Willis as hostess. Forsythia, Japanese quince and gladioli were used in providing a springlike setting for the meeting absence of the president, Mrs. R

the program of the afternoon by as-dition of vocal duets. Mrs. G. M.

Club, held at the home of Mrs. G. E.

Moore with Mrs. A. C. Turnage as to

LeRoy Rollins, and contributed

Hardy became the bride of Stephen Austill Tompkins, Jr., of Charlotte, in the Christian Church here, at five o'clock, Saturday afternoon, January 25. The pastor, Rev. C. B. Mashburn, The colors of pink and green were used, with ferns massed in the pulpit as a background for floor baskets of pink snapdragons and pink gladioli tied with maline of the same shade. The scene was illuminated by pink candles in tall standards. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. M. V. Jones played "To A Wild Rose" and Schubert's "Serenade." John Dwight Holmes, tenor, sang "All Joy Be Thine:" Elbert C. Holmes, baritone, sang "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes;" Mrs. John D. Holmes, contralto, rendered "I Love You Truly." and the Messrs. Holmes sang a duet; "The Want Of You." The traditional wedding marches were used and during the ceremony "Poem" by Lisbick, was softly played. Mrs. Jones wore a dress of Indian penny shade, and a green hat with matching trim, and her flowers were a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Holmes was attired in a black costume dress and hat and wore a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses. Groomsmen at the ceremony were Willie Earl Hardy, brother of the bride, and Carroll Oglesby, of Kinston. David Smith, of Charlotte, was best man.

Miss Gene Horton attended the bride as maid of honor. Her dusty pink dress was in afternoon design and her off-the-face hat was a spring model of a matching shade. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink ing. Just as Miss Susie was so much sweet peas, blue gysophelia and narcissus, tied with pink satin ribbon. her father, Jesse William Hardy, by sympathy and understanding and a whom she was given in marriage. home under her roof-just so she and She was attired in a heavenly blue "her boys" win their place in our costume suit and her blue hat was of hearts. Spanish mode with navy trim and a Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt presided in the veil. She carried a graceful bouquet of Briarcliff roses and valley lilies. tied with pink satin ribbon and French maline. sisting Mrs. M. V. Jones in the ren-The bride and bridegroom left im- | ed for 4-H Club members of Greene mediately after the ceremony for a County interested in good milk cows Holden, program chairman of the motor trip to unannounced points. and how to care for them properly, They will reside upon their return says J. W. Grant, assistant farm at Wrightsville Beach, but will make agent. their home in Charlotte after a few

"MISS SUSIE SLAGLE'S"

tives in Speed, Wednesday. . . .

Misses Frances Newton and Julia Dean Tyson, of Charlotte, spent the week end with relatives here. * * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hodge and son, Beaumont, Jr., left recently to spend several months in Fayetteville. . . .

Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Miss Tabitha and Mrs. Gene Hinson, of Wilming-DeVisconti and Mrs. Blanche Paschall were Wilson visitors, Wednesday. * * *

Mrs. Alford and daughter, Miss Edna, of Kenly, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walston this week. . . .

Miss Bertha Joyner returned to resume her duties at Pink Hill school, Wednesday, after spending several days at her home here.

* * *

nesday from Augusta, Ga., where he a cardinal lunch counter was exhibitattended a meeting of the National ed in this connection. Cotton Council.

during the tobbacco season.

Friends will be glad to learn that make Bird Sanctuary signs for the Mrs. Bob Joyner, who underwent an highways leading into the town was operation recently in Carolina Gen- accepted with appreciation. eral Hospital, Wilson, is reported as improving.

Physicians here have expressed as feeling that the peak of the flu epidemic has been reached and they expect to see a decrease in the number of cases next week.

Misses Doris Rouse and Mary

Lewis returned to their studies at W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro, Monday, after spending several days with relatives here.

Mrs. J. H. S. Hodges, Mrs. J. D. McLawhorn, Mrs. J. B. Cannon and Mrs. Russell Britt, of Ayden, were guests of Mrs. Agnes Blount and Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., on Tuesday.

Miss Helen Willis and roommate, Miss Lucille King, of Detroit, Mich., seniors at Duke University, are spending the mid semester holidays here at the home of Miss Willis.

Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Henderson, of Scotland Neck, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Duncan and family, of Murfreesboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wheless, of Raleigh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheless during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Avery and

on Sunday

HERE FOR WEDDING

Among the out of town guests attending the Tompkins-Hardy wedding on Saturday were: Mrs. Stephen Austill Tompkins, afternoon, presented Mrs. Cherry Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Brown, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, of Charlotte; Mr. Easley, who gave an interesting discussion of "Contemporary Novelists." ton; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Shirley, of A delightful salad course was followed by coffee an dcookies. Special Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Weilguests of the hostess were Mrs. Easand, Mrs. Nunn and daughter, Miss ley, Mrs. Marvin Y. Self, Mrs. L. T. Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. George Vick, Pierce and Mrs. Haywood Smith. Miss Josephine De Burer and Miss Ruth Scull, of Kinston. A splendid meeting of the Garden joint hostess, was featured with an The Cardinal featured the Bird illustrated lecture on Flower Ar-Club meeting of the past week, with rangements, by R. P. Taylor, of the a program being developed by James Greenville Coca-Cola Company, the pictures presenting flower arranging Irvin Morgan, Jr., returned Wed- Bennett on his habits. A picture of as a fascinating hobby that may result in a picturesque grouping rather

BIRD CLUB

The chief activity of this meeting than a haphazard effect. Miss Bettie was the painting of bird houses made Joyner introduced the speaker. The R. H. Knott returned home yester- by the members, who extended a Moore home presented an attractive day from Danville, Ky., where he has cordial welcome to Billy Batton, setting for the meeting with effecbeen operating a couple warehouses Donald Walston and C. L. Ivey, Jr., tive arrangements of cydonia, narcissus, freesias, ivy and potted visitors at this time. The offer of the Boy Scouts to plants.

Miss Tabitha DeVisconti presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. J.-W. Holmes, and as conservation chairman told of the splendid program presented in the school under auspices of this group recently to the student body, which featured an illustrated lecture on Forestry by W. J. Barker. Miss DeVisconti, also Mrs. E. F. Gaynor gave sugges-

A. C. Monk and Mrs. G. E. Moore listed seeds that may be sowed during the month. A delicious sweet course with coffee and nuts was served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Mary Friar Rouse, Mrs. A. C. Monk and Miss Bettie Joyner. Mrs. Marvin Y. Self was welcomed as a visitor at this

FATHER OF MRS. TYSON

Friends here will regret to learn of the passing of Charles G. Mandeville, 74, who died January 7 at his friends here upon the many visits to his daughter and Mr. Tyson, who join The Enterprise in extending sympa-weeks. Mrs. Tompkins, vivacious and of attractive personality, is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse William Hardy, of Farmville. She was graduated from the Farmville high school and attended a commercial school in Raleigh. For the past year she has held a position with the Kinston radio station. Mr. Tompkins, son of Mrs. Stephen Austill Tompkins, of Charlotte, and the late Mr. Tompkins, Sr., is a member of the firm of Tompkins and Johnson, plumbing and heating contractors, of Charlotte.

Miss Hardy was honored by Miss Gene Horton at a lovely bridge shower on Thursday evening prior to her marriage. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, which was decorated with forest greens and illuminated by white candles.

In the progressive games of contract, Mrs. Lyman Joyner won the high score of sheer hose, and Miss Meta King Moore received a package of toiletries as the consolation. The bridal motifs were observed in the table appointments and the bride's place was marked with a corsage of roses.

Following the games, a delivery boy called and presented the bride with a package of beautiful miscellaneous gifts. The honoree received a gift of silver in her chosen pattern from the hostess.

A frozen salad course with coffee was served.

On Friday evening, following the rehearsal of the wedding, Mrs. David T. Harris and Miss Elsie Carraway entertained the bridal party and out of town guests at a cake cutting at the home of the former, in which winter greens and white candles were used with artistic effect. The bride's cake was decorated in the colors of pink, green and white and

We have a Stock of U.

THEY WANTED"

Also News and Cartoon

C. OF C. Mrs. Haywood Smith, leader of the Children of the Condeferacy, was hostess to an enjoyable meeting of Smith presided. States and Confederate flags, Alice Harper Parker, the chaplain, conducted devotionals. A motion contribute $1.00 to the March Dimes was approved. Hazel Spell had an interesting program prepared; "Old Folks at Home" and "Old Black Joe" were sung, after which Helen Rouse read an account of Stonewall Jackson's life, and accompanied by time.

Alice Harper Parker, sang "Stars of Love." John Parker read sketch of Robert E. Lee's life. A quiz centered on the War between the States was conducted by John Parker, with Jack Paylor as high scorer. The hostess served appetizing refreshments to eight members and George Warren, of Durham, a for- Tyson, of Farmville, and made many mer member.

ATTEND RUNERAL THURSDAY

Among out of town friends and this group Saturday night. Yvonne reported activities of the Bird Club. Following salutes to the United tions for January gardeners and Mrs. to thy to them in their bereavement. A tribute, testifying to his splen-

PASSES IN BAINBRIDGH home in Bainbridge, Ga. Mr. Mande- the ices also emphasized this color ville was the father of Mrs. John A. note.

