

Mr. and Mrs. Voter, Read the Record

Four years ago Herbert C. Bonner was chosen to represent our District in Congress BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE VOTERS IN EVERY COUNTY IN THE DISTRICT.

During these four years, Herbert Bonner has fulfilled every expectation in the discharge of his duties as a Congressman. He loyally and faithfully supported every bill to further the war effort, and has worked untiringly to promote the well-being and welfare of the people of his District. Especially with regard to Agriculture, his efforts and accomplishments have been outstanding.

Herbert Bonner has been faithful to his trust. His record is beyond attack. Not once have his opponents dared to publicly attack or question his integrity or his judgment in matters affecting the public weal or interests of his people.

He supported and voted for the Case anti-strike bill which would curb the powers of John L. Lewis. For this vote he has been black-listed by Sidney Hillman's Political Action Committee, and by the C.I.O.

Are you willing to join hands with such organizations to defeat Herbert Bonner? Will you cast him aside and vote for a candidate who never has made a single contribution to the welfare of the people of this District?

Will you again choose a man who has fought your fight, or will you choose a stranger who has never taken the slightest interest in your economical problems until he became a candidate?

Will you take the record, or will you be deceived by glittering generalities and vague promises which mean nothing?

Read the record, Mr. and Mrs. Voter, and vote for the man who has served you well. Vote for HERBERT BONNER, the candidate of the average citizen.

CHURCH GROUPS MEET

Episcopal
The Episcopal Altar Guild met in regular session Tuesday evening with Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss as hostess.

The program opened with prayers followed by the creed. Mrs. Hotchkiss gave the program discussing "The Discipline of the Church." Members decided to make new linens for the altar by next meeting.

In a social period tea, fruit juice, cookies and nuts were served.

Methodist
Circle Four, of the Methodist Woman's Society, meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. Melton Allen as hostess, was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. C. H. Moringo. Mrs. J. C. Brock, Jr. was welcomed as a new member.

A devotional period was led by Mrs. E. C. Carr. Mrs. E. R. Clegg gave the program which was in keeping with Family Week.

Pansies and roses were used in lovely decoration of the home and the hostess served a congealed fruit salad course with coca-colas.

The May meeting of the Wesleyan Guild was held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Corinne Stillely. Mrs. Stuart Sugg, president, presided and Miss Bettie Joyner led the devotional.

Remnants of material, buttons and thread, donated by Guild members for Greek Relief, were collected. The president read a card from Mrs. Emily Bullock, district secretary, requesting the number of members expecting to attend the District Meeting of Wesleyan Service Guilds which will be held in Pinetops, Sunday afternoon, May 19th, at two o'clock. Mrs. Bullock also requested that the fall meeting be held in Farmville.

It was decided that at least one car will carry members to the meeting in Pinetops and that barring unforeseen difficulties the Farmville Wesleyan Guild will be hostess to the district in the fall.

Mrs. E. K. Clegg presented a most interesting program on "Children and World Peace," discussing at length the child's problem of readjustment in war-torn countries and the part that each of us must play in the business of learning to live together in love and peace.

A delightful social hour was enjoyed during which the hostess served a dessert course, consisting of fudge, royal ice cream, cakes and salted nuts.

Presbyterian
Presbyterian Circles held regular afternoon and evening meetings Monday, having as their Bible Study topic, "Seeking and Serving," based on verses from Isaiah 6. Programs explained the 3 fold Birthday objective of the annual Auxiliary Birthday observance being held this month in all Presbyterian Churches. Envelopes for a special offering were distributed. Following adjournment, social hours were enjoyed.

Circle 1 met with Mrs. J. C. Corbett. Mrs. George B. Moore, chairman, presided and Mrs. G. R. Smith offered the opening prayer. Mrs. J. M. Hobgood gave the Bible study and program. The hostess served ice cream and cookies.

Circle 2 met with the chairman, Mrs. Will Moore, Jr., with fourteen present. Mrs. William Easley led the devotional and Mrs. J. T. Nolan the program. Mrs. C. F. Baucum, Secretary of Spiritual Life, announced that Miss Lucy Steele, of Peace College, Raleigh, will conduct the local Auxiliary's intensive Bible Study on the Book of Isaiah on the evening of June 17th, in the church. Members of other congregations will be extended an invitation to hear Miss Steele who is well known as an outstanding speaker.

In the refreshment period, fruit jello, topped with cream, was served with cookies.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

An interesting meeting of the Farmville Home Demonstration Club was held Thursday afternoon of last week in the Clubhouse with Mrs. W. R. Hinson, Mrs. W. E. Falford and Mrs. C. G. Morgan as hostesses.

The program opened with the singing of "America the Beautiful," and reading of the collect. In a brief business period, Miss Verona Lee Joyner, Pitt County Home Demonstration Agent, thanked the club for its operation during Home Demonstration Club Week and gave some of the highlights of the week. She reported that the Farmville Club turned in 187 cans of food and 30 garments for overseas relief.

The study for the afternoon, "The Modern Farm Kitchen," was given in illustrated pictures.

During a delightful social hour, a chicken salad course was served with strawberry shortcake and an iced drink.
