INFORMAL GET-TOGETHER

Julian Smith and Charles Quinley were hosts for an informal get-together, Saturday evening, following the Tournament basketball game. Fifteen couples enjoyed a winter roast at the Municipal Park, followed by dancing at the Country Club.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mrs. J. A. Barnwell of Hendersonville announces the marriage of her daughter, Eunice Rogers, of Wilson, to Henry M. Skinner, of Farmville, which took place December the twenty-ninth, at Emporia, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner are at present at-home in Wilson, where Mrs. Skinner is owner and manager of the Vogue Beauty Shop. Mr. Skinner is with the Farmville Furniture Co. here.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE

Roy, 12, and Ray, 10 years old entertained fourteen of their playmates at a winter roast, Tuesday, March 12, in observance of their birthdays, which fall on the same date.

Following the roast, the candles on the large birthday cake were lighted and it was served by their mother, Mrs. George B. Moore. The boys sang "Happy Birthday" while the young hosts opened their gifts.

SOUVENIR SPREAD

Passers-by have been greatly interested this week in viewing the satin spread in the window of the Western Auto Associate Store, displayed at the request of Mr. C. Hubert Joyner by Mrs. Jasper Jones, mother of James Jones, who made the spread of satin pillow tops sent her by her son from the various cities he visited during his years of military service. The spread is quite unique, beautiful and interesting.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Talmadge Folland, of 210 W. Pine street, entertained at a birthday party, Friday, March 12, in honor of her small daughter, Diane, age one year. Games were played on the back lawn, after which ice cream and cake were served. Guests in attendance were: Roy Mawborn, Harold Harris, Jean and Brother James, Marguerite and George Thomas, Kenneth Heath, Billy Butts and Mickey Shirley.

BRIDE AND GROOM FITED

Mrs. L. P. Odum honored her son, Pfc. Willis P. Odum, and his bride, Tuesday evening, at a lovely shower party, which was attended by twenty-five guests.

Mrs. Will Barrett conducted a number of games and contests appropriate for the occasion. In one of these, Mrs. Woodruff, of Rocky Mount, mother of the bride, won candy. The hostess served a chicken salad course with lemonade, cakes and nuts. The honorees received many beautiful gifts.

Sgt. Wilson is spending a few days with his parents in Abbeville, S. C., after which he will join his wife, the former Miss Doris Rouse, and their small daughter, Judy, here. The Wilsons will again make their home in Abbeville where he will be vocational education director at Abbeville High School.

SHOWER COMPLIMENTS

MRS. GEORGE ALLEN

Mrs. R. E. Fickett was a gracious hostess, Saturday afternoon, subsisting informally at her home in compliment to Mrs. George M. Allen, recent bride.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth caught at each corner with clusters of longjars and decorated with a center bouquet of yellow flowers, flanked by matching tapers in crystal candleholders.

Party sandwiches, pickles, nuts, potato chips and brownies were served buffet with cool-aid.

The honoree received a camellia corsage and a gift of silver from the hostess and a surprise shower of gifts for her kitchen from the guests. These were attractively presented by Mrs. Fickett's daughter, Marion, who dressed in organza apron and cap, brought them in on a tea cart.

BRIDGE CLUBS

Miss Elizabeth Davis was hostess at a lovely meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club this week. Carnations and snapdragons, decorating the home tables and refreshment appointments emphasized the green and white color scheme of the St. Patrick motif.

Angel food cake, topped with pineapple ice cream and decorated with tiny molded gelatine shamrocks, was served with a fruit drink, nuts and candies, prior to the games. Attractive favors were green carnation nosegays.

Mrs. Robert Lee Smith won the club prize, ash trays, and the hostess presented her special guest, Mrs. Ted Albritton, with a crystal ivy bowl.

Mrs. S. A. Roebuck graciously entertained the New Best Club, Wednesday afternoon. Spring flowers in artistic arrangements were used as a setting for the two tables at play. Upon arrival members were served a dessert course. In the games of contract, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., compiled high score, winning colored crystal ash trays.

MERRY MATRONS

The Merry Matrons Club enjoyed a regular meeting in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. A. C. Monk was hostess. A variety of lovely garden bloom decorated the living and dining rooms.

Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, program chairman, continued the club's study of American music, discussing in an interesting manner, "America's Symphony Orchestra." Mrs. Willis centered her remarks around the five outstanding orchestra leaders, Toscanini, Koussevitzky, Mitropolis, Stokowski and Turtel, the world's most famous living pianist, and spoke of America's first Symphony orchestra which was established in 1842 at New York.

It is also interesting to note that North Carolina has the only state supported symphony orchestra, which has just begun its annual spring tour, under the baton of Dr. Benjamin S. Swalin.

In the social period, strawberry shortcake was served, followed by coffee, cheese straws and salted pecans.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Paul Wesley Matheson, of Charlotte, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Eleanor Ann, to Mr. Thomas Eli Joyner, Jr., of Farmville. The wedding date will be announced later.

Miss Matheson attended Salem College, Winston-Salem. After serving eighteen months in the Southwest Pacific with the American Red Cross, she returned to Charleston, S. C., last July, and has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Douglas H. Wilkerson, of 18 Water Street. Mr. Joyner, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, has recently been released from the U. S. Navy, holding the rank of full Lieutenant. He is associated in business with his father in Farmville.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

To everyone who came and did for me and mine by every act, word and expression of sympathy when the shadows deepened and my husband was taken away — a grateful heart thanks you.

Mrs. B. Streeter Sheppard.

GOLDEN WEDDING

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Mrs. R. L. Spivey and Mrs. Myrtle Roebuck graciously entertained Sunday, March 10, at a surprise chicken barbecue dinner, honoring their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gurganus, on their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The home was beautifully decorated carrying out the color scheme of gold and white. The dinner table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake in gold and white and white hyacinths.

As the guests assembled in the dining room, a beautiful prayer was offered by Rev. C. B. Mashburn.

Besides the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren attending, were Rev. and Mrs. Mashburn and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wooten. Mr. and Mrs. Gurganus were remembered with many lovely and useful gifts. Rev. and Mrs. Mashburn presented gifts to the hostesses.

FOUNTAIN PTA

At the February meeting of the Fountain PTA, held in the school auditorium, Thursday evening, February 21, the Primary department under the supervision of Miss Ethel Coward, Mrs. Dennis Mercer, and Mrs. Bill Walker presented a delightful program.

The first grade had charge of the devotional. Stanley Fuller recited the 23rd Psalm, and Elizabeth Smith gave the Lord's Prayer. The class then sang hymns. The first grade girls sang a lullaby to their dolls.

The second grade gave a musical short, "The Little Monkeys." The scenery brought to life the jungles. Those taking part were Sallie Baker, reader, Monkeys, Allison Morris, Joyce Bell, and Gladys Williams, Parrot, Patricia Little, and Elephant, Peggy Tyson. The following "culled" ladies lamented their "Cooontown Trouble," Katie Norman, Martha H. Johnson, Geraldine Ayers, Fay Moore and Barbara Dilda. The Third Grade gave a health program on Good Eating Habits. Each child was dressed as a vegetable, fruit, milk or bread.

Rev. West gave a short talk on the importance and pleasure of reading. He emphasized the Bible, dictionary, and English Grammar. He also brought out the need for children to have books on their own reading level in the home.

CLAUDE FIELDS

BULIED WEDNESDAY

Claude Fields, a colored citizen, held in highest respect and regard here, was laid to rest, Wednesday, after a long illness, most of which was spent in Duke Hospital, Durham, where he underwent treatment, and finally succumbed to fatal complications.

Fields was a faithful employee of A. C. Monk & Co., for many years and a number of the officials of the firm were in attendance at the funeral held from the Free Will Baptist Church, of which he was a loyal member.

He is survived by his wife and several children.
