ART FESTIVAL IN APRIL

The Fine Arts department of the Woman's Club announces that it will sponsor an Art Festival, presenting home talent, in connection with a presentation of state talent by the Farmville Literary Club, early in April.

STATE OFFICERS AT STUDY GROUP MEETING

Mrs. John Robinson, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Stedman Carr, secretary, both of Wallace, spent Thursday here attending the study group meeting of the federated clubs, The Farmville Woman's Club, the Literary Club and the Junior Woman's Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood.

The primer of Americanism was taught at this time by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Miss Mamie Davis, Miss Elizabeth Davis and Miss Jesse Moya, to a large and an enthusiastic group of club women, who brought a cover dish luncheon with them and spent the entire day on the course of study as outlined and recommended by the State Federation.

FOUNTAIN T. P. A. MEETS

The Fountain Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting in the school auditorium on Thursday night. Devotional was conducted by Mrs. C. M. Smith. Mrs. J. M. Horton presided over the business meeting, at which time a nominating committee was appointed. A summer round-up committee was appointed for the purpose of transporting children to and from school for the preschool clinic, which is to be held soon. Announcement was made that a committee had been appointed by the Fountain Woman's Club to work with the P. T. A. Committee at the clinic.

At the close of the business session Miss Pauline Stroud, accompanied by Mrs. Haywood Smith, sang a beautiful selection. Mr. R. H. Forrest, program chairman, then presented Dr. Carl Adams, a member of East Carolina Teachers College faculty, who gave a most interesting talk on child psychology.

There were a number of Grifton friends here also, whose names we were unable to get.

What you gave is more important than what you got if you got what you wanted.

Miss Barrow, Dr. Hammond Wed in Afternoon Ceremony

Pre-nuptial Parties Honor Bride Elect During Week

The wedding of Miss Lucy Olivia Barrow and Dr. Alfred Franklin Hammond, Jr. of Pollockville and Fort Custer, Mich., took place Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in the Farmville Methodist Church, in a ceremony characterized by dignity and simplicity. Rev. Marvin Y. Self, pastor of the Church, officiated. Ferns formed the background for baskets of pink gladioli, and cathedral candles, burning in floor standards, illuminated the wedding scene.

Mrs. Haywood Smith, organist, played a prelude of nuptial music. John D. Holmes, tenor, sang "All Joy Be Thine" and the two soloists rendered "The Want of You" as a duet. The traditional wedding marches were used and "Liebestraum" by Liszt, was softly played during the ceremony.

Ushers were Taylor Everette Barrow, Jr., and William Lee Hammond, brothers of the bride and bridegroom. Bert Barrow Warren, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. The couple, unattended, entered the Church together.

The bride wore a quartz rose costume suit of chiffon wool in original design; the tie-peplum jacket was elaborately trimmed in rose fox, dyed to match, and had peg sleeves. Her short-sleeved frock had a tucked silk marquisette yoke in cut-out mode. Her French model hat, of soft woven navy straw, had a crater blue chon as the crown trimming and a flowing veil of navy blue. She had blue accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids and stephanotis.

Following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Hammond left for a wedding trip, after which they will make their home at Battle Creek, Michigan.

The bride, an attractive and vivacious young woman, is the daughter of Taylor Everette Barrow and the late Mrs. Lucy Tyson Barrow. She attended Woman's College University of North Carolina, and was graduated from East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, where she was designated the most beautiful senior in the superlatives. She has been a popular member of the Grifton school faculty for several years.

Dr. Hammond, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Franklin Hammond, of Pollockville, was graduated from Duke University and is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. He attended the medical school of the University of North Carolina and was graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. He has practiced medicine in Grifton for the past five years. Dr. Hammond is 1st Lieutenant in the Medical Corps of the United States Army, 5th Medical Battalion, stationed at Fort Custer, Michigan.

Following the rehearsal Tuesday evening, the bridal party and out of town guests were entertained at a cake cutting by the bride's sister, Mrs. Ed Nash Warren and Mr. Warren.

The home was decorated with daffodils and white tulips. The green and white color note was used with artistic effect in the dining room. The table had a centerpiece of white stocks, carnations and snapdragons in a silver bowl, flanked by white tapers in silver holders. The three tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and fortunes were attached by white ribbon streamers. Ices and mints carried the chosen colors. Salted nuts were served also.

Miss Geraldine Gardner was hostess at a lovely bridge affair, complimenting Miss Lucy Olivia Barrow, whose marriage to Dr. Alfred Franklin Hammond, Jr., of Pollockville and Fort Custer, Mich., took place on Wednesday of this week. The St. Patrick colors of green and white were carried in the floral decorations with jonquils adding a color note of yellow.

The high score prize, coasters, was won by the honoree, who was presented with lovely hurricane lamps by the hostess.

Stuffed angel cake, emphasizing the chosen colors and the shamrock motif, was served, followed by pinwheel cookies and coffee.

Mrs. J. M. Hobgood delightfully entertained the Merry Matrons on Tuesday at her home, in which quantities of spring flowers were artistically arranged. Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided.

A lovely musical program was presented by Mrs. John D. and Mrs. Albert C. Holmes, with Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner as accompanist. Mrs. J. L. Morgan, acting as program chairman for Mrs. R. H. Knott, conducted two interesting contests with Mrs. B. L. Lang and Miss Annie Perkins declared winners of the awards, a nosegay and candy. The members sent a shower of beautiful and useful gifts at this time to Mrs. Knott, who has recently returned from Duke hospital.

A grapefruit salad, cheese biscuit and hot tea were served during the pleasant social hour.

Members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club and additional friends, Mrs. Eva Mae Turnage, Mrs. Lath Morris, Mrs. W. S. Boyner, Mrs. E.

Pickett, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner and Mrs. J. T. Windham enjoyed an afternoon of contract at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden with Mrs. H. H. Bradham as hostess. Jonquils were used to carry a color note of yellow and green, which was again emphasized in the refreshments.

Mrs. Tommy S. Ryon compiled high score for members and received bric-a-brac, and Mrs. Lath Morris won the guest prize, linen towels. Miss Eva Mae Turnage, bride elect, was presented with a crystal sugar and cream set.

After the games, hostess plates, containing pickles, olives, and a variety of cookies were placed on each table and served with a beverage.

Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., was hostess at a delightful meeting of the New Deal Club, held in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden. The St. Patrick motif and colors were used throughout in floral arrangements, table appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. Billy Burke won the club award, crystal dessert plates, and Mrs. Pat Ruffin received the guest prize, a double deck of cards. Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst was given attractive kitchen accessories as consolation prize.

A delicious ice box dessert was served, followed by coffee and cheese straws.

Special guests were: Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mrs. J. Blount, Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. J. H. Paylor, Mrs. J. M. Mewborn, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, Mrs. Lath Morris, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. Chas. E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. R. O. Lang, and Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst.

A number of interesting progressions of contract were played by members of the Couple Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Joyner on Monday evening. Spring flowers lent fragrance and color to the home on Contentment street.

Mrs. M. V. Jones won the ladies' prize, guest towels, and Dr. Chas. E. Fitzgerald received the men's award, linen handkerchiefs. After play, a delicious apple-nut pudding with cream was served, followed by cookies, coffee, salted nuts and candies.

Miss Vernice Lang Jones delightfully entertained the Lamrad Club, which is engaged in a tournament series of contract at present. Mrs. Tommy S. Ryon won the guest award and Miss Eva Mae Turnage, bride elect, was presented with silver in her pattern by the hostess. Ice cream pie was served, followed by salted nuts and coffee.

An interesting program was developed at the Literary Club meeting by Mrs. Claude L. Barrett, who reviewed "The Country Lawyer" by Bellamy Partridge, and by Mrs. W. C. Askew, who read the president's page from the Club Woman, and discussed the plans for spring activities of the federated clubs of the State.

Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., and her small daughter, Anne, assisted the hostess, Mrs. J. L. Morgan, in receiving and in serving delicious refreshments. Spring flowers were in beautiful arrangements throughout the Morgan home.

Mrs. John M. Mewborn and Mrs. William Forbes were joint hostesses to the Junior Woman's Club this week. Mrs. J. LeRoy Parker presided and welcomed two new members, Mrs. W. Watson Keffer and Mrs. Bryan Caddy, into the club at this time.

Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss gave excerpts from the Club Woman, and Mrs. Jesse Moya discussed current events.

Mrs. Archie Cayton and Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard gave interesting discussions based on the American Cinema; Mrs. Cayton tracing its development and phenomenal progress, and Mrs. Pollard sketching the life of Cecil B. DeMille, a native of North Carolina.

A delectable salad with coffee was served at the conclusion of the program.

Featuring the program of the March meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., was a splendid talk on "South America" by the Rev. Mr. Courtney, of Fountain. Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, program chairman of the afternoon, presented the guest speaker.

Mrs. W. H. Whitmore, vice regent, and a delegate to the recent State Conference of the D. A. R., held in Wilson, gave echoes of the meeting at this time.

Ice cream, cake and salted nuts were served, the ices carrying the colors of white and green.

A Gentle Laxative Good For Children

Most any child who takes this tasty laxative once will welcome it the next time he's constipated and it has him headachy, cross, listless, with bad breath, coated tongue or little appetite.

Syrup of Black-Draught is a tasty liquid companion to the famous BLACK-DRAUGHT. The principal ingredient is the same in both products; helps impart tone to lax bowel muscles.

The Syrup's flavor appeals to most children, and, given by the simple directions, its action is usually gentle, but thorough. Remember Syrup of Black-Draught next time. Two sizes: 50c and 25c.
