Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Baptist

On Monday afternoon, the Woman's Missionary Society meeting, held at the Church, was opened by the singing of "I Love To Tell The Story." Mrs. R. T. Williams gave the devotional taken from I Timothy and Matthew, after which Mrs. E. W. Holmes and Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins developed the missionary topic, "The Christian Foundation for the Good Neighbor Policy."

The president, Mrs. Alfred Moore, presided and announced the State Mission Program to be held during the week of September 16-20. The meeting was adjourned by the singing of a hymn and a prayer by Mrs. Manly Liles.

The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Holmes, Mrs. F. A. Williams, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mrs. C. W. Morris, Mrs. W. H. Fisher and Miss Mamie Davis, served ice cream sundaes and black chocolate cake, during the social hour.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary met Monday evening, at 8:00 o'clock, with Mrs. Herbert Moore as hostess and Miss Elvira Tyson presiding. The meeting was opened with the Y. W. A. Watchword. Mrs. Frank Joyner conducted the devotional period.

The president, Miss Tyson, developed the program theme of "Inter-American Ties of Faith," with Mrs. Henry Johnson and Mrs. Robert P. Wheelass assisting.

Plans were made for a World Relief Offering and the report of the sending of a box of clothing to a needy French family was given at this time.

The meeting was closed with prayer by the president.

During the social hour, cake, topped with ice cream, chocolate sauce and nuts, was served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. W. Miller and Mrs. A. J. Melton, as program leaders, presented "A Christian Foundation for the Good Neighbor Policy" at the Annie Perkins Circle meeting, on Tuesday night, held at the Church with Mrs. Robert Joyner as hostess.

Mrs. George W. Davis developed the Bible study from I Timothy 1:1-7 and Matthew 22:35-40. After Mrs. E. W. Holmes gave thoughts on the state mission fields, a season of prayer was held for these missions.

Mrs. Maurice Brinson was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. E. W. Holmes as a guest. Following the meeting, the hostess served peaches with whipped cream and cake.

Christian

Mrs. Ted Albritton presided over the Woman's Council held at the Church on Monday afternoon. In the business session which followed the hymn, "Open Mine Eyes That I May See," and The Lord's Prayer, all members were urged to attend a meeting to be held at Bethel Church on September 19. Mrs. Louise Harris led the devotionals.

Group 4, which had charge of the program, presented a short playlet entitled "The Christian and the Races" with Mrs. Z. B. T. Cox, Miss Sybil Barrett, and Mrs. C. L. Ivey taking the parts.

Following the singing of "Stand Up For Jesus," the meeting was closed with the Council Benediction.

Episcopal

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver was hostess to the Episcopal-Auxiliary, on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. W. R. Burnett presiding. After the opening of the meeting with prayer and Scripture reading by the president, the report of the United Thank Offering sent during August, was given by the custodian, Mrs. J. H. Darden.

Mrs. Burnette told of sending in a report on Christian Social Relations. A letter was read from the diocesan president regarding contributions for a boys' dormitory in the Philippines. A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, and Mrs. J. W. Joyner, was appointed at this time.

"They Found the Church There" by Henry Van Dyke, under the chapter topic of "The Rear Command" was presented by Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, as program leader. Miss Anne L.

Jones was welcomed as a new member. During the social hour, sandwiches, cookies pickles and coffee were served by the hostess.

Methodist

The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, met Monday afternoon, in the Church, with Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt presiding. The meeting was opened with the singing of "Saviour, Like A Shepherd Lead Us." Mrs. E. R. Clegg was in charge of the devotional period. Mrs. Lynn Eason, program leader, discussed "Methodists in the Country," telling of work done on John's Island, near Charleston, and in the rural areas of the plateau regions of Tennessee. Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, secretary of Youth, Mrs. Ed Nash Warren, secretary of Children's Work, and Mrs. Bennett R. Fields, secretary of Education, were selected to represent this organization at the Fall Seminar to be held in Elm City this month.

The Mission Study Class of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service completed a study of its fall subject, "The Cross Over Africa" at two evening meetings held this week with Mrs. Herbert E. Hart and Mrs. Mack Carraway, as leaders, and Miss Betty Joyner conducting the devotional exercises.

The meeting on Monday evening was held at the home of Mrs. Bertha J. Gardner with the Society president, Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, and the Mission Study chairman, Mrs. Bennett R. Fields as hostesses. The meditation, on "The Christian Home—Marys and Marthas" was presented by Miss Joyner, and Mrs. Herbert Hart reviewed half of the mission study book. There were 22 members in attendance. During the social hour, the hostesses served jello, topped with cream, pineapple and cherries, and black cake.

Circle No. 4 acted as hostess to the Class, Tuesday evening, at which time the meeting was held in the home of the chairman, Mrs. Charles H. Moringo. A total of 26 members was in attendance. Miss Joyner's meditation was based on the subject, "Let Your Light Shine." Mrs. Carraway completed the Mission Study book at this time. Fruit punch, sandwiches and salted nuts were served after adjournment.
