The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ned Harris and Mrs. Earl Trevathan in serving a delicious sweet course and coffee.

Burnette-Holloman Vows Said in Christian Church

Lovely Parties Compliment Miss Dupree; Miss Cox Honored At Tea; Clubs Meet

A wedding, characterized by dignity and simplicity, was solemnized at the Farmville Christian Church, Sunday afternoon, January 13, at four o'clock, when Miss Hildred Norine Holloman became the bride of S/Sgt. Joab Pennell Burnette, of the United States Marine Corps, of Camp Lejeune. The Rev. C. B. Mashburn, pastor of the church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Pedestal baskets of white gladioli and Oregon fern, flanked by floor standards of cathedral candles, were used as a setting for the wedding scene.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. M. V. Jones, pianist, and Mrs. Floyd A. Andrews, soloist, of Mt. Olive, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Jones played "Poem," by F. Schubert, "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson and Delilah, "Intestimento" from Cavalleria Rusticana, and Schubert's "Serenade." Mrs. Andrews sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond and "Oh Promise Me," by deKoven. The traditional wedding marches were used and "O Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" were played during the ceremony.

Mrs. Jones wore a rose dress with a contrasting beed-trimmed yoke, and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Andrews wore a two piece costume suit of gold taffeta and a corsage of Talisman roses.

The bride, given in marriage by an uncle, William A. Pollard, Jr., wore a wool suit in a pearl gray shade, with a small black rose-trimmed hat in spring mode, and black accessories. Her corsage was of orchids and pink roses.

Mrs. Robert D. Rouse, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and her only attendant. She wore a suit of rose dust wool, with a modish brown hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Cecil Burnette, of Greenville, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Sgt. Johnnie Lacott, of Camp Lejeune, Johnnie Wilkerson, Charles J. Rasmussen and Jake Joyner. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Herbert Hemby Burnette, of Greenville, wore a navy blue suit and a corsage formed of the florets of white gladioli.

Immediately after the ceremony, Sgt. and Mrs. Burnette left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will be at home at Camp Lejeune.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Holloman. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Herbert Hemby Burnette, of Greenville, and the late Mr. Burnette.

Rehearsal Party
After the rehearsal, Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Rouse, Sr., entertained the bridal party, relatives and out of town friends of the couple at a cake cutting at their home.

The refreshment table was spread with a lace cloth, centered with a crystal bowl of pompon chrysanthemums, narcissus and lace fern and illuminated by white tapers in crystal candelabra.

The tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and bridegroom gracing the top, was placed at one end of the table, and was cut by the bride, who was assisted in serving by Mr. L. E. Flowers. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Pollard served punch from the other end of the table. Nuts and mints were passed.

The traditional nuptial colors of green and white were used with pleasing effect in floral decorations throughout the Rouse home.

Mrs. Burnette has been extended numerous pre-nuptial social courtesies since announcement of her engagement in December.

Compliment Miss Dupree
Miss Frances Earlene Dupree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gerald Dupree, Jr., whose marriage to James Walter Redmond, of Meadville, Pa., will take place Sunday, January 20, has been the inspiration for lovely parties during the past several days.

Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard entertained at a beautiful bridge party, Saturday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Dupree, who is her niece.

The Pollard home, on Horse avenue, was appropriately decorated in the nuptial colors of green and white with chrysanthemums, narcissus, ivy and fern being used in artistic arrangements throughout. The bridge tables bore appointments in bridal motifs.

In the progressive games, Mrs. E. F. Wilson, Jr., won the high score award, perfume, Miss Frances Howard retained the floating prize, a double deck of Congress cards, and Miss Hildred Norine Holloman received the consolation, a milk glass bonbon dish.

The honoree was presented with dinner plates in her china pattern by the hostess, who also remembered Miss Holloman, bride-elect, with a gift of crystal; Miss Lucille Davis, bride-elect, china; Mrs. F. T. Carr, recent bride, a bonbon dish, and Mrs. Joseph A. Joyner, recent bride, a crystal candy box.

laid with refreshment cloths and centered with small arrangements of narcissus and fern. The ice and cakes served further emphasized the green and white color note.

Guests were invited into the dining room for coffee. The table was covered with an imported cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and fern flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Mrs. E. S. Coates poured coffee from one end of the table and the hostess served cheese straws, mints and salted nuts.

The buffet had as a decoration a large doll in slipper satin bridal gown and veil with candlelight illumination. Sharing with other guests in the pleasures of the refreshment hour were; Mrs. Frank Gerald Dupree, Jr., mother of the honoree, Mrs. G. P. Burgeron, Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mrs. Charles F. Baucum and Mrs. C. W. Blackwood.

Mrs. Frank Gerald Dupree, Jr., entertained at a lovely bingo party, Monday evening, in compliment to her daughter, Frances Earlene. Mantels of the home were decorated with lovely arrangements of ivy and trailing cedar, and white carnations predominated in the beautiful floral decorations of the rooms, where bingo was played on heart shaped boards.

After the games, ice and cakes in the bridal colors and motifs were served.

The bride-elect was then invited into the dining room, where she was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts from the guests.

Mrs. R. T. Williams entertained at bridge, Thursday evening, too late for this issue, in compliment to Miss Dupree.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Burgeron, aunt and uncle of the bride-elect, will entertain the Redmond-Dupree bridal party, out of town guests and friends at a cake cutting, Saturday evening, following the rehearsal.

Miss Cox Honored

Among the largest and loveliest of pre-nuptial social courtesies extended bride-elects by hostesses here, during the winter season, was the tea given, Tuesday afternoon, by Mrs. Ellen Lewis Carroll and Miss Elvira Tyson, in compliment to Miss Janie Blair Cox, of Winterville, whose marriage to Robert Patterson Whelless, of Farmville, will take place January 20.

The D. A. R. Chapter House was the scene of the affair and was decorated throughout in the traditional nuptial colors of green and white. The colonial mantles, of the spacious reception room, were banked with magnolia leaves and bore tall white candles in crystal holders. Bowls of white camellias were used in further decoration of the rooms.

Miss Nancy Lewis greeted the guests as they arrived.

Mrs. Vernon B. Cox, of Winterville, introduced the receiving line composed of the hostesses, Miss Elvira Tyson and Mrs. Ellen Lewis Carroll, the honoree, Miss Janie Blair Cox, of Winterville, her mother, Mrs. Roy T. Cox, of Winterville, Mrs. J. M. Whelless, Sr., mother of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. Dixie McLawhorn, of Winterville, Miss Marion Lucille Davis, bride-elect, and Mrs. E. S. Holmes.

Mrs. Roy Davenport, of Winterville, directed the way to the register, which was presided over by Mrs. C. M. Taylor and Mrs. B. M. Lewis.

The green and white color scheme was carried out in effective detail in the refreshments. The table was spread with a handsome lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of white pompon chrysanthemums, mapdragons, narcissus and fern and lighted by white candles in crystal candelabra. Mrs. John R. Carroll, of Winterville, was seated at one end of the table serving ices in the chosen colors and Mrs. A. B. Tyson, mother of one of the hostesses, served decorated cakes from the other end. Mrs. E. H. Tompkins, Ruth Tyson, Ann Bynum and Gayle Flanagan assisted in serving nuts and green and white mints.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. J. M. Whelless, Jr., and Mrs. C. H. Flanagan.

Around a hundred and fifty guests called during the tea hour.

Literary Club

The Literary Club was entertained, Wednesday afternoon, by Mrs. G. M. Holden, who acted as hostess for Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner. Mrs. Joyner was reported as recuperating from a recent illness. Early spring flowers were used as a setting for the meeting.

In the period devoted to business, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, Community Christmas Seal chairman, reported that the sum of $679.33 was realized from the December sale, which topped all preceding sales here. Miss DeVisconti also told of the recent announcement to the Woman's Club of a proposed gift of a memorial library building by Miss Elizabeth Davis, who is a member of the Literary Club also, and of a building site by Miss Davis' sisters, Mrs. Charles M. Griffin, of Wilson, and Mrs. W. Alex Allen, of Farmville, and a brother, Robert Lang Davis, III, of Farmville. The club members expressed individually their joy, and their appreciation for such a splendid gift to the community.

Featuring the program was a comprehensive talk by Mrs. H. Neal Howard, on the topic, "Peace in the Pacific." Mrs. Howard traced China and Japan's relations with other countries for the past hundred years and stressed the fact that Japan must never again be permitted to become a military menace.

Following adjournment, a fruit getain was served with cream, individual cakes with green and white decoration, and coffee.

Contract Club
Mrs. Mark E. Dixon was a gracious hostess at the meeting of the Contract Club, Tuesday afternoon at her home, in which early spring flowers in shades of yellow were effectively used.

High score for the club members was compiled by Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, who was awarded table tiles, and the guest prize, a piece of pottery, was won by Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr. The consolation, a pie bird, went to Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt.

Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby assisted her mother in receiving and in serving a delectable salad course with coffee.

B. & B. Club
Mrs. Frank K. Allen delightfully entertained the Book and Bridge Club, Friday afternoon in her home, which was decorated with forsythia, narcissus and potted plants.

In the progressive games, Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss won the high score award in bridge. The December winners were awarded book prizes as follows; Mrs. Frank K. Allen, first, "Ship To My Lou" by William Martin Camp, and Mrs. Lewis W. Allen, second, "Ben Hur" by Lew Wallace.

Party sandwiches, assorted pickles, olives, hot chamon rolls and coccolas were served after play.

Special guests of the hostess were; Mrs. George M. and Mrs. W. Alex Allen, Mrs. Ted L. Albritton, and Mrs. R. E. Pickett.

Home Demonstration

The January meeting of the Home Demonstration Club was held in the clubhouse with the officers, Mrs. Claude Joyner, president, Mrs. J. E. Lewis, vice president, and Mrs. B. M. Lewis, secretary-treasurer, as gracious hostesses.

Featuring the business session were plans for the next meeting, to be held February 13, which will be a supper affair with husbands of the members invited as special guests.

It was decided to invite the Seven Pines Club to hold a joint meet with this group at that time. In connection with the Victory Clothing Collection, the club members volunteered to make garments as their contribution.

Miss Verona Lee Joyner, Pitt's Home Demonstration Agent, was the speaker of the afternoon and developed a study of "Growing Food For Health With Emphasis On Blood Building." In an impressive manner, Miss Joyner was assisted by the hostesses, who prepared and served, as a practical demonstration of the speaker's subject, baked omelet with tomato sauce, Light-as-a-Feather gingerbread with cream fluff and coffee.

During the social period, the members enjoyed singing favorite songs in unison, with Mrs. Bannett R. Fields at the piano.
