A woman seldom gives the man the benefit of any doubt.

People don't grow old together, they just grow mean together.

It takes a lot of thought and effort and downright determination to be agreeable.

When if ever will the good old slogan "the customer is always right" come back?

Some women don't mean the mean things they say; but some do, and you know it.

I knew a farmer once who said he wouldn't trade his wife for any horse he ever saw.

Hint. Watch out for collapse of prices that are high and be careful when you buy.

Those who refuse to support the organized churches should let the world know what they have that is better.

Cook vegetables in little water and do not throw that water down the sink, put it in the soup pot, national farm nutritionists say.

The new upward adjustment of dairy prices by OPA favors the production of milk as opposed to the manufacture of milk products.

North Carolina, one of the original 13 states, is again one of the original 13 states now participating in a campaign to prevent fires and keep forests green.

Cotton state congressmen predict that Congress will extend the government's cotton purchasing program —at not less than parity—for the 1946 lint crop.

RESOLUTIONS MEMORIALIZING JOHN T. THORNE

Whereas John T. Thorne, a beloved and highly esteemed citizen of our community, has for many years been a member of the Rotary Club of Farmville, it is with a profound feeling of sorrow that we record his passing, and it is with deep appreciation of a life filled with service to his fellowman that we record his achievements.

John Thorne was ever a good Rotarian. He truly lived its motto "Service above self—He profits most who serves best." In all the relationships of life he was of stalwart character, unimpeachable honor and versatile accomplishment. His work among us will ever be remembered, and his genuine love for his fellow-man will rest as a benediction upon those who were privileged to know him.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Farmville Rotary Club deeply mourns the passing of its beloved member, John T. Thorne, and wishes to express to his family its sincerest sympathy and heartfelt condolences during these days.

Be it further resolved that this Rotary Club in meeting assembled, stand and reverently pay silent tribute to his beloved memory; that a copy of these Resolutions be mailed to the bereaved family, and a copy of them be spread on the Minutes of this meeting, and a copy sent to The Enterprise for publication.

Respectfully presented,
Eli Joyner, Jr.,
R. LeRoy Rollins,
Irvin Morgan,
Committee.
