Programs of Special Interest Feature Meetings This Week

P. T. A. Observes Birthday; Mrs. Pickelsimer Addresses Junior Women

The 44th birthday of the National Association of Parents and Teachers was celebrated at a special meeting of the local organization. Rev. H. M. Wilson had charge of the meditation period, and the business session was conducted by Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins.

Mrs. L. F. Williford, secretary, reported the recent meeting of the executive committee; Mrs. Claude L. Barrett, stated that the association has a balance of $246.48, in her report as treasurer, and Supt. J. H. Moore told of 18 trees having been transplanted on the school grounds in observance of Founder's Day. The room-roll contest was won by the third grade, Miss Margaret Lewis, teacher.

The president presented Master Robert Pollard, winner of the recent county declaration-recitation contest, who gave his prize winning recitation, "When Johnny Grows Up." After this the huge birthday cake, was set aglow by the lighting of the 44 candles by Boots Thomas, and Mrs. Cherry Eastley, program chairman, announced the further observance of the day in the presentation of the pageant, "As Told By Candles," which was enacted by members of the Dramatics Club under the direction of Miss Ellen Lyles.

Following this, Miss Annie Perkins recounted the incidents leading up to the organization of the P. T. A., and traced its history in an interesting talk. Members and visitors enjoyed a social hour together, at which time delicious refreshments were served.

The program of the Junior Woman's Club was featured with a splendid discourse on "Modern American Poets" by Mrs. P. W. Pickelsimer, of Greenville. Mrs. Pickelsimer sketched the lives and works of Robert Frost, Carl Sandburg, Vachel Lindsey, Allan Siegar and Florence Evans and read poems depicting their style. In conclusion she read Poe's "Annabelle Lee." The guest speaker was presented by Mrs. John Wilkerson.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wheelers with Mrs. C. M. Paylor and Mrs. Bob V. Fiser as hostess, Mrs. J. Leroy Parker presiding. Mrs. Jesse Moye was appointed the club's teacher of "Primer for Americans," which will be taught in a study course, to be sponsored by the federated clubs here. Delicious refreshments were served after adjournment. Special guests were Mrs. J. M. Wheelers, Jr., Mrs. Chester Outland, Mrs. Bryan Gaddy and Miss Frances Beaman.

A delightful meeting of the Merry Matrons was held with Mrs. R. A. Fields on Tuesday. Early spring flowers were in effective arrangements throughout the home. The business session was presided over by Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, at which time Mrs. Joel Moye was elected to serve as secretary. The guest speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Jesse Moye, presented a highly interesting review of current happenings in the United States.

During the pleasant social hour the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. John E. King, served a marshall salad course with coffee. Special guests were Mrs. King, Mrs. Jesse Moye, Mrs. Marvin Y. Self and Mrs. G. A. Jones.

The American Legion Auxiliary held an interesting meeting in the Legion hall with Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Mrs. J. C. Brock and Mrs. J. E. Bynum as hostesses. The hall was decorated with a quantity of hawthorne and a miniature cherry tree.

Mrs. S. A. Garris presided and heard reports from the treasurer, Mrs. Louise D. Harris, and the publicity chairman, Mrs. J. E. Bynum. Mrs. B. F. Fields, in charge of the program for the afternoon, presented Mrs. W. M. Willis, who spoke on the subject of "Americanism and National Defense." Mrs. Willis announced a recent gift of a flag and pole to the Farmville high school by the local American Legion Post and the Auxiliary.

Mrs. R. F. Weaver read a selection, "Women In War," which emphasized the horrors of conflict and the important part women can take in the striving for universal peace. The program chairman reviewed Jonathan Daniels' recent magazine article, "America Awakens To War."

After adjournment, the members enjoyed a word contest, hidden in a cherry pie and brought to light by miniature hatchets. Mrs. J. E. Bynum was winner of the prize.

The delicious refreshments consisted of South Sea Island roll, topped with cream, toasted sandwiches, hatched shaped cookies and coffee.

The Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden with Mrs. A. C. Monk, Sr., and Mrs. Henry D. Johnson as hostesses. The 13th anniversary of the group was observed at this time.

The program was developed by Miss Bettle Joyce, who described the types of gardens typical of the various nations, and by Mrs. Howard Moye, who conducted a round table discussion of gardening activities.

Mrs. Tabitha Davidson talked briefly on the subject of Communion. Mrs. Archie Caplan was cordially welcomed as a new member.

Delicious ice box cake was followed by coffee, cheese straws and mints. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner were gracious hosts to the Couple Club Monday evening. Sprays of early blooming shrubs were in attractive arrangements. Mrs. W. E. Joyner was winner of the prize for ladies, a crystal plate, and Dr. Chas. E. Fitzgerald won the men's prize, handkerchiefs. A delicious sweet course with cake and salted nuts was served.

Mrs. Alex Allen was hostess to members of the Lamrad Club, who played another of the tournament series of progressive bridge, in which this group it at present engaged. Mrs. T. S. Ryan and Miss Eva Mae Turnage were special guests, the former compiling high score and winning a rose bush as an award. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. W. Parker was hostess at a joint meeting of the Colonel Alexander McAllister Chapter, D. A. R., and the Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, U. D. C. this week. Mrs. Mary Colvin-Murphy presided and Mrs. E. Y. Lovelace, chaplain of the D. A. R. chapter, led the devotional program.

In the period, devoted to business, the regent reminded chapter members of the State Conference to be held in Wilson March 4-6. Mrs. Robinson was extended a cordial welcome upon her return to the chapter, and Miss Payne Sugg, a new member, was warmly received.

A patriotic program was developed by Mrs. Marvin Y. Self, who discussed George Washington in the light of a Christian gentleman, and by Miss Pauline Stroud, who, accompanied by Mrs. Haywood Smith, sang "God Bless America," "George Washington," and "A Heart That's Free."

After adjournment the hostess served a delectable salad course. The national colors were effectively carried in decorations of red carnations, white snapdragons and Dutch iris, used by Mrs. Billy R. Burke as a floral setting for a meeting of the New Deal Club, held in her home, Wednesday afternoon.
