Concluding Tournament Series of D. A. R. Benefit Held Wednesday

Clubs Entertained by Hostesses At Event; Junior Woman's Club and Merry Matrons Met This Week

The concluding series of the bridge tournament, sponsored by the D. A. R. Chapter during the late fall, was held Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening. Both events taking the form of lovely Christmas parties. The favored combination of the traditional colors of red and green in the Yuletide decorations of plants, forest greens and lights were used effectively in the Chapter House by the committee in charge, Miss Tabitha DeVivanti, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Mrs. C. E. Moore and Mrs. J. O. Pollard, and the refreshment plates were also seasonal as to color and content.

Mrs. M. V. Jones was winner of the grand prize offered in the tournament series, a bridge lamp, contributed by the Farmville Furniture Co. Other prizes were awarded as follows: Afternoon—high score prize, one half box of oranges, donated by the Cut Rate Fruit Store, won by Mrs. R. A. Gardner, of Fountain; second, a cake, given by a Chapter member, won by Mrs. Carter Smith, of Fountain; third, potted plant, given by Mrs. Wesley R. Willis; fourth, Enterprise subscription, given by the Rouse Printery, won by Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, of Fountain.

Evening—Ladies, high score prize, one half box of oranges, donated by the Cut Rate Fruit Store, won by Miss Margaret Thigpen; second, potted plant from the Farmville Flower Shop, won by Miss Annie Lee Jones; third, canned fruit, given by a Chapter member, won by Mrs. J. L. Shackelford.

Men—First prize, Congress cards, donated by Beasley Drug Co., of Fountain, won by B. A. Pope, of Fountain; second, carton Lucky Strike cigarettes, given by G. W. Jefferson Co., of Fountain, won by Walter Jones; canned vegetables, given by a Chapter member, won by G. W. Lane, of Fountain.

Mrs. S. A. Garris entertained the New Deal Club at the tournament, at which Mrs. S. A. Roebuck won the high score prize for club members, a potted plant, and Mrs. Claude L. Barrett won the guest award, handkerchiefs.

Mrs. John E. King was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club at the tournament and presented Miss Elizabeth Davis with the club prize, a potted plant.

Mrs. W. R. Harris, of Fountain, entertained her contract club in the tournament series of the afternoon when Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, as winner of high score for members, and Mrs. R. A. Gardner, for guests, received towels as awards. Mrs. R. A. Fountain, Sr., was remembered by the hostess with a milk glass fruit bowl at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris were hosts to the Couple Club at the evening event, when Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley won the high score for ladies, towels, and B. A. Pope the men's award, a cravat. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hunt were remembered with gifts by the hostess.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan has acted as chairman of the tournament series, which is reported as having been very successful. Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. P. E. Jones and Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst have served with Mrs. Morgan on the reservations committee, and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Mrs. Joel W. Mowbray, Mrs. Louise D. Harris and Mrs. J. O. Pollard on the refreshment committee.

Junior Play Tonight At School Auditorium

The Junior Class of Farmville High School will present a play "The Crazy Mixup" in Perkins Hall, tonight at 7:30. Admission 15 and 35 cents. Everybody invited to attend.

The cast has been chosen as follows: Lee Julian (who is as feminine as her name is masculine), Agnes Quinley; Chrystal Craig, (a living example of the name which we admire), Wilma Stanell; Paula Roberts, (a girl who is equal to any occasion), Corley Ann Johnson; Alicia Julian, (a person of charm, manner and poise), Edna Ruth Ivey; Michael Pavlovi, (good-looking, humorous, attractive), Don Carlos Sebastian, (a handsome, youthful Spanish artist), Ralph Remey; Emil Stamm, (an eminent violinist of impulsive nature), Cecil Lilley; Phillip Holden, (the sturdy, handsome emissary of the Good-Will Society), C. L. Ivey, Jr.; Natalie Lane, (nonchalant and sophisticated in appearance but attractive), Alma Grey Lilley; Mrs. Macready, sharp, sarcastic Irish landlady who doubts everyone), Frances Lewis.

It is truly a "Crazy Mix-Up" when Lee Julian finds that she has actually won a five-thousand-dollar prize in a contest but cannot collect it due to the fact that she is not a man. So... if a suit of boys' togs will win the prize, why not be on the inside of them? Now what happens when she attempts to collect the prize? Could she help it if the Representative happened to be a very handsome young man? Could she help it if her friends refused to understand the things that happened in her apartment? Could she help it if her mother descended on her with all the maternal fury of one who feels that the price of genius is too high for financial backing? So what is the outcome? Come see the "Crazy Mix-Up" as it begins, develops, and is finally cleared. An evening of enjoyable entertainment you will have. So join the crowd as it moves along to...

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., announce the birth of a son, James Albert Pollard, on Friday, December 5.

LIKELY MISTAKE

Richmond—While Reporter Dick Payne struggled with the ignition of his car, a county policeman offered to help. Then they both realized that Payne was in the officer's car, exactly like his, which was parked just ahead.

THREE BOYS, 10, STEAL CAR

Medford, Texas—Three 10-year-old boys decided to go to ride, so they proceeded to take an automobile. The boys were so small that it took two of them to operate the car, one was guiding it while kneeling on the driver's seat while the second one was on his knees on the floor working the accelerator and the brake. They traveled six miles before the car left the road and halted on a grass plot.

AT PEARL HARBOR

Relatives here have had no word since hostilities with the Japanese began Sunday, from Lynn and Bill Lovie and George Ormond Dail, son of Mrs. Lanye Dail, manager of the Davis Hotel, who are among Farmville men stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Haywood Lovie, brother of Lynn and uncle of Bill Lovie, stated today that the former is a sheet metal worker in the United States Navy contingent at Honolulu, and that Bill is a soldier in the standing Army. A letter from the former which was written Thursday of last week and received by Mr. Lovie, stated that the writer was well.

George Dail is serving on the aircraft carrier Enterprise, which Japan now claims to have sunk, although no official announcement has been made by the United States.

Cecil Thorne is in that vicinity also, serving in the Navy on the U. S. S. Whitney. Mrs. C. A. Tyson had a communication from him Saturday. Mrs. Thorne came to the United States last week and is visiting relatives in Durham. She will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Joyner during the week end.

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF LEWIS SIDNEY HALLOCK OF GREENVILLE, NEARLY 4,000 PEOPLE WERE THRILLED SUNDAY AFTERNOON WHEN THE EAST CAROLINA CHORAL SYMPHONY AND AN 18-PIECE ORCHESTRA, COMPOSED LARGELY OF RALEIGH MUSICIANS, PRESENTED HANDEL'S "THE MESSIAH" IN RALEIGH'S MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM. THE CONCERT WAS SPONSORED BY THE RALEIGH MUSIC CLUB AND THE KIWANIS CLUB OF THAT CITY.

Mr. Hallock carried out the arduous task of teaching the members of the chorus in groups in their own communities, and to him belongs almost entirely the credit for the successful performance. The 234-voice choral group will present a similar program in Greenville December 17.

Members of the musical group from Farmville are: Helen Rouse, Alice Harper Parker, Cornelia Knott, Hazel Spell, Arns Jones, Mary Elizabeth Barrett, Frances Howard, Eric Frances Harper, Dancy Jones, Jack Paylor, James Wilson, Malcolm Hill and Malcolm McConnell.
