Yates-Greene Vows Are Spoken in Methodist Church

Tea Honors Mrs. Langley; Lovely Parties Continue to Pete Misses Howard and Harper

A wedding, characterized by dignity and simplicity, was solemnized at the Farmville Methodist Church, Tuesday afternoon, August 28, at four o'clock, when Miss Mary Frances Greene became the bride of James Matthew Yates, of Whiteville. The Rev. E. R. Clegg, pastor of the Church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Pedestal baskets of white gladioli and Oregon fern, flanked by floor standards of cathedral candles, were used as a setting for the wedding scene.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Haywood Smith, organist, played a program of nuptial selections, including "Cavatina" by Raffi, "Pathetique," from Symphony 6, by Tschaiakowsky, "Dreams," by Bizet, "Songs Without Words," by Thome, and "Cantata Amerosa" by Nevin. Mrs. Clarence Moyer, soprano, of Maury, sang "Because," by d'Harlelot, and "Oh Promise Me," by deKoven. The traditional wedding marches were used and "Liebestraum," by Liszt was softly played while the vows were spoken. Lutkin's "Benediction" was played on the carillon bells as an echo of the Church's blessing, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played on the bells also.

The bride and bridegroom entered the Church together, unattended. The bride wore a navy crepe dress in the autumnal mode with draped skirt and waist fastening at the side. Her matching off-the-face hat was trimmed with self-color taffeta bows; white gloves were elbow length and accessories were navy. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls. She wore orchids tied with ribbons in two shades of lavender.

Ushers were W. Morris Greene, of Newport News, Va., a brother of the bride, and John C. Parker.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Algie Jackson Greene, wore a midnight blue dress of sheer crepe and a corsage of white roses.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. James Norman Yates, of Dunn, chose a beige dress and wore a corsage of red roses at her shoulder.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Yates left for a wedding trip to Western North Carolina. Upon their return, they will be at home in Whiteville.

Mrs. Yates, a young woman of much personal beauty and of attractive personality, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Algie Jackson Greene. She was graduated from Farmville High School. For the past several months she has held the position of Manager of Robert's Jewelry store here.

Mr. Yates, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Norman Yates, of Dunn, attended the Dunn schools. He was a former manager of the Paramount theatre here. He is now manager of the Columbus and Madison theatres in Whiteville.

Mrs. Yates has been extended numerous pre-nuptial social courtesies since announcement of her engagement in July.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding included: Mrs. James Norman Yates, Perry Reavis and Wade Drake, of Dunn; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Swan and son, Tommy, Jr., and Mrs. Stencil Bowles, of Fayetteville; Mrs. M. L. Eason Jr., and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Morris Greene, and George Hancock, of Newport News, Va.; Mrs. C. E. Dodson, of Asheboro; Mrs. L. L. Hardy and Miss Sue Taylor of Maury.

Among the largest and loveliest social events of the week was a tea given by Mrs. Chester L. Langley, on Friday afternoon, at the Country Club, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter J. Langley, of Ayden, who expects to reside here soon.

The Club lounge was beautifully decorated with mixed arrangements of summer flowers, in which shades of yellow predominated.

Mrs. Elbert C. Holmes greeted the Miss Janie Kemp, Miss Edna Earl Holloman, of Weldonburg, Joe and Billy Gregory were guests last week at a houseparty given by Miss Peggy Shenson, of Elizabeth City, at her summer cottage at Nags Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shearin are visiting Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Chambliss at Wilmington this week and Mr. Shearin is assisting the Rev. Mr. Chambliss with the music in a revival which he is conducting at Burgaw.

Conspicuous waste, once the symbol of personal wealth and prosperity, is now the mark of an unpatriotic waston.
