BIRD NOTES

The Rev. Z. B. T. Cox accompanied the Bird Club members on a hike and picnic in the woods on Saturday morning, telling them about the birds he saw while in England during the war, which were mostly pheasants and quail, and also just how animals and birds are prepared for cooking and the methods of hunting in that country.

The construction of bird nests was studied and different kinds of shrubs and plants from which birds derive foods were noted.

Bobby Joyner and Chandler Cox were welcomed as new members.

The quickest fortunes these days seem to be made by those who study the laws closest.

NOTE OF THANKS

We wish to express appreciation for the many kindnesses shown during the illness and death of our husband and father. Especially are we grateful for the service rendered by Dr. E. T. Williams during the past six years.

Mrs. W. G. Gurganus and Daughters.

Clubs Hold Initial Meets of Season

A delightful dinner meeting, held Tuesday evening, at the Country Club, marked the beginning of the new club year for the Junior Woman's Club, of which Mrs. J. T. Nolan is the newly elected president.

A U-shaped table, centered with fall flowers and candle lit, was arranged in the club lounge with covers laid for thirty-six. A baked ham dinner, with glazed potatoes, green peas, relishes, rolls, coffee and individual lemon pie, was served at 6:30 o'clock, with the president, Mrs. R. T. Williams, the retiring president, Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard, and Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss as hostesses.

Mrs. Nolan presided and outlined the year's objectives, which will include a continuation of the sponsorship of the Girl Scouts and the tiny tots' playground. In closing, the president reminded the club of its theme "With faith in our objectives, and good will in our hearts, we will work toward a world of peace."

Serving with Mrs. Nolan on the executive board this year will be Mrs. R. T. Williams, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Copenhagen, recording secretary; Mrs. J. M. Mawborn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, treasurer; Mrs. Curtis Flanagan, reporter; and the following department chairmen, announced at this time:

Mrs. W. H. Duke, American Citizenship; Mrs. John Erwin Wilkerson, Home; Mrs. L. J. Williford, Art; Mrs. Bill Rollins, Education; Mrs. Theodora Moore, International Relations; Miss Bertha Lang, Literature; Mrs. Sam Lewis, Public Welfare; Mrs. Richard D. Harris, Music.

The new president brought echoes also from the recent annual Council Institute, held by the NCFWC, in Raleigh, which she attended, and of the program suggested. The club pledged itself at this time to full cooperation with Mrs. Jesse Moyer, president of the 15th District. Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard reported plans outlined by Mrs. Moyer at a recent luncheon tendered by her, and at which Mrs. Pollard represented this group. She repeated the slogan adopted by the District, "Service with emphasis on Youth Conservation and the Building of Libraries."

Mrs. R. T. Williams, a counselor of the Girl Scouts, reported on their activities and the club agreed to sponsor a party to celebrate the first anniversary of this group.

Mrs. Roderick Harris, Mrs. W. C. Garner, Mrs. Allen Drake and Miss Rosemary Holmes were given a cordial welcome as new members, which was extended also to Mrs. Josh Munden, of Elizabeth City, a former member; and Mrs. Roy Davies, of Washington, D. C., as special guests.

Literary Club
 Mrs. W. M. Willis was hostess at the initial fall meeting of the Literary Club, held Wednesday afternoon of this week. Arrangements of roses, asters, gladioli and dahlias made a lovely setting for the meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Davis, president, gave an interesting and informative lecture on "The Library of Congress," discussing its origin, growth and development and the varied services rendered by it to the people of this and other nations, illustrating her talk with exterior and interior views of the building. Miss Davis told also of recent visits to libraries in Western North Carolina.

Bringing the program to a delightful conclusion, were vocal selections, rendered by Miss Rosemary Holmes, including "Into the Night," "Always" and "Frost." The singer was accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. E. W. Holmes.

Delicious ice cream, topped with pineapple and cherries, was served with animal cake, after adjournment.

Miss Frances Howard, a daughter of one of the members, Mrs. H. Neal Howard, and a bride-elect, was a special guest of the hostess, who presented her with a silver bread and butter plate at this time.

Contract Club
 Mrs. J. W. Joyner delightfully entertained members of the Contract Club and special guests, Miss Frances Howard, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Agnes Virginia Quinley and Miss Anne L. Jones, Tuesday afternoon. Roses, vari-colored hydrangeas and marigolds from her own garden were in artistic arrangement in the reception, living and dining rooms, thrown en suite.

Tables were spread with refreshment covers and centered with bud vases containing roses and clematis for the serving of vanilla ice cream, topped with fresh strawberries, homemade cake and salted nuts upon the arrival of the guests.

Mrs. H. Neal Howard and daughter, Miss Frances Howard, won the high score awards for club members and guests, handpainted ornamental pitchers, and the hostess remembered Miss Howard, bride-elect of the month, with a handsome luncheon set.

GIRL SCOUTS TO HOLD ANNIVERSARY PARTY
 Both troops of the Farmville Girl Scouts will hold their first anniversary party at the home of Mrs. R. T. Williams, one of the leaders, on Tuesday, September 10, at 6 o'clock. Each girl is requested to bring her dues of 50c. All girls, who are interested in joining the Scouts, are asked to contact Mrs. Williams.
