FAIR TIME AGAIN

Throughout North Carolina for the next six weeks ferris wheels will turn, children will consume floss candy, and Blue Boys will grunt through their paces as sleepy, smoky Indian summer descends on the State once again. Fairs have already been announced for several different places—and there will be numerous other agricultural events and school carnivals. The State Fair, which brought smiles and hat-waving from Josephus Daniels and Agriculture Commissioner Kerr Scott when it was last held in 1941, will return again October 16th to 19th.

BROWNIES HOLD FIRST MEETING

The recently organized Brownies troop, auxiliary to the Girl Scouts, held its first meeting, Wednesday, at the home of the counselor, Mrs. George Parr, who read the Brownie story, giving the origin of the name and idea, outlining its objectives and projects to be undertaken during the fall and winter months; these include the study of appreciation of music, which was begun at this meeting, and of arts and handicraft. The group practiced, at this time, a stunt to be presented at the Girl Scout Rally Day in October.

The recreation period was featured by a birthday party honoring Ann Morgan. Martha Holmes, troop leader, brought the birthday cake in and led in the singing of Happy Birthday.

Four new members, Mary Jane Carroll, Geneva Flake, Mary Lou Moore and May Turnage Eason were extended a welcome at this time. These additions complete the number agreed upon in forming the troop of 15 girls.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Jimmie Joyner, attractive son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, celebrated his seventh birthday on Thursday, September 19, with a party at which 24 of his little friends were guests.

After playing games on the lawn, the guests were invited into the enclosed porch and seated at card tables. The table of the host was centered with a beautiful birthday cake lighted by burning candles. Cake and ice cream were served on paper plates and paper napkins were used, both carrying out the color scheme of orange and green.

Favors were cellophane bags tied with orange ribbon to which were attached orange colored horns.

NOTE OF THANKS

The family of Mrs. G. W. Davis, Sr., wish to express their sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown their mother during her recent illness and passing, and to them in their bereavement. Especially do we feel grateful to her two faithful nurses, Hattie and Maydy, who have been with her so long and to the three, who attended her the past two weeks, and to Dr. R. T. Williams for his faithful service and care in leaving nothing undone to relieve her intense suffering. You will each be gratefully remembered.

The Family.

WHITE CITIZENS INVITED

A special invitation is extended by the Macedonia Baptist Church, who will present Dr. W. C. Sammersville, executive secretary of the Lost Cause Convention, as guest speaker for the missionary program to be given on Sunday, September 29, at 9:00 p. m., in the church.

Two young Halifax girls, students at Shaw University, Raleigh, will accompany Dr. Sammersville here.

GI Questions and Answers

Ques. It seems that the school terms vary from college to college. What is meant by the ordinary "school year?"

Ans. The ordinary school year is a period of two semesters or three quarters not less than 30 or more than 38 weeks in total length.

Ques. Can a veteran obtain a guaranteed loan to buy or establish a farm or a business that he intends to operate on a part-time basis?

Ans. Yes.

Ques. Why is it necessary to have a piece of property appraised if you want to get a government-guaranteed loan to buy it?

Ans. The law requires that the purchase price paid or to be paid for property, or the cost of construction, alterations and improvements, must not be more than the reasonable value thereof as determined by proper appraisal made by an appraiser designated by the Veterans Administration. This provision and the appraisal it entails are requirements made by Congress for the protection of the veteran.

Ques. May a loan guaranteed under the G. I. Bill be considered a gift?

Ans. No. A guaranteed loan is not a gift. It must be repaid. If the government pays the guaranteed part of the loan to the lender, the veteran is obligated to the government for the payment.

Ques. May a veteran use a VA loan guarantee to acquire an interest in an already going business?

Ans. Yes. The law provides that the funds so borrowed must be used in "pursuing a gainful occupation." This means that the veteran would have to be active in conducting the business.

The collapse of many pretty romances can be explained in one word, apathy.

Uncle Sam Says

All of us are familiar with pictures about Uncle Sam and that, let's take this question: What is the strongest, most patriotic family name in America? Millions of you could win the biggest prize for the correct answer, U. S. Savings Bonds, of course. (Remember that U. S. Savings Bonds are now part and parcel of our American way of life because Americans know that Savings Bonds help to build a better, stronger future. Americans know that they build a great result at no risk at all to the investor.)
