Lovely Party Compliments Miss Mary E. Barbee

Mrs. J. L. Ammons, Mrs. Henry T. Smith, Mrs. R. Grimes, Mrs. Albert V. and Miss Etta Lewis were gracious hostesses at a lovely bridge party, Wednesday evening, in compliment to Miss Mary Elizabeth Barbee, daughter of Benjamin Clifton Barbee, of Wilson, and the late Mrs. Carrie Cole Barbee, whose marriage to Alfred Henry Lewis, son of Mrs. John Reddin Lewis and the late Mr. Lewis will take place in the Methodist Church, in Wilson, Sunday afternoon, March 24, at five o'clock.

The D. A. R. Chapter House was the scene of the affair and was decorated in the chosen color note of green and white and yellow. The colonial mantels were banked with spruce, forsythia and ivy and white candles were in crystal holders. Floral arrangements of spruce, forsythia and daffodils were used in further decoration of the spacious reception room.

Fourteen tables were spread with refreshment covers and a sweet course, consisting of angel cake, topped with heavenly hash, and salted nuts, was served after the guests had arrived. Bouteillieres, carrying the prevailing colors, served as plate decorations.

In the progressive bridge games, Miss Louise Farrow won the high score award, a handpainted vase; Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard received the consolation, a novel pitcher, and Mrs. Maynard Thome was presented a coffee cup and saucer as winner of the rummy games. The honoree was given a lovely table lamp by the hostesses.

Sharing with the other guests in the pleasures of the refreshment hour were: Mrs. William F. Easley, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Mrs. Louise D. Harris and Mrs. George W. Windham.

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club enjoyed a lovely meeting on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. J. W. Parker was hostess at her home on Church Street. Artistic arrangements of camellias were used in decoration.

During the business period, presided over by the president, Mrs. W. M. Willis, officers for the new year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. H. E. Hart; Vice-President, Mrs. J. H. Darden; Treasurer, Mrs. J. I. Morgan; Secretary, Mrs. William Easley; Miss Tabitha DeVisconti read a timely article from the North Carolina Clubwoman—Women, Are We Wasting Time, by Lydia Savage.

Mrs. Parker was program chairman for the afternoon and gave a resume of a broadcast speech by Dr. Gains of Washington—Lee University—Courage For The Tests of Peace, beginning with the need of courage to live in this age of fear, she analyzed the major fears and gave as their reason our loss of faith—faith in democracy, in our allies, in the world order of peace, and in God. No age, no cause, nor no person can be great except such greatness is built on a foundation of faith, has high ideals as founded in Christ's teachings, and is motivated by the golden rule. In closing Mrs. Parker looked briefly upon the evident ills of the world and said—"Let not your heart be troubled—believe, believe!"

After adjournment the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Darden, Mrs. J. I. Morgan and Mrs. William Easley, served ice cream and cake followed by coffee, cheese biscuit, nuts and mints.

INFORMAL PARTY

Mrs. John T. Bynum entertained at a delightful neighborhood party Friday morning, in compliment to Mrs. W. C. Harrell, who has recently moved to Farmville and is making her home at Mrs. Bynum's.

Eighteen guests called at 10:30 o'clock and were served coca-colas, party sandwiches and cookies. Japonicas were used in lovely decoration in the reception rooms.

BOARD MEETS

Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, president of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, presided over the Executive Board meeting, Monday evening.

Mrs. T. W. Lang gave a devotional from the Book of Proverbs. The business of the evening concerned completion of quarterly reports.

The hostess, Mrs. S. G. Gardner, served ham biscuits, sandwiches, cheese cookies, pickles, hot tea and cake.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to friends, who have shown me so many kindnesses, during the weeks I have spent here in Woodard-Herring Hospital, Wilson. I am improving and expect to be home again in a few days.

Mrs. J. W. Joyner.
