BRIDE-ELECT TAKES PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES

Other Social Events of Week Include Club Meetings and Bridge Parties

Pre-nuptial courtesies honoring Miss Effie Senora Lewis, whose marriage to John William Price, Jr., of Jackson, will take place on Thursday, October 3, in the Farmville Methodist Church, at 5:30 o'clock, predominated social events here this week and will be continued through the wedding day.

Mrs. Frank Cooper, of Kinston, and Miss Verona Lee Joyner entertained at a lovely bridge party at the home of the latter, Saturday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Effie Senora Lewis, bride-elect of October.

The Joyner home where tables were in play was attractively decorated with pink dahlias and spider lilies. The place of the honor guest was marked by a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Ruel Tyson, of Greenville, scoring high, was awarded a novel apron and Mrs. Joseph D. Joyner received as consolation prize, an ice cracker. Miss Lewis was presented crystal in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

During play, iced coca colas and potato chips were served. Molded iced and individual cakes in the traditional colors of green and white were served after the games.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ruel Tyson, of Greenville; Mrs. E. S. Powell, of Reidsville; Mrs. Henry Harris, Mrs. E. L. Norton, Miss Lia Griffith and Mrs. James Bateman, of Jackson, and Mrs. T. W. Williams, of Raleigh, houseguest of Miss Bertha Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gay were hosts, Thursday evening, at a lovely dinner party honoring their sister, Miss Effie Senora Lewis.

The table bore a center arrangement of red roses, white pompon chrysanthemums and dahlias, flanked by white candles in crystal holders. Covers were laid for sixteen guests.

A course dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride-elect was presented silver in her chosen pattern by the hosts.

Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, Mrs. Mabrey E. Pollard will entertain at bridge in compliment to Miss Lewis.

Monday evening at 7:30, Mrs. Albert V. Lewis and Miss Etna Lewis will be hostesses at a kitchen shower honoring the bride-elect.

Wednesday evening, following the Price-Lewis rehearsal, Mrs. Herman Baker and Miss Dorothy Lewis, will entertain at a cake cutting at the home of Mrs. S. G. Gardner.

Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Lewis will be hosts at a luncheon for the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Melvin Gay, Mrs. Earl Bagley, Mrs. Earl Modlin and Mrs. Archie Speight will entertain at a reception at the bride's home following the Price-Lewis wedding at 5:30 Thursday.

Supper Club

Beautiful magnolias and yellow tapers banked the mantels of the Country Club Saturday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Allen were gracious hosts to the members of the Supper Club and special guests.

A delicious supper, consisting of fried chicken, sweet potatoes, green peas, relishes and rolls, was served followed by individual lemon pies.

The tables, with places laid for four, bore attractive, individual appointments and yellow candles were used to shed a soft glow.

Guests, enjoying the hospitality of the hosts, were Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Allen, Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Gilchrist and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore, of Cythians, Ky.

Garden Club

Mrs. Paul Allen, Jr., was a gracious hostess to members of the Garden Club, on Monday afternoon, in her home which was unusually lovely with vases of torenias, marigolds, ageratum and dahlias.

A color note of green and white was carried out in the dainty sandwiches, tasty cookies, peanuts, mints and colored lemonade which were served prior to the meeting.

Miss Tabitha M. DeViseonti, president, opened the meeting with a short discussion on "Gardeners over the Radio." The theme "Begin at Home to Build a More Beautiful Town" was repeated, followed by a discussion, with all participating, on the unsightly approaches to our town.

The president appointed the following chairman: Roses, Mrs. E. W. Rader; Birds, Mrs. Melton Allen; Flowers for the Sick, Mrs. E. F. Gayner. A letter from the State Garden Club President, Mrs. J. S. Mitchell, concerning the meeting to be held in Raleigh on October 10 and 11, was read by Miss DeViseonti.

The program chairman, Miss Betty Joyner, gave a splendid talk on "The Year with Bulbs," telling about lilies and narcissus and how, with careful planting, blooms could be secured the year around.

was invited for refreshments and was remembered with a lovely handkerchief by the hostess.

Wednesday Afternoon Club

Mrs. R. V. Fiser delightfully entertained her contract club and additional guests, Miss Yancy Burke, of Horse Cave, Ky., and Mrs. Eli Joyner, Jr., at her home, Wednesday, using dahlia, roses, zinnias and marigolds as effective decoration of rooms, in which three tables were arranged for play.

Miss Elizabeth Davis won the high score award for members, stationery, and Mrs. Eli Joyner, Jr., won the guest prize, a blue tinted glass flower container.

Delicious pineapple-marshmallow salad, ham biscuits, melon rind pickles, crax, potato chips and iced tea were served after the games.

American Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. M. V. Horton, Mrs. Louise D. Harris and Mrs. H. N. Howard were hostesses to the monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in the Legion Hall, Thursday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Miss Maria Davis, Mrs. W. M. Willis presided, opening the meeting with the Salute to the Flag, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The Honor Roll, awarded by the state auxiliary for reaching the 1946 membership quota, was displayed along with the state and national citations for meritorious services rendered by this auxiliary.

By vote it was decided to purchase more cards to be sent to the sick members and Mrs. Nonie Barrett was asked to continue sending them.

"Our American Neighbor," a timely article taken from the Auxiliary's magazine, "ALA-Gab" was used as the program feature by Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt. Emphasis was placed on the fact that everyone should become better acquainted with our Southern neighbors from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn and should know more about the conditions under which they live.

Hostesses for the October meeting will be Mrs. F. E. Jones, Mrs. R. L. Rollins and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner.

Following adjournment, the members enjoyed ice cream and knickknacks at the drug store.
