Life can be enjoyed by all people who are willing to accept it patiently.

Every person should learn to listen to others—at least as much as he talks.

Speaking about appeasement, why not let the Japanese appease, the United States?

There is no law against courtesy, even at home and at the wheel of a motor car.

If you think you have a very intimate friend, don't get into a business deal with him.

War Hint: In the World War the Germans seemed to be invincible for nearly four years.

Too many people wait too much time trying to tell other people what to do and how to think.

Now that you are a member of the Red Cross, you should buy some Christmas Seals, or a bond.

Work hard, save your money and you will die early enough for your heirs to enjoy spending it.

Sick people often outlive well people because they have sense enough to take care of themselves.

Then there is the story about the man who did not want to go to Heaven because he was too lazy to twang the harp.

ARE CROP CONTROLS NECESSARY?

The argument about crop control will be heard again as a result of advancing prices and some growers of cotton and wheat will likely decide that agriculture can take care of itself, without the benefit of any regulation of production.

In view of the fact that cotton growers will vote on the question of marketing quotas on December 18th and wheat growers will go to the polls next spring to decide the same issue, we think it pertinent to urge all farmers to think carefully before abandoning the system which has undoubtedly helped agriculture.

It is true that cotton and wheat prices are higher than they were when former referenda were held.
This seems to be strong argument in favor of retaining the restrictions which boosted the prices. Certainly, it is hardly wise to throw away the medicine that improves the patient's condition.

Moreover, growers of wheat and cotton should carefully consider the surpluses that exist and the benefits that they derive from loan programs which peg prices. If control of production ceases, it is only a question of when there will be other mammoth crops which will prove to be unmanageable, even with government loans.

The fact that the government advises expansion of production in certain agricultural products is no argument for hog-wild expansion of cotton and wheat production. It is only an invitation for farmers to take advantage of existing conditions and produce what the world needs. The fact that responsible agricultural officials have urged this expansion indicates that they will, likewise, suggest expansion of wheat and cotton acres at the proper time.

SANTA POSTONES TRIP TO GREENVILLE

The Greenville Santa Claus Parade which was scheduled to be held in Greenville Thursday night, Dec. 4th, has been postponed until Saturday morning, Dec. 6th, at 10 o'clock.

Beautiful floats have been designed for the parade and it is expected to be the best ever held in Greenville.
Santa will arrive on an elaborately decorated float and thousands of children and grown ups are expected to be present for this splendid parade.
The Wilson, Tarboro, Greenville High School and East Carolina Tech-nic are bands will help lead the parade with Santa into the Christmas Christmas Spirit and Peace. All are expected to attend.

LOCAL BOY JOINS MARINES

Leroy Jones, of E. F. D., No. 2, has enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. Private Jones before his enlistment attended the Farmville High School for three years.
Jones was sworn into the Marine Corps at Raleigh, N. C.

Private Jones was employed on the farm of his father, Mr. Leo Jones. Young Jones has been sent to Parris Island, S. C., where he will go through the recruit training period of six weeks.

Young Jones has set a fine example for the young men of Farmville and it is hoped that many more men of that community will inquire about the Marine Corps. At this time there is a great opportunity for all young men to get ahead in the Marine Corps due to its rapid expansion.

DEFENSE BOND Quiz

Q. What simple and satisfactory way is provided for all of us to express our gratitude for being Americans?

A. The means is the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps—available to almost every man, woman, and child. Ownership of even a 10-cent Stamp carries the satisfaction of knowing you have helped the Nation to arm.

Q. What denominations of Defense Savings Stamps are on sale at retail stores?

A. Stores are concentrating on selling 10-cent and 25-cent Stamps, in order to get a maximum number of customers to participate in the Defense Savings Program. Many stores also carry 50-cent, 41, and 85 Stamps. Stamps of all denominations may be purchased at post-offices.

NOTE.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at most retail stores.

WHO KNOWS?

1. When was the so-called Neutrality Act passed?
2. How much bituminous coal is mined yearly in the U. S.?
3. Where is King Carol, deposed ruler of Rumania?
4. Who was William Tell?
5. Which is the longest river in Europe?
6. What is the Libyan army?
7. Which is larger, a ferry corps or a division?
8. What is the "critical point" in aerial operations?
9. What is the oldest armed force in the United States?
10. What is the strength of the Japanese Navy?

It might be a good idea for Farmville to conduct some kind of survey to determine if there is an opportunity for defense production that is being overlooked.
