ROUNTREE HOMECOMING AND FAMILY REUNION

Historic old Rountree's Church in Rountree's Community, the First Church of the Christian Faith in the State of North Carolina, located four miles from Ayden, celebrated its one hundred and eighteenth annual homecoming and reunion, October 27, 1946.

Divine services began at 11 o'clock with the observance of Holy Communion. The Rountree's pastor, Rev. G. H. Sullivan of Wilson, celebrant, was assisted by the Rev. Charles C. Ware of Wilson. An inspiring sermon, delivered by the Rev. Mr. Ware, followed.

Members of the church and a large gathering of their relatives and friends enjoyed a bountiful picnic dinner under the lovely old oaks and pines of the churchyard.

At two o'clock a large group of descendants of Jesse Rountree, founder of this Church in 1827, who was also a young patriot of the American Revolution, and a citizen of distinguished public service, assembled for their annual meeting.

Clarence V. Cannon, president of the association, presided.

The Rev. H. G. Hanes, pastor of the Eighth Street Christian church, Greenville, read from the Scripture the 133rd Psalm.

Minutes of the last meeting on the Fourth Sunday, 1945, were read by the secretary and approved.

The Rev. C. C. Ware, of Wilson, made an interesting talk and presented two old editions, one dated 1824 from the library of the late Benjamin F. Rountree and the other printed 1840 from the library of an English cousin, the late John Stephenson Rountree, author.

Miss Mattie Cannon read an interesting true story of a romance in connection with the life of Jesse Rountree's daughter, Rachel, entitled, "The Romance of Rachel Rountree Reads-Brown," as told to her when a child; a story which has been verbally handed down through generations.

The Rev. W. H. Brunson, pastor of the Christian Church, Ayden, made a very fine talk on the importance of living to make the world better than our achievements might serve as an inspiration to coming generations.

Miss Jesse Rountree Moya then dedicated two Rowan trees which had been planted on the church yard as gifts from the families of the late Jesse Rountree Moya and Joseph George Moya in memory of these two brothers who as little boys often worshipped in Rountree's Church which their great grandfather founded.

The Rowan tree, a species of mountain ash from which this Scotch-Irish family derives its name, embellishes the family coat-of-arms and charing traditions regarding its beneficial influence encircle it.

After the closing hymn and benediction, the assembly adjourned to meet again on the afternoon of the Fourth Sunday in October, 1947.

Jail Sentence For Violation Of School Law

George Buck and Queenie Buck of the Shelmerdine Community of Pitt County came before Justice of the Peace H. L. Jenkins in Greenville on Saturday for violation of the school law, were given a 30 day suspended sentence in jail and a fine of $10.00 in cost for failure to send their children to school.

A State Warrant will be issued for other violators of the school law throughout Pitt County. The responsibility is on the parents and guardians of children between 7 and 16 years of age to see that their children are in regular attendance on the school in their community.
