

Local Baptist Church Plans Intermediate Day

For the first time in the history of the Farmville Baptist Church, Intermediate day is to have a day given them for special recognition and special opportunities. This has been designated as Sunday, May 6.

There are thirty-five enrolled in this department and all are looking forward to Intermediate Day. In Sunday School, every pupil is asked to come and hear Mrs. E. W. Holmes, who will teach the Sunday School lesson. At the morning preaching service the Intermediate will sit in a body. At this time the pastor will bring a message of special interest to youth and to the parents of youth.

In Training Union the Intermediate will have complete charge of the program. The evening service at 8:00 o'clock will lend interest again in keeping with Intermediate Day.

WESLEY COMMUNITY HOLDS OUTDOOR EASTER SERVICES

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Wesley Community, under the leadership of Nelson Fulford and Aaron Tyson presented a most unusual service late Sunday afternoon. The Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ were depicted in seven tableaux, against a rugged outdoor scene with the cross and open tomb in background.

The following members took part: Aaron Tyson, as Peter; Elizabeth Crawford, Mary, the mother of Jesus; Sallie Tyson, Mary Magdalene; Lorraine Andrews, the other Mary; Mary Frances Oakley, Daniel; Mary Tyson and Evelyn Nethercutt, women at the cross; Edward Oakley, John; Tommy Nethercutt and Conrad Mosinger, Angels; Robert Lee Crawford and Leroy Turner, Men on the road to Emmaus; Henry Tyson, Reader.

The Youth Fellowship choir, under Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck's direction accompanied the tableaux.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING

Circle 2, of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held its initial meeting of the new church year Monday evening with Mrs. John B. Lewis as hostess.

Mrs. Will H. Moore, Jr., the new chairman, presided. Other officers include Mrs. Harry Harper, Miss Louise Farrior, co-chairman; Mrs. Joe Flake, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. William Easley, Bible Study teacher.

Following the Bible topic, which began a series of studies on the Book of Isaiah, to be continued throughout the year, the evening's program, "Christian Leaders Wanted for Tomorrow," was developed by Mrs. Flake.

During an enjoyable social period ice cream, cookies and salted nuts were served. Pansies made colorful plate decorations.

SOPHOMORES TO STAGE "BUSY AS A BEAVER"

The Sophomore Class of the Farmville High School will present "Busy As A Beaver," by Russell Drake, a frolicsome farce-comedy in three acts on Friday, May 3, at 8:00 P. M.

The cast of characters includes Gaylord Clayton to be played by Cedric Davis, Donna Clayton, Joyce Tyson; Judy Clayton, Vivian Scott; Tillie, Dora Mae Barrett; Polly Clayton (Aunt Polly), Betsy Jones; Agatha Cornwell, Ann Moore; Phelps Webb, Sidney Carraway; Bedelia Shannon, Doris Yelverton; Miriam Day, Jean Baker; Mrs. Josephine Ripley, Lola Grey Kemp; Lynn Fuller, Billie Johnston; Herbert Howson, Bruce Tugwell.

American warehouses were virtually emptied of fresh fruits as of April 1, when just three million bushels of apples and 150,000 bushels of pears remained in government storage.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

In compliment to James Yates on his birthday anniversary, Wednesday, Miss Jane Greene was hostess for a delightful surprise dinner party, entertaining at the Royal Grill.

The table was attractively decorated with red roses, lighted white tapers, place cards and the birthday cake which was decorated in a color scheme of pink and white.

A three course fried chicken dinner was served at seven o'clock. The birthday cake was served with ice cream.

Guests included the honoree, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Miss Adelaide Dail, Allen Moore Harris, Paul Allen and Arthur Joyner, Jr.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary held its April meeting at the home of the president, Miss Mamie Davis, which was lovely with spring flowers carrying out the Easter colors.

After the opening ritual a business discussion was held. Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt gave highlights from the recent District meeting. The Auxiliary voted to send two girls to Girls' State and made plans to assist with flowers and flags at the Memorial Day Service.

The Easter colors were further emphasized in the refreshments. Decorative cookies and sandwiches, stuffed dates, 1st biscuits and hot coffee were served.

Fountain Hostesses Honor Miss Franke

Mrs. G. E. Trevathan was hostess Saturday afternoon at an informal tea at her home, honoring her guest, Miss Ruth Franke, of Chicago, Ill., whose engagement to Earl Trevathan, Jr., was recently announced. Approximately 50 guests called during the afternoon.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Hardy Johnson. In the receiving line were the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. Williams Eagles, of Texas, Mrs. Leslie Newman, of Pendleton, Va., Mrs. Roy Parker and Miss Payne Sugg, of Hookerton.

Following musical selections by Mrs. Parker, of Charleston, S. C., pianist and Miss Payne Sugg, soloist, guests were invited into the dining room. The table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers, flanked by yellow tapers in silver candle holders.

Mrs. Hardy Johnson presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving dainty sandwiches, cookies and nuts were Mrs. M. E. Lane, Mrs. Lynwood Owens and Mrs. John Fountain.

Mrs. Trevathan presented gifts to each of her out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Hardy Johnson was hostess at dinner on Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Trevathan's house guests, Miss Franke, Mrs. Roy Parker, Miss Sugg and Mrs. Parker.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harris entertained at five tables of bridge, honoring Miss Franke. The home was decorated with lovely spring flowers.

High score prizes were awarded Miss Franke and Mr. Frank Owens. The honoree was also given an antique print.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Adrian Gardner and Mrs. R. A. Fountain, served fancy cakes and mold-ice cream.

Miss Franke was again honored Friday afternoon when Mrs. R. A. Fountain, Sr., was hostess at bridge. Cut flowers were used in the living rooms.

Following several progressions, Mrs. Fountain served her guests delicious cakes and bridal ice.

High score prize was awarded Mrs. E. B. Beasley. Mrs. Hardy Johnson received bingo prize. The honor guest was remembered with lovely linen handkerchiefs.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Copeland honored Miss Franke and Earl Trevathan, Jr., Tuesday evening at a barbecue dinner held in Goldsboro.

Continuing the lovely affairs continuing around Miss Ruth Franke, bride-elect, Mrs. G. W. Jefferson, Sr., and daughters, Mrs. Anthony Holland, Mrs. Paul Burnette, Miss Martha Jefferson and Mrs. G. W. Jefferson, Jr., entertained at dessert bridge and took.

Guests were invited into the dining-room, where Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Jr., served ice cream, molded as spring flowers, and Mrs. Carter Smith served angel cake.

High score prizes, nylon hose, were won by Miss Helen James, of Bethel, and Mr. J. W. Raddick.

The bride-elect was presented a covet silver vegetable dish.

Mrs. J. M. Horton and Miss Ann Horton were bridge hostesses in compliment to Miss Franke on Saturday evening.

The Easter idea was carried out in decorations in the living and dining rooms. At the conclusion of the games, prizes were awarded Miss Betty White Fountain, Mrs. Adrian Gardner and Mrs. Grady Wheeler.

A shower of handkerchiefs was presented the honoree.

Guests were then invited into the dining room where punch, cream puffs filled with chicken salad, cookies, sandwiches and nuts were served. They were joined at this time by the groom-elect and their husbands.
