"LEST WE FORGET . . ."

Added to the honor roll of the courageous dead of World War I are the stalwart heroes of World War II, who fought and fell that justice and freedom might reign throughout the world.

On this Armistice Day, our second since Victory in War II, we honor not only the gallant heroes of that First World War, who gave their lives to win the Peace that wavered, but we honor especially their valiant sons, who gave their lives in World War II that the Peace for which their fathers died might be saved and embrace the world forever.

Let us dedicate ourselves to finishing the job bequeathed to us by them—the job of winning an everlasting Peace.

"HOW DEAR TO MY HEART"

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore T. Moore have purchased the old Moore house on W. Belcher street, and have recently moved into their new home.

This residence, built by Mr. Moore's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. George E. Moore, Sr., in 1902, following their marriage some two or three years previously, was one of the largest and most ornate in the town when it was erected on the corner of Wilson street and Moores Lane, (the latter now being a portion of Walnut street), and has "seen a lot of gracious living" in its day. For it was in this spacious old home that Mr. and Mrs. Moore raised seven sons and daughters to be valuable and useful citizens to their community.

As the years went by, the Moores built an even larger and more modern home on Wilson street, which, with its beautiful grounds and flower garden, became one of the show places of the town. In time, the old home place was sold to the East Carolina Railway for its huge warehouse and offices and the house was moved back of its former site.

We are glad that Theodore, a rising young business man of Farmville, and his wife the former Miss Albertine Barrett, whose parents live next door, were able to get the old home back into the family once again, and we like to think of him going around from room to room these days whistling "How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood," even though his eyes may be misty at times.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

We sincerely thank each one of our friends and neighbors for his or her kindness, and deeply appreciate every expression of sympathy extended us during the illness and passing of our brother.

Miss Helen Smith, president of the Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, Mrs. E. C. Freeman, Mrs. J. H. Darden, Miss Ida Cowan, Mrs. J. E. Warren and Mrs. G. Alex Rouse attended the Edenton Convocation of the Diocese of East Carolina, held in Aurora, Tuesday.

ATTEND CIRCUS

Among those attending the Barnum-Bailey circus in Rocky Mount, Monday, were Mr. and Mrs. John Eason and family, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Moore and sons, Roy and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Bergeron and son, Pat, Mrs. E. T. Williams and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Windham, Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., Bob Hadley and Ann Morgan and Lou Taylor Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith were among those who attended the performance in Goldsboro, Tuesday.

Brownies

The Brownies met, Wednesday afternoon, in the home of the counselor, Mrs. George Farr, with Martha Holmes, troop leader, presiding, and as program leader, giving a sketch of the life of Franz Schubert. The counselor played recordings from his compositions as a conclusion to the study of this musician. Plans were made at this time for the Brownies to impersonate Mother Goose characters in the Book Week Parade. Applaud were enjoyed after adjournment.

NOTICE!

All Brownies and Girl Scouts who are interested in selling the Veterans of Foreign Wars' poppies, tomorrow, Saturday, are requested to meet at 9 o'clock at the City Drug Store.

NOTE OF THANKS

We wish to express sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy extended us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, W. L. Freeman.

Mrs. Alice Freeman
Mrs. Ferrell Morgan
Mrs. Clifton Ellis.

ATTEND CONCERT

Attending the concert of the First Piano Quartet, which was presented in the Wright auditorium at E.C.T.C., Greenville, Monday evening, were the following Farmville music lovers; Mrs. Haywood Smith, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. J. Frank Harper, Misses Ruth Moore, Janet Stansill, Willie Rae Harper, Pat Corbett and Carolyn Roebuck and Donald Baucom, James Thorne and Gerald Davis.

The four pianists, all of whom now live in this country, represent the talent of four different nations. Edward Edson is a native-born American; Frank Mittler, an Austrian; Vladimir Padwa, a Russian; and Adam Garner, a Pole. Together they form something of a United Nations ensemble.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

Miss Barbara Ann Greene was a charming hostess to thirty friends for a Halloween dance at the Country Club, Thursday evening.

Each guest came masked and was dressed as a ghost, witch or some other character representative of the season.

The mantels were banked with yellow corn and autumn leaves, illumined by orange candles in brown bottles, and witches, cats and skeletons were suspended from either end and across the front.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith poured punch from an attractively decorated table which bore jack-o'-lanterns at one end, and lighted candles at the other. Cutouts of cats, goblins and witches were pinned to the table cloth.

Fortunes were told by Mrs. George V. Monk.

Chaperones were Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and Mrs. A. J. Greene, grandmothers of the hostess, Mrs. R. G. Ruffin and Mrs. Monk.
