Third of Tournament Series Played at Chapter House

Interest Grows In D. A. R. Tournament; Miss Lang Entertains Brides Elect

The third of the tournament series being sponsored by the local D. A. R. Chapter, with Mrs. D. E. Morgan as chairman, was played Wednesday afternoon at the Chapter House with a fruit cake and home baked coconut cakes and pecans offered as awards for the high score and all scores being added in the contest for the grand tournament prize, a bridge lamp, donated by the Farmville Furniture Co.

Prize winners and donors were as follows: Mrs. Pat Ruffin, first prize—a 5-lb. fruit cake in an aluminum cake container, donated by Williams Grocery and Market; second—a home baked coconut cake, given by a Chapter member, was won by Mrs. J. H. Paylor; third—a home baked coconut cake donated by a Chapter member, won by Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, who also won a cake, donated by the Chapter for a cake contest; fourth—8 lbs. pecans, donated by a Chapter member, won by Mrs. H. N. Howard.

Mrs. E. C. Beaman was hostess to the Progressive Bridge Club at the tournament, and presented the high score prize, a deviled egg plate, offered for this group, to Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, and the consolation, a vase, went to Mrs. J. H. Moore, a special guest.

Mrs. Jack Lewis entertained the New Deal Club at the tournament and the high and second high score prizes, shampoos and finger waves, were won by Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Mrs. P. E. Jones. The consolation prizes, boxes of guest soap, went to Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson and Mrs. J. L. Shackelford.

Angel cake, topped with fruit and whipped cream, was served with coffee after the games, by Mrs. A. C. Monk and Mrs. Joel Moye.

The concluding tournament series will be held the second week in December, when the tournament committees are planning to give two beautiful Christmas parties, afternoon and evening, with lovely awards offered and the grand prize awarded in the evening. Players, who feel that their previous scores may be helped by an addition may count either score made in the evening or the afternoon.

Brides-Elect Honored

One of the loveliest parties of the week was that given by Miss Elizabeth Lang in compliment to Miss Mary Rachel Lewis, whose engagement to Leonard O'Banion Crawford, of Hot Springs, Ark., was announced recently, and Miss Clarice Jones, of La Grange, whose wedding to Zeph Potts, of Raleigh, will take place in December.

White chrysanthemums predominated in the decorations and the traditional colors of white and green were used throughout the home. The dining room table bore a miniature wedding scene illuminated by white candles in silver candle holders and the individual tables bore miniature bridesmaids with attached place cards and centerpieces of lighted tapers banked with greens. The places of the honored guests were marked by miniature brides. A dessert course, served after the guests had arrived, was followed by demi tasse. The hostess was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. T. W. Lang, and her sister, Mrs. Bertha Lang Potter.

High score prizes, dusting powder, were won by Miss Jones and Miss Nannie Smith, and the traveling prize, stationery, was retained by Miss Margaret Lewis. The hostess presented the honorees with lovely gifts of crystal.

Out of town guests were Miss Clarice Jones, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. Earl Kinsey, Miss Ruth Hardy, Miss Sudia Byrd and Miss Sue Taylor Myers, of La Grange.

Literary Club. An interesting meeting of the Literary Club was held Wednesday with Mrs. H. N. Howard as hostess in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, in which seasonable flowers were pleasingly arranged. Mrs. J. W. Joyner presided in the absence of the president.

Following a short business session, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard read a splendid paper prepared by Mrs. P. E. Jones, in continuation of the club's study of Georgian England, and under the subject of "The Age of Adam."

A delicious frozen salad course was served with coffee. Special guests were Mrs. M. Y. Self, Mrs. E. C. Holmes and Miss Fanny Gary.

Wednesday Afternoon Club. Mrs. Harry Harper graciously entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club members and additional friends at a bridge luncheon this week. Seven tables were arranged in a setting of floral decorations of white, yellow and orchid chrysanthemums, with the patriotic idea being carried in appointments.

Mrs. Tommy S. Eyon won the high score for club members, costume jewelry, and Mrs. L. E. Walston received the guest award, a compass.

Mrs. W. Alex Allen received the club consolation, bath oil, and Mrs. Walter Jones as the co-winner among guests won a sewing kit.

Though this cocktail was followed by a light lunch, the afternoon social served with potatoes on serole, buttered asparagus plants and rolls. The dessert course, consisting of gingerbread pudding topped with whip cream, was served with coffee.

Special guests were Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, Mrs. Frank Clifton, of Kinston, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. Walter Jones, Miss Mary Frazier, Mrs. James Whelan, Jr., Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. Ernest Hunt, Mrs. Irma Morgan, Jr., Mrs. A. F. Hammond, Miss Vernice Lang Jones, Mrs. P. E. Jones, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, Mrs. L. E. Walston, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., Mrs. Curtis Flanagan, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner and Mrs. L. T. Pierce.

Merry Matrons. One of the most delightful fall meetings of the Merry Matrons was held on Tuesday with Mrs. M. V. Jones as hostess. Chrysanthemums in the bronze and yellow shades were in artistic arrangements throughout the home.

Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided and appointed Mrs. R. A. Fields and Mrs. B. O. Turnage as a nominating committee. Mrs. A. C. Monk, program chairman of the afternoon, presented Mrs. Cherry Easley, who discussed "The Effect of the Depression on the Movie and the Popular Type Picture of That Period." Miss Nellie Butler brought the program to a delightful close with a group of vocal numbers, accompaniment was by the hostess.

The delicious refreshments consisted of chicken mayonnaise, crax, a variety of pickles, sandwiches, a stuffed coconut cake and coffee.

Special guests were Mrs. Henry D. Johnson, Mrs. Haywood Smith, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. W. J. Raspberry, Mrs. P. E. Jones, Mrs. Sterling Gates and Mrs. Walter C. Jones, of Kinston.

Garden Club

Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Mrs. H. D. Johnson were joint hostesses at an enjoyable meeting of the Garden Club this week. Mrs. E. S. Shappard and Miss Tabitha DeVisconti discussed conservation in relation to Christmas greens with the latter showing specimens of evergreens grown in her garden in illustration of her subject, "Grow Your Own Christmas Greens." The president, Mrs. E. F. Gaynor made a report on the progress of the club's nursery, situated near the municipal power plant. Echoes of the recent address given by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in Greenville were brought by Miss DeVisconti.

Coronant cake, cheese straws and coffee were served during a pleasant social hour.

Miss Newton, Miss Tyson Wed Brothers In Double Ceremony

In a double ceremony characterized by an impressive simplicity, Miss Mary Frances Newton, of Farmville, became the bride of Clive Brayley Davies, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Julia Dean Tyson became the bride of his brother, Roy Bravelly Davies, of Sharon, Pa., on Wednesday morning, November 20, in St. John's Episcopal Church, in Sharon. Rev. Harold J. Weaver, pastor of the church, officiated.

Miss Newton wore a brown crepe dress and a well trimmed velvet hat and matching accessories. Miss Tyson wore a dress of black crepe with a velvet hat in similar mode, and the brides' coronets were of gardenias.

Mrs. Clive Brayley Davies is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Newton, of Farmville. Mrs. Roy Bravelly Davies is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tyson, of Farmville. Both young women, who have been close friends since girlhood, were graduated from the Farmville high school in the same class and attended the National Business School in Charlotte, afterwards obtaining positions there and sharing an apartment together. Later they secured positions in Sharon.

The bridegrooms are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davies, of Sharon, Pa.

The couples left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to North Carolina, arriving in Farmville Thursday afternoon. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Clive B. Davies will be at home at 668 Myers Street, Akron, Ohio, where Mr. Davies is connected with Hittite Studios as a commercial artist. Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Davies will be at home at 589 Newcastle Ave., Sharon, Pa., where Mr. Davies holds a position with Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co.

Orthopedic Clinic Greenville, Dec. 5

We wish to remind our readers of the Orthopedic Clinic to be held next Friday in Greenville, Dec. 5, 1941, from 12:30 to 4:00 P. M.

This Clinic takes all types of cripples, both white and colored, free of charge who are unable to afford private treatments. It is desired, though not required, that patients be referred by a physician or the Welfare Officer, and that the patient bring such note to the Clinic.

This Clinic is set up to serve especially the Counties of Beaufort, Carteret, Pamlico, Pitt and Tyrrell, though patients from other Counties who desire to come may do so.

The Clinic is conducted by Dr. Hugh A. Thompson, orthopedist, Raleigh, North Carolina. This Clinic has been running for something over three years and is now serving a large number of cripples, adults as well as children, in this area.

The Pitt County Health Department Offices are located at the corner of 8th and Greens Streets Greenville, North Carolina.

Congress has a few hard jobs ahead but seems unable to get expert advice in union.
