

Miss Mary Barbee Bride of Mr. Lewis

Wedding Sunday Afternoon;
Cake Cutting Saturday

Wilson, March 25. — Miss Mary Elizabeth Barbee, daughter of Benjamin Clifton Barbee of Wilson, and Fred Henry Lewis, son of Mrs. John Hiding Lewis and the late Mr. Lewis of Farmville, were married on Sunday afternoon, March 24th in the Methodist Church of Wilson, Reverend Walter C. Ball officiating the double ring ceremony. Tall baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons, and Easter Lilies, were arranged on the altar, before a background of stately palms and ferns. Ten branched candelabra with white candles were used on each side of the altar.

Mrs. B. B. Plyler, organist rendered a program of pre-nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Elbert C. Limes, soloist, of Farmville, sang, "Sink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" "Because." During the ceremony Mrs. Plyler softly rendered "Rehearsal Party" and for the benediction Mr. Holmes sang "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional. The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. James J. Rowland of Wilson, as matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of baby blue with black accessories. Her flowers were a bouquet of Briarcliff roses, with pink ribbon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wool suit grey, with black accessories and a slender corsage of orchids. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Albert V. Lewis, as best man, while ushers were: B. C. Barbee, Jr., brother of the bride and James J. Rowland of Wilson; Sam T. Lewis and a brother, Redding Grimes Lewis of Farmville.

Mrs. Barbee, stepmother of the bride, wore a soldier blue suit of wool, with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. Mrs. Lewis wore a dress of black crepe and a corsage of red roses.

After a wedding trip to Western Carolina, the couple will be at home in Farmville.

Mrs. Lewis attended the Farmville High School and Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, and until her marriage was employed by Dr. Robert L. Tomlinson.

Mr. Lewis attended the Farmville High School and entered the service in 1942 and served 21 months overseas. He is now connected with the Farmville Furniture Company.

Ed. Note: A large number of Farmville relatives and friends were in attendance.

Rehearsal Party
Immediately following the Lewis-Barbee wedding rehearsal Saturday night, Mrs. Eloise Case Smith entertained in honor of Miss Mary Barbee and Mr. Alfred Lewis with a cake-cutting, at the Woman's Club.

The club rooms were beautifully decorated throughout with mixed white spring flowers. The mantel was banked with glazed magnolia interspersed with white camellias. Silver candelabra holding burning white candles stood in the center and each end. The bridal table was covered with a handsome white embroidered cloth, with a centerpiece of mixed white flowers in a large silver bowl, flanked with silver candelabra holding white tapers. The three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was first sliced by the bride-elect, while pictures were being taken. Mrs. James Rowland assisted by Miss Eula C. Barbee, sisters of the bride, completed the cutting of the cake. Mrs. B. C. Barbee, step-mother of the bride, presided over the punch bowl assisted by Mrs. C. P. Hardy, an aunt of the bride. Miss Mary Herring and Mrs. Laura C. Powell, assisted in serving salted nuts and bridal mints. Mrs. B. B. Plyler furnished music during the evening. Members of the wedding party, the two families and a few close friends enjoyed a delightful affair.

BOY SCOUTS CHANGE TIME OF MEETING

Troop 25, Boy Scouts, has recently chosen Tuesdays at 8 p. m. for their meeting time, instead of Fridays.

Attendance was very good this week. The program opened with the Scout Oath, led by Robert Rollins, followed by one verse of America, led by Charles Joyner. Robert Pollard was elected the troop song leader.

The Rattlesnake and Flaming Arrow patrols put on two good stunts. Dan Satterthwaite, Johnnie Barrett, Roy Moore and Harry Albritton reported the best good turns for the week. The meeting closed with the Pledge to the Flag, led by Senior Patrol leader, Johnnie Barrett. Initiation will be held next Tuesday night.
