Social and Personals

Mrs. R. W. Radar spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

W. H. Ivey, of Selma, spent Monday with his son, C. L. Ivey.

Mrs. M. E. Pollard and Mrs. Jesse Moye spent Thursday in Greenville. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dixon spent Sunday with relatives in New Bern. Harold Rouse, Oak Ridge student spent the week end at his home here

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Horton spent the week end with relatives in Eden-

Miss Janet Tyson, of Saratoga, spent Sunday with Miss Willie Rae Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Dupree, Jr., and son, Gerald, spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Greene are visiting relatives in Lynnhaven and Pensacola, Fla.

George Farr, of Asheville, arrived Thursday to spend a few days with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harper, of Snow Hill, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Harper. Col. and Mrs. V. O. Brown, of Camp

Butner, Raleigh, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Allen, Sunday. Edwin Massengill, of Raleigh, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Rev.

and Mrs. E. S. Coates. Miss Laura McArthur, of Bell Arthur, has returned after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moye.

Mrs. Jack Gates, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived Saturday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Joyner.

Miss Novella Horton Capps returned to Washington, D. C., Sunday, after a visit to Mrs. Dora H. Keel.

George Monk, left Tuesday for the West Coast from which he expects to sail in a few days for China.

Mrs. Dildy Thompson, of Rocky Mount, has returned after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Lanye Dail.

W. H. Duke, Mrs. David Jones and

Miss Margaret Smith paid Raleigh a business visit, Wednesday. S. 2/c G. R. Smith, Jr., who is stationed at Camp Perry, Va., spent the week end with his parents here. Mrs. Cherry Easley spent the week end with her daughter, Miss Jen, student at Peace College, Raleigh. Mrs. Eve H. Tompkins, Mrs. Harvey Winstead and Mrs. J. M. Carra- fall, is able to be up again. way were Wilson visitors, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gay and son, Bill Duke, of Plymouth, spent Monday with relatives and friends here.

Rev. C. B. Mashburn returned to Silver Spring, Md., Monday, with Lt. and Mrs. D. E. Shytle for an extend-

Mrs. H. Neal and Miss Frances Howard and Mrs. R. E. Pickett were Wilson and Rocky Mount visitors, Miss Myra Hunt and Miss Lorene Owens, of Stantonsburg, were guests of Miss Babs Williford during the week end.

Mrs. R. A. Fields, Jr., and daughter, Jenny Perry, of Robersonville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fields, Sr.

Miss Julia Fowler, of Pilot Mountain, student at Greensboro College spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith.

Mrs. J. F. Hart, who returned this week from a visit to relatives in New York City, is visiting Mr. and Mrs.

Herbert E. Hart. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garner and Knott. daughter, Betty Lou, moved Wednes day into the Dupree Apartments on North Main street. Miss Jane Greene spent several days this week.

of this week with Mrs. Iona Eason in Newport News, Va.

during the week end.

Miss Mary Alice Harris returned to Charlotte, Monday, after a vacation trip to Florida and a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dixon.

Miss Etna Lewis returned, Friday from the Greenesburg, Ky., tobacc market, where she held a warehous position during the sesson.

Friends of Mrs. C. Hubert Joynes will be giad to learn that she is re-cuperating rapidly in St. Petersburg

• CALENDAR

Monday, February 11 3:30 P. M .- Circle 4, Methodis

'Voman's Society, meets at the home of Mrs. Mary Russell with Mrs. Nonie Barrett as joint hostess.

7:00 P. M.-Kiwanis Club 8:00 P. M.-Weslevan Guild meets with Mrs. Ed Owens.

Tuesday, 12 Lincoln's Birthday.

1:00 P. M .- Mrs. H. D. Johnso and Mrs. George W. Davis will entertain at a luncheon at the home of the former for Miss Marion Lucille Davis, her mother, matron of honor, bridesmaids and mother of the bridegroom-

3:00 P. M.-Ballard's Home Dem onstration Club. 3:45 P. M.-Merry Matrons meet with Mrs. J. O. Pollard. 6:30 P. M .- Rotary Club. 7:00 P. M.-Woodmen of 8:00 P. M.-Episcopal Altar Guild meets with Mrs. T. S. Ryon.

Wednesday, 13 3:00 P. M.-New Deal Club meets with Mrs. Paul E. Jones. 3:00 P. M.-Wednesday Afternoon Club meets with Mrs. B. L.

Thursday, 14

Valentine's Day. 3:00 P. M.-Farmville Home Demonstration Club. 3:30 P. M .- Girl Scouts.

5:30 P. M.-Modlin-Davis wedding at the First Baptist Church. 7:30 P. M.-Masons.

Friday, 15 3:00 P. M.-Lamrad Club meets with Mrs. R. V. Fiser. 3:15 P. M .- Junior Woman's Club will hold a Benefit Bridge Tournament at the Country Club. 7:30 P. M .- Boy Scouts. 7:30 P. M.-Order of the Eastern Saturday, 16 10:00 A. M .- Bird Club.

TOMORROW!

2:30 P. M. Mrs. J. H. Darden will entertain at bridge at her home on Pine street

John Curtis, of Wendell, spent the C. Holmes.

Miss Frances Howard was a Wilson visitor, Saturday. Her grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Holden, returned with her for the week end.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Nannie Moye Humphrey, who sustained a broken ankle in a recent Billy Smith with his friend, Major Wm. H. Grover H. and Mrs. Vernon Webb, Mount. Loomis, Jr., of New York City.

Danville, Ky., this morning, Friday.

Mrs. Ronald Nichols and daughter, Jo Ann, and Mrs. Carlyle Hall, of Plymouth, spent several days of this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ivey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Johnson and Mrs. Jimmy Surrett, of New Barn, spent Monday here and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Monk.

Edward Harris, of Newport News, Va., and Lonnie Pierce, Jr., of Richmond, Va., spent the week end here with relatives enroute to Miami, Fla.

Edward Beckman, student at Qak Ridge, and Miss Jean Beckman, stu-dent of Meredith College, Raleigh, spent the week end at their home

Mr. and Mrs. John Council Parker, treatment at a Rocky Mount hosp of Durham, returned to Farmville for several weeks, returned Saturd this week and are making their home and is able to be up some for the present with Mrs. R. H.

North Main street.

Dean, left Thursday to meet Sgt.
Oglesby at Fort Bragg, who expects to be released from military duty

Late reports from Mrs. Lillian Parker, who has been receiving treat-ment at Carolina General Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Love, of Columment at Carolina General Hospital, bia, S. C., and Mrs. Mary Scott, of for several weeks, state that she is Kinston, visited Miss Margaret Smith improving.

Mrs. C. L. Ivey and guests, Mrs. Ronald Nichols and daughter, and Mrs. Carlyle Hall, of Plymouth, and Mrs. L. T. Lucas spent Wednesday

Mrs. F. M. Davis, Sr., Miss Eliza-beth and Miss Lucille Davis, Carol W. Modlin and Mrs. Charles M. Griffin and son, Millard, of Wilson, spent seeday in Raleigh

Lt. and Mrs. Wayne A. Mitchell have returned from Greensboro where Lt. Mitchell was released from

Mrs. W. R. Willis Hostess At Lovely Social Event

Webb Honored; Miss Lucille Davis Continues To Be Feted

Among the largest and loveliest of winter social affairs here was the bridge luncheon held in the D. A. R. Chapter House, Thursday, at which Mrs. Wesley R. Willis was gracious hostess in compliment to her daughter. Mrs. James Coughlin, of Detroit, Mich., whose marriage occurred recently, and Miss Evelyn Pippen Webb. of Pinetops, bride-elect, whose mar-riage to Robert Finley Snipes took place on the following Saturday evening. There were seventy guests in Gladioli, camellias and carnations in shades of pink were used in artistic arrangements throughout Chapter House, and glossy magnolia leaves were banked with pleasing effect on the Colonial mantels.

Mrs. S. C. Hotchkiss greeted guests as they arrived and Mrs. M. V. Horton presented the hostess, the honorees and Mrs. Grover H. Webb, of Pinetops, mother of the bride elect. Serving tomato cocktail from a beautifully appointed table were Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and Mrs. J. W. Joyner. Mrs. Robert T. Monk and Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby assisted in serving and in passing cheese-olive crax.

After guests had assembled, the hostess invited them to the upstairs banquet room, where a sumptuous barbecue luncheon was served, buffet style. The colonial banquet table was centered with an arrangement of handsome Picardy gladioli and ing the barbecue from silver platters Hotchkiss, Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby dragons and lace fern. and Mrs. R. T. Monk assisted in les, olives, corn sticks and lemon ice course with individual cakes decu tarts.

Butler.

means of bridal tallies, with those of H. D. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Todd and son, Mrs. R. V. Fiser won the high score motifs. The winner of high score week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert and Mrs. I. E. Satterfield, of Wilson, double deck of Congress cards, the bride-elect, was remembered with a in her crystal pattern. crystal bowl.

Mrs. W. E. Cobb, Jr., Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. H. J. Perseren and Mrs. Mrs. S. Howard Ragland, who has R. T. Parker, of Pinetops; Mrs. Karl E. Pickett were charming hostesses been visiting her father, J. A. Carra-Pace, Mrs. W. I. Wooten, Mrs. Sam at dessert-bridge, Wednesday eveway and family, left for her home in T. White, Mrs. J. Knott Proctor and ning, honoring Miss Marian Lucille Mrs. J. B. Hawes, of Greenville; Mrs. Davis, at the home of the former. A Mrs. Cecil T. Dixon and Mrs. H. L. achieved by the use of doll brides, in Watson, of Wilson, solemnized Thursday afternoon, fective detail in refreshments and

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gawthrop and

Dr. and Mrs. Ashby Winstead have returned to Rocky Mount after a visit to relatives here. Dr. Winstead will be on the Park View Hospital staff for the present.

Friends will be glad to learn that George Moore, who has been receiving treatment at a Rocky Mount hospital

Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby and son, left Thursday to meet Sgt. loglesby at Fort Bragg, who expects several days of this week at his bed-

> Miss Anne Jones, student at Mar-jorie Webster, Washington, D. C., re-turned Thursday, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones. Miss Jones was ill for several days

> Mrs. James R. Lang, who has been visiting relatives in Douglas, Ga., while her husband bought tobacco on the Kentucky market, returned to her hone here this week. Mr. Lang ar-rived last week.

Miss Agnes Quinerly, student at alem College, who spent the we Rubye Moye, of Maury and Tommy Mich., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, is leaving today for a visit to relatives in Edenton and Hertford during the week end. She will leave Monday for Detroit.

Mich., who has been visiting her parents, sociated with the Farmville School Faculty, announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret McBride, on February 3, at the Fowle Memorial Hospital Mrs. Swindell, was the former week end. She will leave Monday for Miss Estelle McBride, of Manchester, Detroit.

Mrs. Coughlin and Miss February 14, in the First Bapt Church, continues to be the inspira-tion for extensive prenuptial social ed a delicious sweet course, consistsalted nuts and coffee. The refreshthe Valentine idea, which was further carried in the tallies and bridge appointments. A corsage of red and white carnations marked the place of the bride-elect.

> Miss Adelaide Dail was charming hostess, Friday evening at dessert-bridge, given in compliment to Miss Marian Lucille Davis, bride-elect, at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden on Horne Avenue, which was decorated with cut flowers, ivy and candles.

In the progressive games, Mrs. Eve H. Tompkins was top score holdeer and was awarded pearl narcissus: the floating prize, a double deck of cards, was retained by Mrs. R. Pickett, and the low score prize, Revion set, went to Mrs. Allen Drake. The hostess presented Miss Davis with silver in her chosen pattern. Guests invited for the refreshmen hour were Mrs. Clark Davis, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Frank Davis. Jr., and Mrs. H. D. Johnson.

Mrs. C. H. Flanagan was charming hostess at a lovely dessert-bridge party, Wednesday afternoon, complimenting Miss Davis. The event, attended by fifty-five guests, was held in the D. A. R. Chapter House.

The mantels were banked with mag fern. Seated at the table and serv- nolis foliage interspersed with white candles in crystal holders, and floor were the hostess and Mrs. Grover H. baskets held artistic arrangements Webb. Mrs. M. V. Horton, Mrs. C. S. of white carnations, gladioli, snap-

Tables were laid with refreshmen serving slaw, asparagus salad, pick- cloths and upon arrival of guests, an rated in white and green, salted nuts Presiding at the coffee table was and mints were served by the hostess Mrs. J. Knott Proctor, of Greenville, assisted by Mrs. Stuart Suggs and and assisting her were Mrs. Carl Miss Elvi: a Tyson. Among the spe Renfrow, of Wilson, and Miss Nellie cial guests invited for the refreshment hour were Mrs. Clark Davis. After the luncheon, guests found mother of the honoree, and other relatheir places at sixteen tables by tives, Mrs. George W. Davis and Mrs

the honorees being marked by cor- For the contract games, the tables sages. In the progressive games, bore appointments in the bridal award, a cranberry tinted ivy bowl Mrs. G. Alex Rouse, was awarded a compiling high for out of town guests, floating prize, a box of confections received a crystal relish dish. The was retained by Miss Frances Howconsolation, a double deck of Con- ard, and Mrs. Charles M. Duke regress cards, went to Mrs. Emerson ceived the consolation, a pottery vase Smith. The hostess presented Mrs. The bride-elect was presented silver Coughlin with a silver celery dish in her chosen pattern. Mrs. James and Miss Webb with a silver cake Coughlin, of Detroit, Mich., a recent plate. Miss Marian Lucille Davis, bride, was remembered with a vase

Out of town guests were Mrs. Out of town guests were: Mrs. James Coughlin, of Detroit, Mich.; mond, Va., left Thursday for a visit Miss Evelyn Pippen Webb, Mrs. and Mrs. Ashby Winstead, of Rocky

> Mrs. R. T. Williams and Mrs. R. Carl Renfrow, Mrs. I. E. Satterfield, lovely and an appropriate setting was ministure scenes, ivy, white chrysan-mentature scenes, ivy, white chrysan-themums and gleaming white tapers, ties. Mrs. Joyner explained the pos-Miss Marian Lucille Davis, whose with the traditional nuptial colors of marriage to Carol Willis Modlin will white and green being carried in ef-table appointments. A dessert course of ice cream and daughter, Grace, of Midway. Park, meringue kisses, nuts, mints and cof-Camp Lejeune, and G. L. Winders of fee was served upon arrival of guests.

Fayetteville, visited Hal M. Winders The honoree, her mother, Mrs. Clark S. G. Gardner assisted in serving. Davis, Mrs. C. E. Modlin, mother of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. H. D. Johnson, Mrs. Harvey Winstead, Misses Irma and Rubye Braxton, of Greenville, and Mrs. Roland Modlin, of Vanceboro, were seated at the dining room table, which was spread with a lace cloth, centered with a bridal ene and illuminated by white tapers. Other guests were served at the score compiler of the four tables in play and was awarded a pottery vase; Mrs. F. M. Davis, Jr., retained the floating prize, Hi-jacks, and Miss Mary Ann Townsend was given the consolation, handpainted ash trays.

The hostesses presented Miss Davis with silver in her pattern.

Informal Tea

Mrs. J. H. Darden was hostess at lovely informal tea, Saturday after-noon, complimenting her sisters, Miss Ida Cowan and Mrs. W. R. Kuker, of Durham, and Mrs. Quentin Gregory, of Halifax, house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker. The Darden home, on Pine street, was artistically decorated with gladioli, potted plants and ivy.

Guests were greeted as they arriv-ed by the hostess, who introduced the honor guests. A delightful social hour ensued, during which delicious hments of party sandwiche ndies and tes were enjoyed. BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Swindell

Junior Woman's Club The Junior Woman's Club Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Williams with Miss Margaret Smith as joint hostess.

Mrs. R. T. Williams directed proceedings of the business session, during which, committee reports were given by the chairmen.

Mrs. Sam Lewis, of the ways and means committee, announced plans Upon arrival of guests, the hostess, and named committees for the Bene-assisted by Mrs. Cherry Easley, serv-fit Bridge Tournament to be held at the Country Club, Friday, February ing of angel cake, Bavarian cream, 15. Miss Margaret Smith, chairman of the March of Dimes ball, reported ment tables were spread with lovely on the success of that event and stat- Bettie Jervis, E. C. T. C., students handpainted cloths and decorated in ed that the receipts had not been who spent the week end in the home tabulated at that time, and Mrs. Frank K. Allen, of the Civic Contri-delightful party and miscellaneous bution Committee, reported on the shower, Saturday afternoon, in comcouts in the movie collections.

Mrs. C. H. Flanagan, of the nominating committee, presented the foldents in attendance were Miss Mary lowing report, which was accepted by Ellen Kittrell, Miss Margaret Coates the members with a unanimous vote: Mrs. Sam Lewis, president; Mrs. R. The Harper home on North Main T. Williams, 1st vice president; Mrs. street was beautifully decorated with Steward Suggs, 2nd vice president; greenery and scarlet berries, Win-Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, recording ners of the novel contests, Miss Myrsecretary; Mrs. John M. Mewborn, tle Nichols, Mrs. Allan Drake and Hotchkiss, treasurer; Mrs. C. H. bric-a-brac as awards. Flanagan, reporter, and Mrs. H. D. A shower of lovely and useful Johnson, parliamentarian. Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver presented a ing Center for Good Citizenship." Mrs. Copenhaver stressed the import- of crystal also. ance of early training in the life of a Delicious fruit cake, topped with Home Demonstration Agent, gave an child along religious and civic lines for the duties of citizenship, and stated in closing, "In the post-war world, America will need as never before the sturdy spirit of its founders, their faith in its ideals, their belief in Divine guidance, and their numble appreciation of the rich gifts it offers. It is the duty of the women of America to foster that spirit Many of our fighting men gave their lives to preserve American ways of BENEFIT BRIDGE life. We must give our best efforts to see that their sacrifice was not in vain."

The hostesses served delicious individual pecan pies, mints and coffee.

Literary Club

One of the most delightful meetings held by the Literary Club in recent months was that of Wednesday, when Mrs. John B. Joyner entertained the members and additional friends at her home on North Main street. The Valentine season was emphasized in the beautiful floral decorations of red and white carnations and in the heart motif noted in the rafreshments. Guests were presented with sugar plum nosegays as they arrived.

The program was featured by an interesting discussion of "China's Destiny" by Mrs. J. W. Joyner, who On Our Side" by Edgar Snow, and read in this connection a newspaper clipping, "Peace Prospects Brighter For China."

Mrs. Joyner spoke of the apparent need of birth control, and the problems of health, agriculture, industry and communications, and pointed out the inescapable fact that while China sible solution offered by a regional organization for the Pacific territory. After adjournment, the hostes served chicken salad, hot rolls, heart shaped sandwiches, pickles, homemade candies and cookies and fruit punch. Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. Special guests were Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. E. R. Clegg, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs.

S. G. Gardner.

Contract Club Mrs. M. V. Horton was a graciou hostess on Wednesday, entertaining members of the Contract Club and additional guests, her niece, Mrs. Jam ridge tables.

Mrs. H. Neal Howard was top R. Burke, Mrs. B. L. Lang and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith. Gladioli and carnations were used in pleasing arrangements in the living room and able appointments suggested the

> The high score winner among club bers was Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner was awarded a list-finder pad and Mrs. Burke received the guest prize, a double deck of cards. The

Announcing Opening

The Benson Schoo of Dancing Tuesday, February 12

Tap, Ballet, Ballroom Daacing taught in class or private TUESDAYS, WEDNESDAYS

Agriculture Building Prospective pupils will con tact Mrs. Benson on open day or call -Mrs. Walts Jones, Phone 461-1.

and THURSDAYS

salad course, assidwiches, nuts and coffee were served, bore lovely cen-er arrangements of Valentine can-

Mrs. Ted L. Albritton was hostes rad Club, Friday afternoon at her home on Church street. Potted cyclamens and primroses ns and primroses made a lovely decorative setting for tables in play.

Mrs. Albritton won top score, compiled in the series of games, at the conclusion of which she served sandwiches, candies and coca-colas.

Mrs. Carr Honored

Miss Etta Frances Harper and Miss of the former, were hostesses at splendid cooperation of the Girl pliment to Mrs. F. T. Carr, a recent bride, and a former schoolmate of the hostesses. Other E. C. T. C. stuand Miss Marjorie Vaughn.

corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. S. Mrs. J. C. Brock, Jr., were presented gifts was arranged on the dining room table. The hostesses presented thought-provoking program on the Mrs. Carr with a gift of crystal and Club, and Mrs. Joyner and Mrs. West topic, "Every Home a Basic Train- remembered Mrs. W. J. Greene, of brooks, of the Farmville Club, at Grifton, a recent bride, with a gift tending as special guests.

cream, cookies and nuts were served.

CHRISTIAN CEURCH

The Rev. Ray Silverthorne, a former student at A. C. College, Wilson, will preach at the Christian Church,

TOURNAMENT Friday, February 15

at 3:15 o'clock 50c per Person Farmville Country Club

- Sponsored by -JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB Call Mrs. Sam Lewis

SELECTIONS NOW ! WE ALSO HAVE THE ... DMBRSON and MOTOROLA PORTABLE RADIOS Come and put your order is for one. We will have a VISIT OUR STORE FOR REAL VALUES!

COMPLETE LINE SOON !

FARMVILLE'S LARGEST JEWELRY STORE H. S. HATEM, Manager

Home Demonstration Club

The Seven Pines Home Demonstra tion Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Howard Harris as hostess and Mrs. Joe Jones presiding. There were fifteen members present with Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Brooks, of the Red Banks

Miss Verona Lee Joyner, County illustrated talk on the Basic Seven Foods. Assisted by the hostess an the foods and nutrition leaders, Mrs. L. E. Garris and Mrs. Ola Corbett. Miss Joyner prepared baked creamy omelet with tomato sauce and spice gingerbread with lemon sauce, w vere served with hot chocolate.

JUST RECEIVED! Stainless Stee

• For Linoleum,

Counters, Etc. Duke-Garner Co

- Phone 416-1, -

Cabinet Tops,

FARMVILLE, N. C. for table reservations

You've heard his "Sunday Serenade" You've heard his recordings . . .

NOW SEE AND HEAR

AND HIS ORCHESTRA
THE KAYE CHOIR AND KAYEDETS 9:00 P. M. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12th COBB & FOXHALL WAREHOUSE

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. Admission at door $2.50 per person. ADVANCE SALE TICKETS AT $2.00 PER CITY DRUG COMPANY Until Saturday night, February 9th.

FARMVILLE, N. C.

MITA-MAR

JUST ARRIVED! COME AND GET YOUR