Mr. and Mrs. Riley Honored At Party; Clubs Have Splendid Programs

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owens Riley, whose marriage occurred this month, were honored at a lovely bridge party, given on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. D. R. Morgan, by Miss Geraldine Cameron, Miss Annie Lee Jones, Miss Ellet Lyles and Miss Margaret Thigpen. Pastel shades were carried in the floral decorations and the Easter season was suggested in table appointments.

When scores were compiled, Mrs. Lath Morris was presented with the high award for ladies, a double deck of Congress cards, Pat Ruffin received the men's prize, linen handkerchiefs, and the floating prize, an Easter novelty, was retained by Mrs. David T. Harris.

Ices and cakes were served with the Easter season again emphasized in the favors.

Members of the Garden Club enjoyed a meeting of that group on Monday, when Miss Elizabeth Davis, guest speaker, who returned recently from New York, discussed the International Garden Show, which she attended. Another feature of the program was a paper on "The Historic Gardens of the South" by Mrs. B. S. Sheppard.

Mrs. Charles Mazingo and Mrs. Joel Moye were hostess at the meeting held in the home of the former. A variety of spring bloom was in artistic arrangements throughout the home. Mrs. J. W. Holmes presided.

Miss Tabitha DeVicenti outlined plans for observance of Conservation Week, gave a review of Bird Club activities, and read a clipping regarding the adoption of the dogwood as the new State flower.

The chairman discussed the annual Garden Pilgrimage, which includes the gardens of Goldsboro, Tarboro, Mt. Olive, and Greenville, on April 3-4; Red Spring and Flora MacDonald, April 10; and Rocky Mount on April 11-12.

A delectable salad course was served after adjournment.

The March meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was featured by an interesting program based on the general topic of "Know Your School." The program was developed by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, who gave reasons why parents and teachers should know the Board members and their duties; by T. E. Ryan, who spoke on the subject of "Know Your Principal"; by John B. Lewis, who emphasized the elementary school angle and cooperation with the teachers, and by Mrs. Joel Moye, who brought the program to a close by stressing the importance of knowing the school child.

Rev. J. B. Roberts had charge of the devotional period, and Mrs. Cherry Easley, program chairman, presented the speakers.

Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided and appointed as a nominating committee, Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst and Mrs. R. A. Parker.

Mrs. L. F. Willford presented the following recommendations from the Executive Board, which were adopted at this time:

To hold meetings of the Association at 8:00 in the evening for the remainder of this semester; to have a representative to the state P. T. A. conference, which will meet in Asheville, and to the Chapel Hill study conference.

The treasurer reported a balance of $393.00 in the treasury and the sum of $6.83 sent to headquarters as a Founder's Day contribution. Mrs. W. H. Moore, wardrobe chairman, gave her report, and Mrs. R. S. Scott, finance chairman, announced that 6 acres had been donated by B. S. Sheppard and J. W. Holmes for use as a vegetable garden for the school lunch room this year.

for honors in the room roll call contest.

Superintendent J. H. Moore announced the change in the faculty, due to Miss Verona Lee Joyner's acceptance of the position as County Demonstration Agent, and presented Mrs. A. P. Burton, a former Home Ec teacher here, who will teach during the remainder of the term. Mr. Moore also announced a pre-school clinic to be held here on Thursday, April 8.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Willis delightfully entertained the Couple Club this week at their home, in which hyacinths, daffodils, First Breath of Spring and hawthorne were arranged to make a Spring like setting.

Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald won the ladies high score award, pottery, and M. V. Jones received folletries as the prize for men. Mrs. G. A. Jones and Mrs. Sally K. Horton shared with players in the pleasures of the evening.

Strawberry shortcake, Russian tea and cookies were served after play.

Featuring the business session of the American Legion Auxiliary this month was the appointment of Mrs. P. E. Jones and Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., as directors of the annual Poppy Sale; announcement of the Area Conference to be held in Greenville, this month and the decision to send gifts to the boys at Oteen.

The time usually set aside for the program was used by members to fill in the volunteer registration blanks for service in case of emergency. Mrs. S. A. Garris presided. Mrs. D. G. Ballow and Mrs. B. F. Weaver acted as hostesses at the meeting, which was held in the Legion hall, and served a delicious sweet course during a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. Jesse Moye was a gracious hostess this week, entertaining the Junior Woman's Club at her home, in which mantel and floral decorations effectively carried the Easter colors and suggestions.

Mrs. J. Leroy Parker presided and discussed the annual State Federation meeting, which will be held in Winston-Salem, and reported that Bicycle Club project would be supervised by the town with all bicycle owners being required to register and attend instruction classes designed for riding in safety.

Mrs. Mac Carraway gave an interesting report of the splendid study group meeting held recently by federated clubs here.

In continuation of the study of South America, Mrs. James Smith read a paper on Columbia. Mrs. R. T. Williams brought the program to a conclusion with a discussion of Panama.

A delicious beverage was served with sandwiches, Saratoga chips, cookies and pickles.

The New Deal Club played several interesting programs of contract this week at a meeting of that group held in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden with Mrs. S. A. Garris as hostess. Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., winner of the club prize, and Mrs. Lath Morris, winner of guest award, received baking dishes.

A delicious congealed salad, ham and biscuit, cheese straws and iced tea were served after play. Seasonal suggestions were carried in the color note and plate decorations.

Special guests were Mrs. B. L. Lang, Mrs. Lath Morris, Mrs. E. M. Blount, Mrs. M. V. Horton, Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. W. E. Joyner, Mrs. H. Neal Howard, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, Mrs. J. H. Paylor and Mrs. Pat Ruffin.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver delightfully entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club this week. Spring flowers were used with pleasing effect as a setting for the table. Mrs. Ted L. Albritton was awarded the second prize, a crystal swan flower container, and Mrs. John B. Lewis received the consolation, dainty note paper. A delightful dessert course was served. Mrs. Rex Hodges was a special guest of the hostess.

Miss Margaret Thomas and Miss Madge Smith entertained at a lovely shower in compliment to Miss Mamie Thomas, bride elect, at the home of Mrs. G. E. Ballow, Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Tommy Mizelle, Miss Elvia Tyson and Mrs. Nellie Outland. The shower of lovely gifts was presented to the honoree in a unique manner.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT POSTPONED TO APRIL 3
The Home Demonstration Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herman Baker, announces postponement of the Bridge Tournament, which will be sponsored by this group to Thursday, April 3.

Play will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 7 o'clock in the evening, with a barbecue plate being served at noon and at supper, for 35c. Prizes of dressed chickens and home products such as canned fruits, pickles and home cooked delicacies will be offered.

For reservation of tables for the tournament or for either meal, dial 212-1, Mrs. Baker, or 212-3, Mrs. J. R. Lewis.
