CHURCH GROUPS MEET

Methodist
Circle four, of the Methodist Society, met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. C. Carr as hostess, and Mrs. E. L. Barrett in charge of devotional. Mrs. Ray West, of Walsenburg, was welcomed as a guest. Mrs. Leon Little gave the Missionary topic, using as her subject for discussion, "Have You Tried Prayer?" During the business period, the time of the meetings was changed from 3:30 P. M. to 4:00 P. M., during the summer months.

Dahlias, snapdragons and nasturtiums were used in lovely decoration throughout the home. The hostess served ice cream, block cake and salted nuts during the refreshment hour.

Methodist
The Wesleyan Guild met Monday evening, for its final meeting before September, with Mrs. Allen Moore Harris. A social hour was enjoyed before the meeting, during which, the hostess served ice cream, devil's food cake and salted nuts.

Mrs. Stuart Sugg, president, presided and Miss Jane Greene led the devotional. Miss Bettie Joyner gave an interesting report on the district meeting of Wesleyan Service Guilds, which she attended in Pinetops on May 19.

The president distributed cards and wrapping paper to be sold by the members during the summer. It was announced that the Guild will hold a refreshment hour at the Bible School, with Miss Bettie Joyner and Miss Bertha Lang in charge, on Friday morning.

The first meeting in the fall will be held with the president, Mrs. Stuart Sugg.

Presbyterian
Presbyterian Circles held regular afternoon and evening meetings, Monday, using as their Bible study topic, "Caring for Others," based on Isaiah. The subject, "Home Mission's Presbytery Synod Assembly" was used for the programs.

Circle 1 met with Mrs. W. C. Holston. Mrs. George B. Moore, chairman, presided and opened the meeting with a prayer. Mrs. J. M. Hobbard gave the Bible Study and Mrs. L. T. Pierce the program. The hostess served lemon Klique and salted nuts.

Circle 2 met with Mrs. Harry Harper, with eight members present and two visitors. The meeting opened with a prayer by Mrs. S. M. Ewell. Mrs. Will Moore, Jr., chairman, presided and presented the program and Mrs. William Easley gave the Bible study.

During the refreshment period the hostess served ice cream and cookies.

Episcopal
The Episcopal Altar Guild met, Tuesday evening, with Mrs. James R. Lang as hostess. Summer flowers were used in pleasing arrangements in the Lang home.

Mrs. Tommy Ryan, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, presented plans sponsoring a hostess party for the demonstration of home products, by an agent, on Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. John D. Dixon and at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Miss Margaret Smith.

The hostess, as program leader, reviewed the concluding chapter of "The Sacraments of the Church."

Following adjournment, sandwiches, cup cakes, salted nuts and an iced beverage were served.

Christian
The Woman's Council of the Christian Church held a mission study class Monday evening at the church, with twenty-eight members present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Ted L. Albritton, the past-president, Mrs. A. C. Turnage presided and introduced Mrs. W. Jesse Moys, who gave an interesting review of the book, "Cross Over Africa." The book was written by a Methodist Bishop, Newell S. Booth, from actual experience. As a foreword, the author stated he had seen just how much the Cross had meant to Africa and just how much it could mean.

In the book, he discussed some of the suffering Africa has undergone, such as; slavery, excessive toll and the fact that the African has become almost a stranger in his own land. The African has always had to bear the cross of race, but, since Christianity has gone in the African has seen in the light that comes from the Cross—A teacher, A Friend, A Brother and the Son of God.

Bishop Booth states in his book that in World Wars I and II it was never revealed that Africa was not seen in the relation to the rest of the world. He also told of the contribution Africa makes to the world's living; first, in the economic sense, as well as her social, cultural and religious work.

In closing, the author urged that the world make fair return for Africa's important contributions and made a plea for missionary workers, and funds to carry on the work.

In the social hour, refreshments, consisting of ice cream, chocolate cake and salted nuts were served by Mrs. Louise Harris and Mrs. J. H. Paylor. Sweetpeas were used on each plate for decoration.

STATE COLLEGE ANSWERS TIMELY FARM QUESTIONS

QUESTION: Is the new, successful pasture and hay seed, Ladino clover, hard to get?

ANSWER: No; virtually all seed dealers and farmers' cooperative exchanges have adequate supplies of this important clover. If there is trouble locating a supply of seed, the county agent normally has information about where it can be obtained.

QUESTION: What is the rule for home storage of tomatoes for winter use?

ANSWER: Any tomato which is pulled green (as those for winter storage must be) is of lower quality than tomatoes which are allowed to ripen on the vine. However, tomatoes for winter use should be planted about the first of August in order to fully mature by October 1-15. Tomatoes will withstand a light frost but should be gathered before any freeze occurs. They may be wrapped individually and stored in a dark dark place. Normally they may be kept only until January 1 to 15. They may then be unwrapped and brought into a warm, sunny place to ripen as needed.

QUESTION: Will cotton ginner conferences be held this year?

ANSWER: Yes. The schedule for ginner conferences is: Laurinburg, June 10; Wadesboro, June 11; Charlotte, June 12; Shelby, June 13; Statesville, June 14; Lumberton, June 21; Smithfield, June 24; Clinton, June 25; Lillington, June 26; Tarboro, June 27; Goldsboro, June 28; Halifax, July 1; Jackson, July 2.
