FRINAT, NOVEMBER 21, 1941

Dr. M. L. Carr, of La Grange, visited Mr. and Mrs. Preston Murphy Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Privette, of Spring Hope, was the guest of Mrs. J. M: Whele Wednesday.

Friends will be glad to learn that Jack Smith is recuperating from a recent illness.

George Allen has returned after a two weeks visit to his old home and a trip to Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Smith are spending Thanksgiving Day with relatives in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lee and son are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Norville in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Joyner, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jim R. Joyner spent Sunday in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Barrett and son are spending Thannsgiving Day in Kinston with relatives. * * *

Boots Thomas and Edward Harris, were among the State students at home for the past week end. * * *

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. G. A. Winders continues ill at her home on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Roebuck and sons are spending Thanksgiving Day with relatives in Robersonville. * * *

Mrs. Ted L. Albritton, Mrs. P. E. Jones and Miss Vernice Lang Jones were Raleigh visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheless, Jr. and Miss Georgia Howard spent several days of this week in New York. . . .

Walter G. Gay, Jr., of the U. S. army, who is stationed at Fort Eustis, Va., spent the week end at his home here.

daughter, Nan, are spending Thanks- in about ten days. giving Day with relatives in Green ville. * * *

SOCIAL CARDNDAR Monday, November 24 3:00 P. M .-- Garden Club meets at the home of Mrs. R. D. Morsan with Mrs. Henry D. Johnson as joint hostess. 3:30 P. M. - Executive Board Meeting P. T. A. Tuesday, 25 3:30 P. M .- Merry Matrons mee ated. with Mrs. M. V. Jones. 6:30 P. M .- Rotary Club 8:00 P. M .- Junior Order. Wednesday, 26 10:00 A. M .- Mrs. Henry Harper hostess to Wednesday Afternoon Club at luncheon. 2:30 P. M .- D. A. R. Tourname 3rd series. Mrs. Jack Lewis will entertain the New Deal Club at the Tournament, Thursday, 27 3:00 P. M. - American Legion Auxiliary meets with Mrs. W E. and Mrs. C. H. Joyner and Mrs. J. O. Pollard as hostesses. 3:15 P. M .- Junior Woman's Club. 7:30 P. M .- Parent-Teacher Association Friady, 28 7:30 P. M .- Boy Scouts. 8:00 P. M. - Woodmen of th World. Saturday, 29 10:00 A. M. Bird Club. Arthur Joyner, Jr. and Gregg Gibbs of Morehead City, students at University of N. C., are spending the holidays at the home of Arthur, Jr. * * * Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Madeline H. Rountree underwent an appendicitis operation at Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C., Saturday night. Late reports state ing. that Mrs. Rountree is improving. Friends will be glad to know that her mother, Mrs. Rora H. Keel, who is recuperating from phlebitis in Washington, is recovering rapidly and is Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Williams and expected to return to her home here matic Art Club will present its first

OF T.S. WORTHINGTOR CAOLES D. CONSEL of the Bride Near Ayden

TASSAS AND AND AND AND

No. 8 7 4 8 10 10 10

Miss Sarah Hooker Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Albert Carr, became the bride of Thomas Stamey Worthington, son of Mrs. Lens Worthington and the late Mr. Thomas lefter on Worthington in a caremony at the home of the bride, "Willow Green", near Ayden, Saturday morning, November 15, at nine o'clock. The Rev. M. Y. Self offici-vows were spoken before an The improvised altar in the living room. Ferns formed a background for two seven branched candelabra of burning white tapers. On either side were tall baskets of white chrysmembers of the byold points ?

anthemums. The candles were lighted by F. T. Carr only brother of the bride, and Hubert Worthington brother of the bridegroom. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music, composed of "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," "To a Wild Rose," and the tradition wedding marches, was presented by Miss Grace Griffin, of Cero Gordo, who wore a green velveteen dress with a corsage of talisman roses. . The maid of honor was Miss Doris Carr, only sister of the bride, she wore a blue velveteen dress and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom met the bride the foot of the stairs and they entered the room together. The bride wore a Hattie Konnegar Model costume suit of wilderness green with brown fur trim and brown accessories. Her corsage was of talisman crystal candelabra. Similar bu Immediately after the vows had been spoken Mr. and Mrs. Worthington left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will make their home near Ayden, where

Mr. Worthington is engaged in farm-

DRAMATIC ART CLUB TO PRESENT PLAY

The Farmville High School Draby love birds.

um, under the direction of Miss Ellen heart shaped cookies and salted muts served delicious raspberry ice cream ritt, Mrs. C. C. and Miss Frances November twenty-eighth, at seven thirty o'clock in the school auditori-men.

holders.

rough means of a State sppropri on hostic may now be born rom the Sheppard Memorial Li rary in Greenville, and that thirty uvenile books had been purchase recently. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., and The program topic, "The Strange Miss Gene Horion were nosta and Within Our Gates," was developed y Miss Percins in continuation . o he study of the Preservation of the mistitution. Miss Perkins discu enapler a coule which which a set of the ed the subject from the angle that ly decorated in pink and white chry nost aliens feel they are well treat santhemums, ivy and forest greens. d in America, that it is the greates Guests were met as they arrived uniter in the world and find in their by the hosts and directed to a beautiools where citizership is taught fully appointed table, where tomato hey know the constitution better than native Americans. She quote Percy Waxman as saying, "If we are lling to live in America we should willing to die for America. the second floor of the Chapter as Americans, should get on 000 House, which had mantel decorations inces and thank God for such a Delta Theta national fraternity. For of ivy and white candles in crystal contry.". In closing Miss Perkins the next four years Mr. Horton has referred to the 13th chapter of He been connected with the Person-Gar-The colonial banquet table, with prews relative to Brotharly Love. covers laid for twenty-two guests Mrs A. Q. Roebuck conducted had a large centerpiece of white contest on the flag, beginning a quiz chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl on the subject, "How American Are flanked by white candles in antique We?" which will be continued unti the end of the year at which tim smaller floral pieces were at either the winner will receive a prize. end of the table. Place cards were

Sandwiches and Russian tes wer enjoyed during the pleasant socia

Progressive Bridge Club.

Mrs. W. C. Askew delightfully en- of their engagement in October, marshmallow croquettes, pickles and tertained the Progressive Bride hot rolls, was followed by a grape- Club this week at the home of her

(Containues les nom a Parce One) e in the spring they will be

For traveling the bride wore a blu or cont over a black even drues with a pink lace yoke, cut circular nd trimmed with pearl boads. Her it was a black felt model with ride brim, and accessories were black wede. Her corsage was of orchid ir from her bridel bouquet.

Mire. Horton is the only desurbte of Mrs. Robert Connor Merritt, and he late Robert Connor Merritt, former vice president of the E. B. Fickon Tobacco Co She fimshed the Freenville high school, attended St ary's School, Raleigh, and comted her education of Greensboro

College For Women, Greensboro. Mr. Horton is the only son of Mrs. loseph Loyd Horton, of Farmville, and the late Joseph Loyd Horton, a

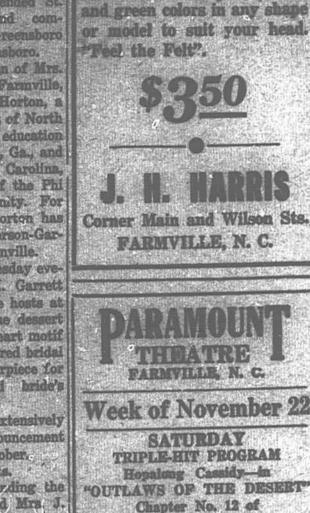

Judge of the Superior Court of North Carolina. He received his education at Davington School, Rome, Ga., and at the University of North Carolina where he was a member of the Phi rett Tobacco Co., of Greenville. Prior to the rehearsal Tuesday evemining Mix and Mirs, R. M. Carret and Miss Jane Garrett were hosts at a lovely buffet dinner. The desser course of ices corried the heart motif and was served with the tiered bridal cake, which formed a centerpiece for the beautifully appointed bride's

The couple has been extensively entertained since the annot

Out-Of-Town Guests. Out of town guests attending the fruit salad, served in the rind sliced daughter, Mrs. J. W. Joyner. Fall wedding included: Dr. and Mrs. J. melon-wise, and by a dessert course flowers were in lovely arrangements D. Bradsher, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. of molded wedding rings, topped by throughout the home. Mrs. E. C. Bradsher, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Bartipsy cake in bridal rose design and Beaman was winner of high score nett, Mrs. Nat Thompson, Mr. and and received a flower bowl as an Mrs. Sam Merritt, Mins Mamie Mer-After dinner coffee, cheese straws, award. After the games the hostess ritt, Misses Sue and Egiantine Mer-

SUNDAYMONDAY Alice Faye-John Payne-Carmen Miranda-in Week End in Havana Critcher, Mrs. J. E. Austin, Mr. and another nev

Just arrived

ment of nationally advertised CHAMP Hats for men. Many styles and brim

widths, blue, brown, grey, tan

"JUNGLE GIRL"

Also Comedy

Latest March of Time and News

TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. James Joyner and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Welton spent Farmville, announce the engagement Rapids.

Robert Pierce, Emerson Smith and Bernice Turnage, students at Davidson College, were at home for the week end.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Preston M. Murphy, who has been ill for several days is able to be out again. * * *

M. V. Horton spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Dora H. Keel and sister. Mrs. Rountree, in Washington, D. C.

Friends will regret to learn that Miss Maggie Tucker is ill at Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C., with pneumonia.

on Contantnea street. Reports state man, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. Z. M. Moore. that she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barrett and Mrs. Carl Tyson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barrett, Jr., of Wilson spent Sunday in Greensboro.

* * *

A large number of Farmville citizens attended the event held at E. C. head while the female's head is heart, Jack Paylor, Franklin D. Roosevelt speak. . . .

Mrs. C. M. Paylor, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sacks Edwards, of Petersburg, Va., are spending Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Paylor.

Julian Smith, Tommy Lang, Bill Rasberry, Charles Blount Quinerly, Horton Rountree and Bobby Rouse giving holidays.

DeGrace Rountree, of Washington, D. C., spent Wednesday night here the highest score. Members drew MAYOR CALLS and attended the Horton-Merritt wed- pictures of birds at the close of the ding in Greenville.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Rogers and STATE COLLEGE daughter, Mary Pay, and Mins Martha Rogers, of Richmond, Va., will apend Thanksgiving Day and the remains of the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes.

The Farmville graded schools close at noon Wednesday for the Thanksgiving holidays and members of the faculty left during the afternoon for large stons jars are the most satis- ing their views. The petitions for the their respective homes.

CRAWFORD-LEWIS

Mrs. James Thomas Lewis, of Liles. This play, "Detty and Daffy," is Sunday in Littleton and Roanoke of her daughter, Mary Rachel, to one of the most amusing three act Leonard O'Banion Crawford, of Hot comedies to be written for a high Springs, Ark. The wedding will be school cast. It is the story of a beautiful widow's attempt to "cop" solemnized in December. pear twenty years younger than she D. A. R. TOURNAMENT

The third of the bridge tournament aged twenty and eighteen, as little series being played under the spon-girls, agend twelve and ten. The sorship of the local Daughters of the girls' sweethearts decide to dress as American Revolution Chapter, will be little boys, since their girls are held in the Chapter House at 2:30 "acting dotty and daffy". The play Wednesday afternoon, November 26, is complicated by the sudden appear-The arrangements committee has not ance of a man-hating old maid, who announced at this time whether there declares "all men are beasts, vile will be an evening event in this con- and contemptible. She has her nieces nection also. Prizes will be very de- to promise never to marry one of sirable as heretofore with players the brutes. Three different nationadding their new scores to those of alities are represented in the servthe other series for the grand prize, ants. There is the Swedish maid, a beautiful bridge lamp given by the English butler, and Irish cook. The members of the club taking Farmville Furniture Co. part are as follows: Reservations will be gladly re-Mrs. E. C. Beaman is ill at her home ceived by Mrs. D. R. Morgan, chair- Hilda, the Swedish maid, Johnsie Molly, the Irish cook, Janie Kemp. Whitehurst and Mrs. P. E. Jones.

BIRD NOTES

Dorrothy Travers, "Dotty", Anne At the last Bird Club meeting Jones Daphne Travers, "Daffy", Cornelia Julian Boyce read a selection regarding the Towhee. Julian found that Knott. the male bird has a glossy black Jimmie Rand, Dorothy's sweet

T. C. Friday evening and heard Mrs. brown, with the outer tail feathers Freddie Rand, Daphne's sweet of each being tipped with white, heart, Bill Carr.

Braxton.

Their nest, built on the ground, is Phyllis Travers, the girls' mother exceptionally well concealed.

Cedar Waxwing, whose plannage is ter the wealthy wife, Donald Wals- ents of the hostess. The dining room of perfectly blended colors, the effect ton.

being a pinkish grayish-brown with Aunt Hester Harley, a man-hatin yellow underneath and on the tip of old maid, Jane Turnage. its tail and red wing tips. The crest Hugh Rand, the wealthy uncle is a good means of identification of Danny Roy Morgan. are expected home for the Thanks- this bird. It cats insects and fruit. The club is charging fifteen and

Mrs. Frank Cappe and Miss Dora Jean Johnson conducted a contest for our new stage furniture. on birds with James Johnson making his time will be the proposed street AND MARKENING A having project, which includes, the whole or part sections; of Home 13.101、第二日 11.05111(1)(1)(1) Avenue, Waverly, Church, Greene, QUESTION: What kinds of yes-Pine streets. Proponents as well as the opponels are best for curing pork? ANSWER: Eills Vestal, extension ents of this proposed improvement wine specialist, says oak barrels or will have an opportunity of presentfactory vessels for curing. A dean paving project have already been container is absolutely essential for turned in and those who favor action The November meeting of were served from a fireside table at tarts, angel cake and which Mrs. Joseph Loyd Horton, mo- Mrs. W. E. Joyner was a special Mrs. Champ Winstead, of Boxboro; ther of the bridegroom-elect, pre- guest.

meeting and enjoyed eating pecans. (Continued from Page One)

party of Monday evening, at

The affair was held in the D. A.

cocktail and hors d'oeuvres w

A course dinner was served candlelight in the banquet room attached to shoulder bouquets of white chrysanthemums for the ladies and carnation boutonnieres for the

A turkey plate with cranberry jelly

in turkey form, asparagus tips, yam-served by Mrs. M. V. Horton.

a wealthy husband. In order to apreally is, she dresses her daughters, an artistic fruit and vegetable ar- Royster. rangement used on the mantels and Delicious mince meat pie and cot- Mrs. Oscar Miller, of Snow Hill; the tallies and appointments for the fee were served after the usual pro- Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor and Miss fifteen tables bearing the autumn gressions. Special guests were Mrs. Grace Taylor, of Morehead City; colors and Thanksgiving motifs. R. A. Parker, Mrs. George Moore, Jr., Mrs. Nannie Einmant, of Beautory: Mrs. J. P. Surrett scored high and Mrs. L. E. Walston and Mrs. S. A. Mrs. William Maupin and Mrs. Wilreceived a beautiful compact, Mrs. Roebuck.

H. H. Bradham retained the floating prize, a silent butler, and Miss Elsie Carraway received the consolation, a kitchen towel set.

sisted the hostesses in serving.

Hopkins, the English butler, L. D. Hosts At Dinner Party. were hosts at a lovely dinner party of Richmond, Va., guest of Mrs. Al- dens in this vicinity. Friday evening, in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Craig, of Wilmington, and Mebane Lee, of Wilson and Farmville; whose wedding will take place November 22 in Wilmington. Mr. Copenhaver will sttend as one of the groomsmen.

The dinner was held at the home Lulu Benson read an article on the Mr. Payton Belmont, the man at. of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beaman, parquet cloth of cut work and centered with a silver bowl of white carnetions and pompon chrysanthemums Tall white tapers were in silver candle holders. On the buffet seeds and may be seen in groups, twenty-five cents admission. The miniature nuptial scene had been ar-The nest is placed in decidious trees, protects will be used in helping pay ranged and white chrysanthemiting and candles were used also on the mantle and serving table. Places of the honor guests marked by a ministure bride and MASS MIDETING bridegroom, and the place cards bore the bridal motifs. A course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers Inid for eight. The desser course consisted of angel cake and heavenly hash. Favors were callophane bags of mints, to which were attached valley illies and fortunes it Walnut, Barrett, Fields, Turnage and original verse. Guesta were Miss Cruig and Mr. Len, Mrs. George Bailer and Mrs.

Frank Les, of Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hodges

Wonten's Club.

Contract Club.

fall social events here was the bridge noon with Mrs. Claude L. Barrett as Helen Noel, of Durham; Mrs. E. V. party given by Mrs. Rob Fiser and hostess. Chrysanthemums in yellow, Webb, Miss Lacile Britt, of Kinston; Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr.; on Wednesday white and orchid shades were used Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hines, of Greensafternoon at the Country Club. Open with artistic effect in the home. Tal- boro; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Crowell fires added a note of good cheer and lies were in Thanksgiving design, of Hendersonville; Mr. and Mrs. Wilthe Thanksgiving suggestion was The high score award, a piece of pink liam Taylor, of Warrenton; Mr. and carried out in charming detail, with pottery, was won by Mrs. W. S. Mrs. P. K. Miles, of Danville, Va.;

Mrs. Roebuck Hostess.

Mrs. S. A. Roebuck delightfully Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheless had entertained twenty-four friends at a Delicious tipsy cake was followed coes-cols party in Wheless' drug watermelon cutting party at their by demi tasse and cheese straws, store Monday morning. Six tables home one evening this week, the huge Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, as were arranged with attractive car- melon being grown in their Arden terpieces of miniature turkeys and and picked several days ago. More pumpkins. Coca-Colas, cheese crack- than 25 people tasted the jucy sweeters, graham cakes, salted nuts and ness of the fine malon. We believe Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver corn candy were served. X. X. Rex, this sets a record for November gar-

Mrs. Frank Crows and Miss Dora DeGrace Rountree, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomp-Bridge Hostess Among the largest and loveliest of tract Club was held Tuesday after- son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cozart, Miss Mr. and Mrs. Percy Holden, Mr. and

liam Anderson, of Raleig

Stan Laurel-Oliver Hardy-in "GREAT GUNS" California or Bust, a Comedy Magic Pencil and Our Gang Comedy WEDNESDAY - TWO BIG FEATURES Roderick Crawford-Andy Devine-in "BADLANDS OF DAKOTA" Lloyd Noisn-Mary Beth Hughes and the second "PRESSED TO KILL" Chapter No. 2 of "SEA RAIDERS" THURSDAYSFRIDAY Merle Oberon-Allan Marshall-in CUTS 38 POVIND MELON GENTIDIA 265 Officer Pooch, a Cartoon and Latest News

WILL YOU BE THE LUCKY PERson to Get the NEW HUDSON to be given away Dec. 24th? For particulars, call at the FARMVILLE FURNITURE CO.

