MRS. MUNDEN HONORED

Mrs. E. T. Williams was hostess at a delightful neighborhood party Wednesday morning, entertaining in honor of Mrs. J. W. Munden who leaves Monday to make her home in Elizabeth City.

Party knickknacks and coca-colas were served buffet from an attractively decorated table centered with an arrangement of tulips and spruce.

The honoree was presented a shower of handkerchiefs by the guests. These were arranged on a hostess tray, gift of Mrs. Williams, and topped with a rosebud boutonniere.

Mrs. M. E. Pollard, Mrs. Jesse Moye and Mrs. C. W. Blackwood complimented Mrs. Munden at a lovely informal party and miscellaneous shower given Thursday afternoon in the Pollard home.

Tasty cookies, sandwiches, ham biscuits, miniature doughnuts, mints and toasted pecans were served from the dining room table which was covered with a hand-crocheted cloth and decorated with an arrangement of lavender iris and white narcissus and flanked by burning white tapers.

The buffet was attractive with groups of Easter bunnies, chicks and nests of Easter eggs. Mrs. Frank Dupree, Jr., poured coffee. Ann Pollard presented Mrs. Munden with a large green and yellow decorated Easter basket which held the gifts.

Twenty-five guests were in attendance at each of these going-away parties.

MERRY MATRONS

Mrs. J. T. Thorne graciously entertained the Merry Matrons Club and additional guests including Mrs. E. E. Clegg, Mrs. B. W. Rader, Mrs. F. M. Davis, Miss Elizabeth Davis and Miss Edna Robinson on Tuesday afternoon.

Lovely arrangements of pansies and lilies of the valley decorated the home and each guest was presented a tallman rosebud from the garden of Mrs. Marvin Jones. These were passed on a silver tray.

Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, president, gave a splendid program on the subject, "Sweet Charity," basing her remarks on the following thoughts:

For two hundred years following the arrival of the first slaves we had no data for the history of negro songs. Colored people have an excellent ear for music. The first wave of popular interest in negro songs grew out of the negro minstrel show. Spirituals have earned a high place in the affections of our people.

Mrs. Bobbitt announced that Mrs. John Pollard and Mrs. G. M. Holden assisted her in representing the club in the Cancer Drive for funds.

At the refreshment hour heavenly hash, followed by coffee, fruit bars, stuffed figs and salted pecans, was served.

HONOR VISITORS

In compliment to Mrs. Frank N. Grews, Jr., of South Boston, Va., and Miss Rosemary Holmes, student at Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C., during their recent visit here with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. Henry D. Johnson, Mrs. George W. Davis and Mrs. Carol Modlin were hostesses for a delightful afternoon party, entertaining in the home of Mrs. Johnson.

Coca-colas, sandwiches, potato chips, nuts, ham biscuits and cookies were served from the dining-room table which was centered with a lovely arrangement of spruce and crabapple.

Miss Holmes, accompanied at the piano by her mother, entertained with several vocal selections. Guests included members of the Emily B. Holmes Class and Young People's Class of which Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Davis are teachers.

Kersney, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baucum, Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Coates.

The Farmville Auxiliary presented to Mrs. Hobgood an honorary life membership, which is a signal honor.

Both Mrs. Hobgood and Mrs. Essley will continue their offices in the Presbyterian for two years, having been elected for a three year term.

BRIDGE PARTIES

Mrs. W. Leslie Smith was a gracious hostess to the New Deal Club and special guest, Mrs. R. G. Ruffin, Wednesday afternoon.

Bridge was played at two tables and prizes awarded to Mrs. F. E. Jones who compiled top score and received dusting powder, and to Mrs. R. D. Rouse, who was given a table mat in consolation for low score.

Table low score gifts were presented to Mrs. S. A. Roebuck and Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt.

Tulips and roses were used in artistic decorations and the hostess served party cookies and sandwiches, pickles and coca-colas. Table appointments emphasized the Easter season.

The Wednesday Afternoon Club enjoyed a lovely meeting this week when Mrs. James Y. Monk, Jr., was hostess and had as special guests Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Jr., and Mrs. Walter B. Jones.

High score awards were won by Mrs. Harry Harper, who was presented a pair of china slippers, and Mrs. Morgan, who received a reflector.

Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., whose score was low, also received a reflector.

Roses, iris, tulips, spruce and pansies made a decorative setting for the three tables at play and tallies were designed as old-fashioned Easter eggs.

Strawberry ice cream, caramel cake and salted almonds were served. Centering the refreshment tables were miniature Easter baskets.

Mrs. Richard Harris entertained the Lamrad Club members and guests, Mrs. Walter B. Jones and Mrs. Frank K. Allen Friday afternoon, when Mrs. James Y. Monk, Jr., scored high.

Mixed arrangements of spring garden bloom were used in decorating and between progressions coca-colas were served with sandwiches, ham biscuits and cookies.

The next meeting will be May 2 at the home of Jack Turnage.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Due to obligations to other preaching points, the Rev. J. B. Rountree, pastor of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, will be unable to hold but one service here during Holy Week, that will be a one hour service on Good Friday from 2:00 to 3:00 o'clock.

A message on the Risen Lord will be brought by the rectory to his congregation, Easter Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock and there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited to attend both of these services.

The Rev. Mr. Rountree closed a series of Wednesday evening services, which have been held throughout the Lenten season, on Wednesday of this week, during which he has delivered soul-searching and soul-stirring messages to his hearers.

The Woman's Auxiliary has conducted a Lenten study meeting each Monday afternoon for the past five weeks. This will be brought to a close with the meeting to be held on Monday next.

LANG'S 4-H CLUB

The Lang's 4-H Club meeting, held April 4 at the home of Cornelia Mills, was called to order by Ruth Moore, president. Secretary's report was given by Gayle Flanagan, after which the boys and girls separated for studies.

For the girls, Miss Bizzell discussed "Planning Your Wardrobe." In a dress review Hazel Garrison won first place and Gayle Flanagan, second, among the Juniors; Cornelia Mills, first place and Ruth Moore, second, among the seniors. Judges were Mrs. Pruden, Mrs. Turnage and Mrs. Gowans.

A recreation period was enjoyed. Cornelia Mills and Mary Frances Hobgood served coca-colas, ritz crackers and salted peanuts.

The next meeting will be May 2 at the home of Jack Turnage.

RAINFEST

Twenty-seven Farmville Golfers were in Wilson Wednesday for tournament play, but were unable to complete their games due to rain. The match will be played on Sunday afternoon.

NOTE OF THANKS

I wish to express appreciation for the many kindnesses shown during the sickness and death of my father. Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr.
