JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FINAL MEETING

The Junior Woman's Club completed its club year's activities with the final meeting of the season held Tuesday evening when Mrs. Theodore T. Moore was a gracious hostess.

Mrs. E. T. Williams, retiring president, presided and announced that a recent cake sale, sponsored by the club for benefit of Girl Scouts, netted thirty dollars. Mrs. Williams re-appointed Mrs. W. Jesse Moye to represent the club another year on the Community Planning Board.

Mrs. M. E. Pollard brought interesting highlights from the recent State Federation of Women's Clubs annual convention held at the Greensboro College. She spoke of Early Childhood Training and Youth Conservation which were stressed throughout the convention program.

She informed members that the club was publicly commended for its Tiny Tots Playground Project and received a certificate for scoring 100 per cent in all of its Federation ratings.

Mrs. Pollard also told of the presentation of Miss Annie Perkins in recognition of her splendid record as a teacher and as a clubwoman, the presentation of Mrs. W. Jesse Moye, as president of the 18th District and announced that Miss Helen Rouse, of Farmville, WCUNC graduate, appeared on Friday morning's program as soloist.

Mrs. Howard Moye, point system chairman, presented a gift of stationery to Mrs. W. Jesse Moye who had made the highest number of points during the year's work. In a contest other members were given an opportunity to receive a gift for their service. Miss Margaret Smith won out and was given a novelty pitcher.

Mrs. Williams gave her yearly report after which she presented the gavel to Mrs. J. T. Nolan, incoming president, who spoke briefly in acceptance of her new office and in appreciation of Mrs. Williams' service. In behalf of the members Mrs. Frank K. Allen presented Mrs. Williams with a compact.

Mrs. Nolan appointed Mrs. Allen and Mrs. M. E. Pollard chairmen for the club's summer get-together in July.

A quantity of lovely seasonal flowers in both mixed and single arrangements decorated the home and, in the social hour, ice cream topped with crushed pineapple and cherries was served with caramel cake and salted nuts.

Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. Malcolm Hardy, Mrs. Edison Moore, Mrs. Roland Sauls and Mrs. Sam Bundy.

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club and special guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Haywood Smith, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Church Street. Artistic arrangements of summer flowers graced the living and music rooms.

The meeting was opened with the singing of The Club Woman's Hymn and followed by a brief business period during which it was announced that Mrs. Herbert Hart could not accept the presidency of the club for the year 1946-1947. Miss Elizabeth Davis was unanimously elected to this place. Members were also informed that the English Prize ($5.00), awarded by the club each year to the High School student showing the most improvement in English, was won, by Lehman Tyndall.

Mrs. Henrietta Williamson, program chairman for the afternoon, then introduced her program guests, talented girls from Walstonburg, and their teacher, Mrs. Carlos Walston. Recitations, "Dark Victory" and "Parlance In A Modern Apartment," were given by Miss Margaret Fields and Miss Doris Wheeler, after which, accompanied by Mrs. Walston, they sang, as a duet, Liszt's "A Love Dream." Miss Ruth Moore, of Farmville, beautifully rendered two piano selections by Chopin, "Nocturne" and "The Polonaise."

A most interesting report of the State Convention, recently held in Greensboro, was given by Miss Tabitha M. DeVilscanti. Very briefly she touched on the outstanding speakers and artists, Mark Hoffman, Dean of Music at Greensboro College, who gave piano selections; Mrs. Carol Belle Williams in "Historical Character Sketches"; Miss Harriet Elliott, Dean of W.C.U.N.C., whose message urged the women "to recognize spiritual responsibility and cultivate the science of human relationship"; Senator Hoey; Dr. I. G. Greer, President of the Thomasville Orphanage, who brought a stirring message on "Youth In The Home And Community"; and Mrs. Lafell Dickinson, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who spoke with pride and appreciation of the work of the Federation.

Miss Tabitha said early in the meeting "our Miss Annie Perkins" had been recognized and invited to sit on the stage. She was later introduced to the Convention by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood who informed her audience that Miss Annie had been a member of the Federation for some forty years, had served as Recording Secretary of the North Carolina Federation, as well as President of the Sixteenth District and that she is now serving on the Loan Committee of the Sallie Southall Cotten Loan Fund.

After adjournment the hostess served blocked cake and home-made pineapple ice cream. Special guests were Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Mrs. E. R. Clegg, Mrs. Bennett Fields, Mrs. Carlos Walston, Misses Margaret Fields, Doris Wheeler and Ruth Moore.

Additional guests of Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Robert Wheelock, Mrs. Arch Flanagan, Mrs. A. B. Tyson, Mrs. Curtis Flanagan and Mrs. Blanche Paschall, who were invited to call at six o'clock.

KINDERGARTEN CLASS PRESENTS PROGRAM

Mrs. Florence Thorne presented the following members of her Kindergarten Class in a program given on Tuesday evening in the High School auditorium, Alex Allen, Brenda Barrett, Beth Baker, Magalene Bialock, Johnny Dixon, Jean Farr, Kathrine Gardner, Bobby Ray Harper, David Harris, Donita Hedgepeth, Richard Joyner, Betsy Ann King, Linda Mewborn, Linda Murphrey, Hadley Morgan, Henri Perle Johnson, Gus Roebuck, Jacquelin Nolan and Jo Ann Gregg could not attend because of sickness.

Henri, Perle Johnson opened the program with a Welcome followed by Greetings and an Evening Prayer, sung by all the children.

All took part in the Springtime playlet and were most entertaining in their frolicsome portrayal of rabbits, butterflies, bees, roses, lilies, daisies, and pansies. Brenda Barrett, as queen, recited fitting poetry. The scene closed with songs, Our Thoughts Are Like the Flowers and Now We'll Crown Our Queen of May.

A group of recitations and songs were given with children dressed as spring birds, red birds, blue birds and robins, with Johnny Mewborn appearing as "Young Robin" and as clowns, maids, policemen, etc.

A large and enthusiastic audience enjoyed the performance of the class which held their rapt attention throughout. The children were indeed attractive in each part, and their antics both planned and impromptu were highly entertaining.

GIRL SCOUT PROGRAM AND DANCE RECITAL HELD FRIDAY EVENING

An appreciative audience was present at the High School Auditorium Friday evening of last week for the Girl Scout program and dance recital which was both impressive and entertaining.

The program began with the Inauguration Ceremony for new troop members. This was explained by Mrs. J. Mack Carraway, Scout leader. Following this, all of the scouts marched on stage in full dress uniform and were presented their badges and pins by Mrs. J. M. Mewborn, assistant leader.

The girls gave a splendid performance in the two plays presented, Buzzie's Babies by Troop 2, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Jones, and The Fatal Quest by Troop 1 under the direction of Mrs. Carraway and Mrs. James Lang. Both the girls and their leaders appreciate the interest and cooperation shown by the public in aid prior to the performance and in attendance, and heartily thank J. H. Moore for his complete cooperation.

In conclusion, Mrs. Belle Himmant, of Wilson, presented her Farmville pupils in a dance recital. A variety of specialty numbers were presented by the eight young people, who were most attractively costumed for each part.

Mrs. R. T. Williams, Scout Leader, announces that $27.06 was cleared and will be placed in a bank account to be used for Girl Scout Materials.

An OPA police force of 800 men is now investigating the activities of the nation's 26,000 known meat slaughterers.
