Monk-Turnage Engagement Announced at Lovely Party

Miss Mary Friar Rouse Hostess At Announcement Party; Valentine Motif Noted At Affairs of Week

A lovely social affair of the week was the announcement party, given by Miss Mary Friar Rouse, at which she entertained twenty-four friends in compliment to Miss Eva Mae Turnage, whose engagement was announced at this time.

Arrangements of white narcissus in red bubble bowls and red candles added a note of gay color to the Rouse home, which was thrown en-suite.

After guests had arrived, the hostess passed a silver tray on which were effectively arranged nosegays of white carnations tied with red ribbon and bearing a Valentine card with the words: "Eva Mae and James, March 15," announcing the engagement of Miss Eva Mae Turnage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Otto Turnage, to James Yancy Monk, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Yancy Monk. An all-white nosegay for the bride-elect was placed in the center of the tray.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The tea table bore a large ruffled heart and a red vase of white carnations, which were flanked by red and white candles.

Iced fruit juice was served with dainty sandwiches, which further emphasized the Valentine motif and colors, cheese biscuit, and salted nuts.

Mrs. Claude L. Barrett delightfully entertained the Contract Club this week. Potted plants were used as decorations and table appointments were suggestive of the Valentine season.

Mrs. S. A. Garris was awarded a hobbail flower bowl as high score prize. Delicious plum pudding topped with cream, coffee and salted nuts were served after play, the plates carrying favors of red satin boxes filled with heart shaped candies.

Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. S. A. Garris, Mrs. L. E. Wals-ton and Mrs. R. A. Parker.

Miss Ethel Nice, County Home Demonstration Agent, and husbands of the members of the Farmville Home Demonstration Club, were honor guests at a lovely dinner party held by this group at their club house. Mrs. J. R. Lewis, club president welcomed the guests and J. R. Shearin responded. A report of achievements of the past year was given by Mrs. B. F. Weaver. A humorous talk relating to her first radio broadcast experience was given by Mrs. B. R. Fields. Miss Nice spoke briefly regarding plans of the county clubs for early spring. A musical program was rendered by J. H. Bynum, Billy Smith, J. R. Shearin, and by Robert Fields, who played accordion selections. The program was concluded with the singing of "God Bless America," by the entire group.

Decorations of flags and the national colors were suggestive of national heroes, whose birthdays occur this month.

The experiences of the first policeman in the United States and her desire to help womankind, as vividly portrayed by Mary Sullivan, present director of the New York Police-woman's Bureau, in her biography, "My Double Life," were relayed in an interesting manner to the Literary Club members at the meeting on Wednesday, by Miss Elizabeth Davis. Mrs. J. W. Joyner presided and as her contribution to the program read a poem, "Salutation of the Dawn," from the North Carolina Club Woman.

Mrs. W. M. Willis made a report on the diphtheria immunization movement, which is to be undertaken soon by the women's organizations here.

A delicious salad, congealed in the Valentine motif, was served with coffee and accessories by the hostess, Mrs. J. Y. Monk, who entertained the club at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden. A hostess plate containing cheese biscuit, cookies and heart shaped candies was also passed.

Narcissus, ivy and Japanese quince were used as decorations in the home.

IN APPRECIATION

We are just emerging from an epidemic of Influenza, Pneumonia and severe colds, etc. We are very grateful to our heavenly Father for his passing, and that we have had so few deaths therefrom. We not only thank Him, but we wish to say a word of appreciation for the fine spirit shown by our Physicians. They have not spared themselves, but have gone day and night ministering to all who called upon them. Not a case of neglect has come to my knowledge. Hats off to our Doctors!

Also we should like to thank the Police of our city for the fine work they have done—visiting, helping and in many ways ministering to the needs of humanity. As one citizen of our Physicians, town Officials and Sanitarium minded citizens.

Sincerely, C. B. Mashburn.

FATHER-SON BANQUET

The Farmville Chapter of the Future Farmers of America held its first Father-Son banquet Wednesday night, February 5, in the Vocational Agricultural building. The banquet began with a welcome by Tom Raspberry.

The fun of the evening began with songs sung by all. H. P. Norman gave the invocation. The toast to the Dads was given by Charlie Evans and response by L. E. Turnage. What the F.F.A. stands for was given by Mark Mazingo, followed by a program of work by William Jones; Recognition of guests, by Lester Earl Turnage. E. N. Meekins, District Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture, spoke briefly.

Guests other than the Fathers were; Mrs. Rollins, President of the P.T.A.; J. H. Moore, Superintendent of Farmville High School; Dr. Paul E. Jones and J. I. Morgan of the school board; John T. Thorne, member of the county board of education; Eli Joyner, President of the Rotary Club; E. N. Meekins, district supervisor of Vocational work in this district; Mr. Patrick, teacher of Agriculture from Chocowinity; and DeWitt Allen, representative of a local business firm.

The banquet was served by the third year Home Economics Class, under the supervision of Miss Verona Lee Joyner, the Home Economics teacher of Farmville High School and Miss Kirby, a practice teacher from E. C. T. C.

SCOUTS TO HOLD FATHER-SON MEET

Boy Scout Troop No. 25 will hold a Father-Son night meeting in the Rotary room of the high school building, Wednesday, February 12, at 6:30 o'clock, to which the fathers of the scouts are especially urged to attend.

Scoutmaster Ivey has a program planned that will interest everyone. A. L. Hodges, assistant Scout Executive of the East Carolina Council will be present and take part in the program. Dinner will be served at 35c per plate.

The Scout movement in Farmville is advancing steadily. With the co-operation of the citizens here it will continue to grow and in the years to come dividends in the form of an alert and progressive citizenship will result.

Happiness Begins in the Home

WHEN YOU ARE SEVENTY . . .

And look back across the years to the home you loved and enjoyed, the home in which your children grew up to manhood and womanhood, your home, that place most sacred in your memories, will there be any doubts in your mind that you made it as convenient and as comfortable for your family as you possibly could?

Do not wait until you are seventy to realize that your home is not as convenient and comfortable as you can make it.

Present day furniture prices and designs permit anyone, however small their income, to furnish their home comfortably and to buy those items of convenience that will make life easier and more pleasant.

"Furniture is your best investment" in life long happiness and comfort. Resolve now, while you can help them enjoy it, to buy for your family the necessary, furnishing they need and want.
