Small Boy: Say, Mister, was you ever a small boy? Grocer: Why, certainly. Small Boy: And did you ever visit the woodshed with your Pop? Grocer (sympathetically): Yes, yes, lad. I know. Small Boy: And after your Pop had finished tamin' you, did you ever make vow that if you ever had the chance, you'd do all you could to stop such injustice to little boys. Grocer: (reaching for his handkerchief): Yes, lad, I did, I did, many a time. Small Boy: Well, I want 5 pounds of sugar, and I've lost the money.
