Clubs Very Active In Fall and Winter

Clubs and organizations, aside from the church groups, number thirty five, and deserve commendation for the work they are doing along educational lines, which includes sponsorship of the public library. (Woman's Club), the fostering of worthy movements, and a co-operative spirit in connection with the welfare work of the community.

All the women's organizations disband during the summer months with the exception of the Garden Club. Activities will be resumed in September and plans of executive officers call for renewed interest and zeal in carrying forward the fall programs of the respective groups.

The Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., has the distinction of having a handsome chapter house of colonial architecture, erected at a cost of $12,000.

The various women's organizations in addition to those connected with the churches include:

Literary: Farmville Literary Club, Merry Matrons.

Civic and Literary: Woman's Club and its departments: Fine Arts; Gardening, Junior Woman's Club; Parent-Teachers Association.

The Home Demonstration Club owns its club house, an attractive building, which is located on the Farmville-Fountain highway.

Patriotic: Major Benjamin May Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution; United Daughters of the Confederacy; American Legion Auxiliary; Spanish-American Auxiliary.

Social: Progressive Bridge Club; Contract Club; New Deal Club; Wednesday Afternoon Club; Lamrad Club, Ace Club.

Men's Organizations.

The men's organizations in Farmville are filling a useful place and performing a creditable service in carrying out their respective programs, which have for their purpose fraternalism, improving business methods, advancing the spiritual as well as the business life, and to promote a more friendly relation among the citizens.

These organizations are as follows:

Farmville Ministerial Association; Masons, Rotary Club, American Legion; Junior Order; Modern Woodmen; I. O. O. F.; Red Men; Boy Scouts, Bird Club, Mayfair Club.

The organizations with both men and women members include: Farmville Red Cross; Farmville Relief Association; Farmville Country Club; Tyson-May Reunion.

The August meeting of the Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Holmes with Mrs. W. E. Joyner as joint hostess. Garden flowers in lovely color combinations were used as decorations in the home.

Mrs. E. F. Gaynor presided. Following a business session, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti led in a discussion of "Lilies of the Garden." Mrs. E. L. Barrett and Mrs. B. S. Sheppard supplemented with observations regarding the varieties and suggestions relative to the culture of this stately flower.

The hostesses were assisted by Miss Frances Winstead in serving delicious peach ice cream and wafers after adjournment.

Mrs. HARTMAN HONORED AT BRIDGE PARTIES

Mrs. Walter S. Hartman, of Winston-Salem, who has been the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. Louise D. Harris for the past several days, was complimented at a lovely bridge party, given by Mrs. Harris on Monday afternoon.

A variety of early fall flowers was used with artistic effect by the hostess as a setting for the tables.

In the series of progressions, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., scored high and received dusting powder as an award.

The hostess presented Mrs. Hartman and another sister, Mrs. Knott Proctor, of Greensville, with lovely gifts.

Peach ice cream, date bars and salted nuts were served after play.

Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Minnie Warren shared honors at a bridge party given by Mrs. J. H. Moore at her home, in which mar-golds and decorative zinnias were arranged on mantels and end tables.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor scored high and received a lovely award. Aniced fruit drink and home made cake were served after the games.

NOTE OF THANKS

The relatives of the late E. Y. Beardsley take this means to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement.

Mrs. Henrietta Fulford and the family.

AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. C. B. Mashburn, pastor of the Farmville Christian Church, has announced that he will speak especially to the college girls and boys at the 10:00 o'clock service on Sunday morning on the subject of "Why Go To College?"

BIRD CLUB NOTES

At the Bird Club this week Claude Tyson described the Bobolink as an exuberant singer, who sings in a field of trouble to hide its nest in the yard. The color of the bird is black and white on the upper part of the body and black underneath.

H. P. Norman read about the Yellow Warbler, who conceals its nest in shrubbery, and may be described as a veritable sunbeam against the dark green background with its yellowish olive green plumage.

Jean Cayton was welcomed as a new member at this time. A contest on birds was among the enjoyable features of the meeting.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Pierson Hassell announce the birth of a daughter on Wednesday, August 27, at Park View Hospital, Rocky Mount. Mrs. Hassell was formerly Miss Mary Harrison Benson, of Nashville, and a member of the Farmville graded school faculty. Mr. Hassell was a former citizen of Farmville.

METHODIST SERVICE NOTES

Following the Sunday School hour at the Methodist Church Sunday morning there will be a regular worship service at eleven o'clock. The Young people will hold their meeting at 8:00 o'clock and the evening church service will follow at 8:20.

Immediately after the evening service, the Board of Stewards will meet. The pastor, Rev. Marvin V. Self, requests a full attendance of the board members at this time.
