Unexpected expense soaps up unexpected income.

Some lipstick may not come off but the lipstick we touch smears like wet paint and should be so labeled as a public service.

If any politician has had a good word to say for management in connection with war production, we have failed to see or hear it.

An unoccupied chair in a bootblack parlor is as hard to find as an unoccupied barber's chair, so forgive the man who looks a bit seedy.

When there is no labor to hire, about the best thing to do under the circumstances is to organize a swap-labor plan with neighbors.

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson says that soap to civilians will be increased. He plans no rationing and urges orderly buying.

When you're doing a favor for a lady let her think that you brushed aside a dozen important engagements in order to clear the track for her.

For a dollar you can buy "For Men Only," a book of nineteen short stories selected by James M. Cain. For my money, this is the best collection ever assembled in one volume.

Many a chap with a plump waistline swings himself into the day's activities more deftly than the average lean and lanky type. He has cultivated poise and balance.

State College Issues
Two Farm Publications

Two new bulletins, providing helpful information for farm families on 4-H Club work and on the factors to be considered when buying a farm, have been prepared by specialists of the State College Extension Service and are ready for distribution to the citizens of the State.

The 4-H leaflet explains projects dealing with crops, poultry, cooking of better breads and uncommon vegetables. Other subjects mentioned include gardens, dairying, room improvement, tree study, forest protection, and timber stand improvement.

The publication setting forth factors for the selection of a farm, was prepared for the benefit of demobilized veterans, war workers, farm youths, and agricultural laborers who are interested in establishing themselves on the land. Improved agricultural practices and better economic conditions have increased the value of farm real estate and have stepped up the interest in the purchasing of farms.

The bulletin describes the agriculture of North Carolina and outlines some of the most important factors about the climate, forest resources, soils, markets, community activities, and many other subjects.

North Carolinians may secure copies of the publications by writing to F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor, N. C. State College, Raleigh.

Livestock Need A
Good Water Supply

Dirty water and unsanitary watering facilities are causing North Carolina livestock producers to lose tens of thousands of dollars each year, says Dr. C. D. Grinnells, veterinarian for the Agricultural Experiment Station at State College.

Outbreaks of disease often result from animals drinking from stale summer ponds. Even though animals are on clean pasture, drinking water from contaminated lots may easily spread disease germs and parasites. "Plenty of clean water for all farm animals is one of the very best health insurance measures that a farmer can take during the summer months," Grinnells explains.

He suggests good watering troughs that are exposed to the sun, and thoroughly scrubbed at frequent intervals. The troughs should be raised high enough from the ground to prevent their being contaminated by the droppings from the animals.

Grinnells also suggests an abundance of water for hogs and plenty of good shade during summer because hogs cannot perspire. Plenty of water for the dairy cow means greater production of milk. Horses and mules need a good supply of water to prevent heat strokes during the summer. Best water cannot be had from wells without additional pumping.

"They're staying home every night and saving their money for a War Bond!"

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

Christian
Group meetings of the Christian Women's Council were held Monday evening:
Group One met with Mrs. Louise Harris and rs. Florence Thorne gave the devotional. The program was taken from the World Call magazine and an open discussion was held on "Hidden Answers." The hostess served a fruit drink, sandwiches and cookies during the social hour.
Group Two met at the home of Mrs. Bert Smith. Mrs. G. W. Windham led the devotional and gave the program.
Group Three met with Mrs. Robert Lee Smith. "Hidden Answers" from the World Call were discussed and the magazine was reviewed. Two visitors were present. Sandwiches, pickles, cookies and iced tea were served following adjournment.
Group Four met with Mrs. L. P. Odham. The devotional and program topic, "What Is Christianity," was developed by Mrs. C. B. Mashburn. She led a round table discussion on this subject. Following adjournment, ice cream and cake were served.

Dischargees Get
30 Gallons Gas

Washington, July 31.—OPA acted today to put officers and enlisted men on the same footing with respect to special gasoline rations.
The agency announced that beginning Friday all servicemen discharged from the armed forces will be eligible for a maximum of 30 gallons of gasoline.
Heretofore gasoline was provided only for servicemen on leaves in excess of 30 days.

No Lumber Permit
Needed For Repairs

Home owners need no longer apply to the Federal Housing Administration of the National Housing Agency for authorization to purchase lumber needed for emergency repair, WPB and NHA announced. The home owner may order and buy the lumber directly from a distributor.

No Proof That Hitler Is Dead

Berlin, July 31.—Col Gen. Alexander Gorbatov, Russian chairman of the Allied Kommandatur for Berlin, said today "there is no definite proof that Hitler is dead" and he did not rule out the possibility that the former Fuehrer was alive and in hiding.
Gorbatov said he had heard that Hitler's dentist had identified a jawbone as that of the former leader, but added that he knew nothing beyond the rumor.

CORDLESS PRESSING IRON

A vacuum-cleaner company has introduced a pressing iron which has no electric cord attached, but which is inductively heated, the current passing through wires in the ironing board. The iron heats to any predetermined temperature, but the board, which carries the high-frequency current, remains cold.—Rortarian.

True or False

Test your knowledge of your Government's War Bond Financing program. The answers to these questions, given at the end, should be known by every American. How good are you?

- 85 million Americans have purchased Series E War Bonds.
- 84% of all the money ever invested in E Bonds is still invested in them.
- If a Bond is lost, stolen or destroyed, it is just the same as if the owner had lost the money he invested.
- E Bonds may be cashed at any qualified bank for their full cost any time after 90 days from date of issue.
- The U. S. Government's promise to redeem War Bonds any time after 90 days from date of issue is just as strong as its promise to stand back of a dollar bill.
- You have to hold a Bond the full ten years to get its interest.
- The lowest-priced War Bond costs $25.
- War Bonds are better than cash.
- Two persons cannot own a War Bond jointly.
- The only reason we should buy War Bonds is to help pay for food, ammunition, etc., for the armed forces.

ANSWERS

- True.
- True.
- False. War Bonds are registered in the names of their owners, and lost Bonds can be replaced.
- True.
- True. Compare wording on a Bond and a bill.
- False. Your Bond increases in value after one year. See the values on the back of the Bond. But you get a greater increase in value the longer you hold a Bond, up to $1 at the end of 10 years for every $3 you paid.
- False. A $25 Bond costs $18.75.
- True. Your savings invested in War Bonds will also help to stabilize prices now and to provide for your own security in the future.
- False. War Bonds can be owned by two people as co-owners or as owner and beneficiary.
- False. Your savings invested in War Bonds will also help to stabilize prices now and to provide for your own security in the future.

Fifteen schools for the study of mastitis, a disease of the cow's udder, will be held in principal milk sheds of the State between August 6 and 17.

Limberneck in chickens occurs mostly during the hot summer months, according to Dr. R. S. Dearstyn, head of the State College Department of Poultry Science. We have no doubt that it could be proved statistically that the American people spend more money every year for book-ends and book-cases than they do for books.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain
CARDUI is a gentle medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and spasms of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:
1. It should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "blues" to come.
2. Started 3 days before your period, CARDUI should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
Try CARDUI. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN HELP BY BUYING U. S. WAR BONDS

you help provide funds to finance America's preparedness program. You enlist in the vast growing army of men and women who are determined to defeat all who seek to destroy our way of life. The Bank of Farmville is cooperating with the government — without profit or remuneration — in making these bonds available. Stamps are available for accumulating smaller sums. See table at right for denominations of both stamps and bonds.
