WALSTONBURG NEWS

Mrs. Ivey Smith, of Eureka school faculty, spent the week end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hicks were Raleigh visitors, Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlowe were Wilson visitors, Thursday.

Harold Bailey and Miss Hattie Green left Thursday for Jacksonville, Fla., where they spent several days with friends.

Mrs. Carl Cobb, Mrs. Earl Gay and Miss Jean Corbett were Goldsboro visitors, Tuesday.

Mrs. Lucy Rumbley, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Pearl Johnston, of Farmville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray West, Saturday.

P. T. A. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Walstonburg P. T. A. was held in the school auditorium on Thursday evening, October 3 at 8:00 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Henry Newell, and the devotion was conducted by Miss Sarah Cook, a member of the faculty.

The meeting was then turned over to the chairman, Miss Sue Hinesaker, who had arranged an enjoyable program of a recitation, "Dark Victory," by Margaret Fields and a movie shown by J. R. Peeler on the importance and benefits of education entitled, "Pop Rings the Bell."

After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Sharpe Newton, and their approval, D. D. Fields made a report on the sale of the tobacco brought in during the tobacco contest held in the school. At that time most of the tobacco had been sold for the sum of $575 with several hundred pounds to be sold at a later date. Appreciation was expressed to those having a part in getting the tobacco on the market.

Mr. Peeler urged the members of the P. T. A. organization to give their support and cooperation to the Halloween Party which the organization sponsors each Halloween to raise funds for its treasury. The President announced a meeting of the P. T. A. officers and various committees at the home of Mrs. Roland Fields on Monday night, October 7 to make plans for the Halloween program.

Miss Davis' First Grade Room won the prize for having the most parents present in the attendance roll call.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned to meet again the first Thursday in November.

REDDIN R. BAILEY

Walstonburg—Reddin R. Bailey, 73, of near Walstonburg died early Saturday morning following a long illness.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. D. W. Alexander, Free Will Baptist minister of Fountain.

Mr. Bailey was a member of Spring Branch Free Will Baptist Church, Satecota Trile No. 74 of Red Men, and the Farmville Masonic Lodge No. 517. Masonic services were held at the grave.

Surviving are the wife, the former Mary Gay; four sons, Aaron, D. M. and Moses Bailey of Walstonburg, and Edgar L. Bailey of Raleigh; two daughters, Mrs. R. L. Hill of Wilmington and Mrs. Mary V. Bailey of the home; one brother, G. W. Bailey of Walstonburg, 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

SEVEN PINES HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

Mrs. Sarah Rouse was hostess to the Seven Pines Home Demonstration Club on Tuesday. The meeting was presided over by the vice-president in the absence of the president.

An election of officers, as follows, featured the business session: Mrs. Clifton Ellis, president; Mrs. Roy Jones, vice president; and Mrs. Jasper Morgan, secretary-treasurer.

"Shoes and Feet" was the topic for an unusually interesting demonstration given by Miss Verna Lowery. Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour.

The next meeting will be held October 15.

Announcement!

Since recovering from my illness, I am pleased to announce that I shall be in my office at 104 East Wilson Street, during the remainder of the tobacco selling season, and I would be very glad to have my friends and customers come in to see me.

I appreciate the loyalty and patient consideration which my friends and customers have shown me during these past weeks.

I have on hand a good stock of Aero Cyanamid for weed eradication on plant beds and I will be pleased to discuss this and your other 1947 Fertilizer requirements with you.
