

Social and Personals

Mrs. Robert Fields and son spent Monday night with relatives in Stan-tonburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt spent the past week end in Palmer Springs, Va., and Warrenton.

C. G. Rollins, of Raleigh, was the overnight guest of his mother, Mrs. W. J. Rollins, Tuesday.

Mrs. Madeline H. Rountree and Mrs. Lath Morriss were Kinston and Greenville visitors, Tuesday.

Mrs. Annie Flanagan and Mrs. Mamie Ruth Holloway spent Wednesday with Miss Helen Smith.

C. A. Tyson is a patient at Carolina General Hospital, Wilson. Mr. Tyson entered the hospital, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Joyner, Jr., of Greenville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Humphrey.

Mrs. Sidney A. Ward, of Plymouth, will arrive Sunday for a visit of several days with Mrs. G. Alex Rouse.

Miss Frances Howard, Mrs. Carol Modlin and Mrs. Lowell Liles were Richmond, Va., visitors, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mitchell, Jr., and daughter, Madeline Harrison, spent Wednesday with relatives here.

R. S. Scott spent a few days this week in Maryland attending the opening of the Maryland Tobacco market.

Mrs. Bruce Baker and little son, Fred, of Greenville, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. W. Jesse Moye.

Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner and Mrs. M. V. Jones spent the past week end in Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. H. Whitmore and Mrs. John Draughn, of Wilson, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pickett and children are leaving Monday for an extended visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lee and children, Gordon Tilghman and Edith Ann, spent Sunday with relatives in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Farbow and son, of Alexandria, Va., spent Saturday and Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Paul E. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith of Roanoke Rapids were Sunday guests of Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. W. H. Duke, and Mr. Duke.

Lt. and Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, Jr., and daughter, Kay, returned to Morehead City, Monday, after a visit with Mrs. W. J. Teel.

Mrs. Chester Outland and son, Chester, Jr., have returned to Lexington after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Nichols.

Lt. Bert S. Smith, Jr., U.S.N.R., who has been stationed in Naples, Italy, for the past year, is expected to return to the States during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Moore Harris returned during the week end from their wedding trip through western North Carolina, parts of Tennessee and Virginia.

Haywood Smith, Leonard Joyner, Ed Nash Warren and Joseph Joyner attended the annual N. C. Fire College and Drill School held in Charlotte this week.

Miss Ann Turnage, student at Flora McDonald College, will arrive today for a short vacation before entering summer school at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson.

Mrs. Allen Drake will leave Saturday to join her husband who has been visiting in Tennessee. After a short stay with relatives in Carthage they will return to their home here.

Bill Meriton spent Thursday in Durham and was accompanied home by his aunt, Mrs. Kate Reynolds who has been undergoing examination for an eye ailment at Duke Hospital.

Captain R. H. Baker, of the United States Air Corps, with headquarters at Memphis Municipal Airport, Memphis, Tenn., spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Pearl H. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley T. Skomski and little son, James Michiel, returned to their home in Medina, New York, Tuesday after a visit with Mrs. Skomski's sister, Mrs. W. C. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hodges, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worthington, of Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Worthington, of Ayden, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Norville.

O. E. Staras, of Asheville, spent a week here recently as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith. Staras and Smith were roommates at Davidson College prior to their entering service three years ago and had not seen each other since that time. Staras has just returned from overseas.

CALENDAR

Monday, May 27

3:00 P. M.—Ballards Home Demonstration Club meets with Mrs. L. E. Jones.

8:30 P. M.—Garden Club meets with Mrs. Charles H. Moxingo.

7:00 P. M.—Kiwanis Club.

8:00 P. M.—Group 1, Christian Woman's Council, meets with Mrs. J. Berry Taylor.

8:00 P. M.—Group 4, Christian Woman's Council, meets with Mrs. L. E. Jones.

Tuesday, 28

10:00 A. M.—Communion Service at Episcopal Church, opening meeting of the District Get-together group, Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary. Luncheon for the group will be served at 1:00 o'clock in the DAR Chapter House.

10:30 A. M.—Executive Committee, Baptist Woman's Missionary Society, meets in the home of Mrs. Henry Johnson.

2:30 P. M.—Sever Pine Home Demonstration Club meets with Mrs. Ben Atkinson.

7:00 P. M.—Rotary Club.

7:00 P. M.—Woodmen of the World.

8:00 P. M.—Boy Scouts.

8:00 P. M.—Community Planning Board meets.

8:00 P. M.—Group 3, Christian Woman's Council, meets with Mrs. Charles M. Duke.

8:30 P. M.—Altar Guild, Episcopal, meets with Mrs. Will Jones, Jr.

Wednesday, 29

3:00 P. M.—New Deal Club meets with Mrs. L. E. Walston.

8:00 P. M.—Group 2, Christian Woman's Council, meets with Mrs. Arch J. Flanagan.

Thursday, 30

MEMORIAL DAY.

10:00 A. M.—Hit and Miss Club, at the Country Club.

8:30 P. M.—Girl Scouts.

Friday, 31

7:00 P. M.—Country Club Supper, final feature of annual spring golf tournament.

Saturday, June 1

10:00 A. M.—Bird Club.

TONIGHT!

8:00 P. M.—Final Event of School closing. Program includes Parent-Teacher Association Meeting, Patriotic Pageant by the Grammar Grades, Presentation of Awards. Reception to be held in the new quarters of the Lunch Room.

TOMORROW!

Democratic Primary Day.

6:30 A. M.—6:30 P. M.—Voting will take place at the Fire Station, 119 North Main Street.

8:00 P. M.—Supper Dance Club at the Country Club.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

Members of the cast of the Sophomore play and their friends were entertained at a lovely informal reception given by Mrs. R. S. Scott and Mrs. M. V. Jones, grade-mothers for Mrs. J. B. Joyner's home room, following the performance Friday evening.

The Jones home, scene of the affair, was decorated throughout with a quantity of early summer flowers in artistic arrangements. Fudge, royal ice cream, chocolate cake and salted nuts were served.

Thirty-five young people attended. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis.

BRIDGE HOSTESS

The Wednesday Afternoon Club enjoyed a lovely meeting this week when Mrs. Robert Lee Smith was hostess entertaining at her home in which larkspur, ragged robins and sweetpeas were used in decorative arrangements.

In the three progressions of contract Mrs. T. S. Ryon scored high among members, winning a crystal bowl and Mrs. M. V. Horton was presented the guest high award, a brandy glass.

Following play the hostess served marshmallow salad, ham biscuits, pickles and iced tea. Special guests included Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Walter B. Jones and Mrs. W. S. Royster.

LAMRAD CLUB

Mrs. James Y. Monk, Jr., graciously entertained the Lamrad Club at its final meeting of the season Friday afternoon at her home. Additional guests were Mrs. James R. Lang, Mrs. T. S. Ryon and Mrs. Frank K. Allen, who compiled top score in the three progressions.

Red, blue and pink garden flowers were used in lovely decoration in the reception rooms. Refreshing cocktails were served with a variety of party sandwiches and pickles, ham biscuits and brownies.

Mrs. E. V. Fiser succeeds Mrs. Ted L. Albritton as president of the Club. Meetings will be resumed in the early fall.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Loys Jones announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Dell, to Willard Corbett Pleasant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marian Benton Pleasant, of Angier.

ALFRED B. MOORE HURT

Alfred B. Moore suffered painful injuries Thursday afternoon when the tractor which he was operating at his farm near here overturned. Mr. Moore was taken immediately to Pitt General Hospital, Greenville. First X-rays and examination showed cracked ribs. It is reported that barring complications Mr. Moore's recovery will be rapid.

AT WAREHOUSEMEN'S MEET

Farmville warehousemen attending the Eastern Carolina Warehousemen Association's annual session held at the Country Club in Kinston Wednesday of last week were James Y. Monk, Jr., Grover H. Webb, Robert Rouse, John Fountain and Jack Moye.

Monk was named to the board of directors of the E. C. Warehousemen's Association and J. C. Carlton, also a local warehouseman, was named to the board of governors of the Bright Belt Association.

ON USS MISSOURI

Jasper Allen Hobgood, 18, fireman, second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hobgood, Route 2, Farmville, N. C., was assigned to the USS Missouri on April 23.

Hobgood reported to the vessel from the Naval Training Center, Norfolk, Va., where he received recruit training. He entered Naval service on Feb. 5.

Making memorial poppies to honor their fallen comrades gives disabled veterans the encouraging experience of again earning money, helps occupy empty days in hospitals, and speeds veterans recovery. The poppies will be distributed on the streets by the women of the American Legion Auxiliary on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 25.

Farmville Baseball Club Announces Games
— 3:00 P. M. —
Saturday, May 25
— in —
FARMVILLE.
Sunday, May 26
— in —
PINETOPS.

Buy Savings Bonds Now And Save

POPPY DAY PLANS FEATURE LEGION AUXILIARY MEET

The American Legion Auxiliary met Thursday of last week in the Legion Hall and centered its program around the Poppy.

Mrs. P. E. Jones, chairman of Poppy Day Activities, outlined completed plans for the sale of 1,000 poppies here on Saturday, May 25th.

"Significance of the Poppy" was given by Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt. Poems, "Flanders Field" and "A Poppy For Remembrance" were read by Mrs. Bennett R. Fields and Mrs. Louise D. Harris.

It was announced that plans have been made for the Auxiliary to send one girl to Girls' State.

In an enjoyable social hour the hostesses, Mrs. Fields and Mrs. J. Frank Harper, served ice cream, cookies and toasted nuts.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Etta Frances Harper celebrated her 19th birthday anniversary, Saturday evening, at a lovely surprise party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Harper.

Games of croquet were enjoyed on the lawn which was lighted for the occasion. For refreshments guests were invited into the dining-room of the home. The lighted birthday cake, decorated in a pink and white color scheme, centered the table on which the honoree's gifts were arranged.

Home-made strawberry ice cream was served with the cake. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith, Miss Jane Greene, Warren Palmer and James Yates.

LANG'S COMMUNITY TO HOLD REVIVAL

Rev. Jack Tyson will hold a revival meeting beginning June 3rd in the Farmville Home Demonstration clubhouse on the Fountain Highway. Services will be held at 8:15 each night through Friday, June 7th. The public is invited to attend.

Also, during this week, there will be a vacation Bible School each morning at 9:30. All children and young people from 4 years up are invited and urged to attend. Two young men from Duke University will be present to conduct the school assisted by the teachers of Lang's Sunday School.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT IS OF INTEREST HERE

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Windham, of Petersburg, Virginia, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lula Pell Rouse, to Mr. George Stanley Hamflaway, of Saint Louis, Missouri, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hannaway of that city.

Miss Windham, who graduated from State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia, in 1940, has just received her discharge from the U. S. Naval Reserve after having served as an officer in the WAVES for the past two years.

Mr. Hannaway received his bachelors degree in Chemical Engineering from Yale University in 1940 and his masters degree from Washington University in Saint Louis, in 1944. He was discharged recently after two years of service as an officer in the U. S. Naval Reserve. The date of the wedding has been set for June the twenty-ninth. Miss Windham is a niece of Mrs. Ed Jones and Mr. G. W. Windham of this city.

WHAT'S NEW AT ROBERT'S

Beautiful Selection of flatware, composites, candle holders, mint and nut dishes, salt and pepper, children's cups, and table settings in STERLING.

Lovely Patterns in Community Pate and Roger's Bros. 1847.

Exquisite designs in Rosemore and Georgian China; Cranberry Thumb Print, Laurel, and Tropic Rose Crystal.

Appealing graduation gifts, and many other gift selections are arriving daily. (Adv.)

Buy "Savings Bonds" Have! Hold!

Eat
ROAST
TURKEY
SUNDAY
At THE Royal Grill
"We Strive To Please"

Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Baptist
The Y.W.A., met Monday evening with Mrs. Linwood Brock as hostess. "O, Zion Haste" was chosen as the devotional hymn. Scriptures from Psalm 106 was read by Mrs. Herbert Moore.

Episcopal
Mrs. James R. Lang, president, presided at the Woman's Auxiliary meeting Monday afternoon in the church and conducted the devotional period. Members were reminded of the District Get-Together meeting scheduled for May 28th in the local church.

Christian
A special program will be presented Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Farmville Christian Church, by Lang's 4-H Club, in observance of National 4-H Sunday. All members of the club will take part.

Presbyterians Annual Birthday Observance
The Presbyterian Auxiliary held its 34th Birthday anniversary meeting Monday evening at the church, with Mrs. John M. Newborn, president, presiding and explaining the three birthday objectives.

A special offering was received which will go towards a chapel for the Italian Mission in Kansas City, Mo., a new plant for the Chinese Mission in New Orleans, La., and for relief of Christians and re-establishment of church life in Europe and Asia.

Mrs. George B. Moore read verses from the 90th Psalm after which Mrs. J. C. Corbett led in prayer. Mrs. William Easley spoke on "Why I Am A Protestant." It was announced that Miss Lucy Steele of Peace College, Raleigh, will conduct a special study here June 17.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Baptist
Rev. Leonard Middleton, Roanoke Association missionary, will fill the pulpit Sunday morning for the 11 o'clock service.
On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Dr. Talmadge C. Johnson, of Raleigh, will speak.

Change in Personnel
Robert's Jewelers have announced that Miss Jane Greene has been made manager of the local store and that Mrs. Mack Carraway has accepted a position with this firm as saleslady.

GOLFING NEWS

Twenty-three Greenville golfers were on hand for tournament play here Wednesday afternoon and defeated the local men by a score of 55-55.
Farmville golfers winning 3 and 2 points included Flier and Roy Newborn, Sr., 3 points; House, Bradham, Taylor, Copenhagen, Pollard, Martin, Royster and Bernice Turnage, 3 points each.
A chicken barbecue dinner was served in the club lounge prior to the tee off. Ike Pollard was Captain of the Day.

Seventeen Farmville men reported for a make-up game in Rocky Mount, Saturday. Next week local players will go to Kinston. L. E. Walston will be in charge of arrangements.
Many a girl who puts up a swell front in society is flat busted at home.

Friday & Saturday!
Beautiful Ruffled CURTAINS
• 2½ YARDS LONG •
$3.98
BELK-TYLER CO.
"Farmville's Shopping Center"

THE COMFORTS OF HOME

Outstanding Examples of Our Good Sofas and Chairs

- A Dallas Sofa, fully upholstered, all spring construction, good tapestry covers..... $109.50
- A Fogle Sofa, Duncan Phife design, broad front panel decorations, tapestry cover with neutral background and large floral design..... $128.50
- A Globe Sofa, gooseneck arms, flowered tapestry cover, will fit into any color scheme..... $159.00
- A Tomlinson Sofa, mahogany, hair filled, springhair Cushions, heavy, tapestry cover in beautiful subdued pattern..... $248.50

This is only a few of the large stock of smart New Sofas we now display on our floors. Come in and see them and also see including Gainsborough's, Barrell Backs, Wingbacks, Channel Backs, Platform Rockers, etc. All in newest patterns and covers.

A BIG LINE OF ODD CHAIRS

WE INVITE YOU TO SEE
Our complete and varied lines of Livingroom Furniture that includes two and three piece Suites, Sofas and Odd Chairs, Tables, Pictures and Mirrors.

FARMVILLE FURNITURE CO.
(FASHION SHOP FOR THE HOME)