Monk-Joyner Engagement Announced at Party Here

Miss Frances Joyner's Engagement to Robert T. Monk Announced; Mrs. A. J. Moye Honored at Lovely Tea Wednesday

One of the largest and loveliest of social events held during the entire Spring season, was the dessert bridge and announcement party, given by Miss Verona Lee Joyner on Saturday night, at which she announced the engagement of her sister, Miss Frances Barrett Joyner to Robert Turnage Monk.

The affair was held in the D. A. R. Chapter House, in which double ragged robins, larkspur, snapdragons and roses, in shades of pink, were used in combination with pink candles with artistic effect.

Guests were greeted as they arrived by the hostess, the honoree, and Miss Inez Moore, of Raleigh, a house guest in the Joyner home, and directed to their places at sixteen tables, which bore lovely appointments for a dessert course, served after all had arrived. Ices were in bridal motifs, mints emphasized the color note of pink and white, and the cakes, cleverly designed as colonial nosegays, concealed cards, which read Frances-Robert, July 9, thus announcing the approaching marriage of these popular members of the young social set here.

Miss Joyner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Joyner. Mr. Monk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk. The bride elect's place was marked by a corsage of white roses.

Following three progressions of contract, Miss Gene Horton was presented with a flower container as high score award and Miss Inez Moore received a compact as the consolation. The honor guest was presented with a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Miss Elizabeth Lang and Mrs. M. H. Potter, Jr., of Snow Hill, presided at the punch table, where iced fruit juice, a variety of cookies, salted nuts and mints were served. Assisting in serving were Mrs. T. E. Joyner and Mrs. Nonie Barrett, mother and grandmother of the hostess and Miss Frances Winstead.

Mrs. A. C. Monk, Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, of High Point, Mrs. John B. Joyner, Miss Bettie Joyner and Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck joined the other guests during the refreshment hour.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Woody Sanderlin and Miss Inez Moore, of Raleigh; Mrs. Benny Bullock, of Burlington; Miss Jenny Moore, of Rocky Mount; Misses Catherine Holtz Claw, Mary Greene, Jessie Scholz, Laura Bell, Jane Hadley, Agnes Fullilove, Louise Dalton, Alice Wooten and Marj Thomas Smith, of Greenville.

Tea

Mrs. Abram James Moye, whose marriage occurred this month, was feted at one of the loveliest teas of the season, on Wednesday afternoon by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Joel William Moye, Mrs. Howard DeWitt Moye, Mrs. William Jesse Moye, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson Moye, Mrs. Clarence Hardy Moye and Mrs. Milton James Moye.

The tea was held in the D. A. R. Chapter House, which was beautiful in its decorations of delphinium, sweetpeas, ragged robins, larkspur and roses, carrying the pastel shades and used with artistic effect as a background to the pink tapers.

Mrs. J. O. Pollard greeted guests as they arrived.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson introduced the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Joel William Moye, Mrs. Abram James Moye, Mrs. Leland Kitchin, mother of the bride, Mrs. Howard DeWitt Moye, Mrs. William Jesse Moye, Mrs. Clarence Hardy Moye, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson Moye, Mrs. Milton James Moye, Mrs. Annie McDowell, Miss Maria Kitchin, Miss Pauline Stroud and Miss Ruth Hayes Turnage, brides-elect.

Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr., a recent bride, Miss Kate Parks Kitchin, Miss Annie Gaynor.

Mrs. J. C. Manning directed the way to the punch table with its lovely appointments. Serving here were Mrs. M. T. Moye and Mrs. Mac Carraway, assisted by Miss Ruby Evans Moye, Miss Ann Turnage, Miss Esther Lou Albritton, Miss Agnes Virginia Quinerly.

Mrs. A. C. Monk received at the stair.

At the door to the banquet room upstairs were Mrs. Hardy Albritton and Mrs. J. H. Paylor. Mrs. L. E. Flowers, received in the banquet room.

The colonial table held a center arrangement of Madonna lilies, gypsophelia, fever few and double larkspur, carrying a color note of white and green. Tall white candles tied with maline and gypsophelia were in silver candlesticks.

Mrs. C. H. Eagles and Mrs. M. H. Tucker served from either end of the table, the latter carrying the heart motif and the decorated cakes the chosen colors. Mints and salted nuts were served by Miss Vera Lee Turnage, Miss Kathleen Eagles, Miss Mary Prior Boney, Miss Nita Lee Townsend, Miss Mary Ann Townsend, Mrs. Lyman Joyner, Mrs. C. W. Shackelford, Mrs. Dal Cox and Mrs. J. H. Harris.

Miss Bettie Joyner presided over the register.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Howard Harris and Mrs. B. S. Smith.

A lovely program of instrumental and vocal selections was presented during the calling hours by Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, pianist; Miss Nellie Butler and Miss Pauline Stroud, sopranos; and Mrs. John D. Holmes, contralto.

Two hundred and fifty guests called during the afternoon, including a number of friends from Greenville, Snow Hill, Kinston, Wilson, Maury, Rocky Mount, Tarboro and Scotland Neck.

Fine Arts

The Fine Arts department of the Women's Club held its last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. R. A. Parker, with Mrs. J. M. Christman, Mrs. Charles H. Moringo, Mrs. Joseph Batchelor, Miss Marie Davis and Mrs. B. B. Fordham as joint hostesses. Bowls of mixed summer flowers were used on mantels and tables.

Mrs. J. D. Gold, of Wilson, as guest speaker, charmingly presented the characters of her recent book, "It Was Forever," as personal and intimate friends, and gave a brief review of the getting and plot. Mrs. J. H. Harris, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr., presided and spoke briefly during a business session, regarding the year's activities and expressed appreciation for the support of the members during this time.

A refreshing iced course was served after adjournment.

Garden Club

The Garden Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. E. C. Carr, with Mrs. John E. Wilkerson as joint hostess. Arrangements of snapdragons, sweetpeas and ragged robins made an appropriate setting for the group, whose study for the afternoon was based on "English Gardens." Mrs. C. S. Eagles, of Saratoga, was guest speaker and traced the gardens of England from their beginning as plots designed and worked by the monks. Roses were found to be the predominant and favorite flower in the English garden and the hedge enclosure the distinguishing feature.

Mrs. J. W. Holmes, retiring president, and Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, the newly elected head of this group, spoke on subjects relating to the activity of this department.

Ices, cookies and nuts were served. Special guests were Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, of High Point, Mrs. M. Y. Self, and Mrs. Ed Nash Warren.

Progressive Bridge Club

Mrs. J. H. Darden was hostess to the Progressive Bridge Club this week, when table prizes, novel coasters sets, were won by Miss Tabitha DeVinson and Mrs. Jack Smith. A delicious marshmallow salad course and iced tea were served after play.

Ace Club

Members of the Ace Club enjoyed an afternoon of contract at the home of Mrs. Lyman Joyner, in which roses and sweetpeas were used in pleasing arrangements. Iced fruit juice was served after the guests arrived, and sandwiches and tea were enjoyed when cards were laid aside. Mrs. Jimmie Smith, winner of high score, received a salad set and Mrs. J. H. Smith was given vases as consolation.

Merry Matrons

The Merry Matrons were delightfully entertained by Mrs. R. O. Lang, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided over a short business session when a program of study for the new club year was discussed by the committee, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. J. O. Pollard and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith.

The program was featured with a talk by Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, of High Point, a former member on Spring, Mrs. Lovelace concludes her interesting discourse by reading a group of poems.

A variety of dainty sandwiches, cookies, salted nuts and an iced beverage were served during the social period.

Couple Club

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones graciously entertained the Couple Club and additional guests, Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mrs. Sallie Horton, Monday evening, at their home, in which roses and larkspur were effectively used.

In the games of contract, Mrs. C. H. Joyner scored high for ladies and received lovely vases, and W. E. Joyner won the men's award, handkerchiefs. Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt compiled high score among the guests and was presented with a guest towel.

Ices, cakes and nuts were served after play.
