The Keyboard Club

The Keyboard Club held its regular meeting Saturday, October 12, at the home of Doris Dixon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Leonard Mann, with the singing of the Club hymn. Julia Taylor conducted a short period of worship.

Due to the absence of the secretary there were no minutes. During the business meeting plans for the annual Parent Party were discussed. The different committees were appointed by the president. The members were urged to send more birthday greetings.

Grace Gardner gave an account of her trip to hear the All-Girl Orchestra. Doris Wheeler spoke about the Strauss Festival, which she attended. Grace Gardner and Leonard Mann had charge of the program with Grace giving a synopsis of the opera "Carmen," after which Leonard sang "The Toreador Song" from that opera.

Several piano solos were rendered after which the meeting was turned over to the hostess, who served a delicious dessert course.

In November, Jean Redick will be hostess.
