FOUNTAIN SCHOOL NEWS

Thus far the year 1948-49 of the Fountain School has been a banner one. The present enrollment is 236. Members of the faculty are Mrs. Kama Lee Owens Walker, first grade; Mrs. Elizabeth Coward Langley, second grade; Mrs. Emily Stafford Mercer, third grade; Mrs. Lena Edwards Wheeler, fourth grade; Mrs. Belle Smith, fifth grade; Mrs. Glendon Smith, sixth, and Mrs. Edna Earle L. Baker, seventh and principal. Mrs. R. A. Fountain, Jr., is teacher of public school music.

The school can boast of a modern lunch room and a standard elementary library of which it is justly proud. The P. T. A. has had two splendid meetings. At the first, a business session was held followed by a social hour. At this time the organization voted to assist in the purchase of a Victor projector for the school. There was a record attendance of 200.

Safety was the theme of the second meeting and an instructive and entertaining program was presented by the fifth grade under the direction of Mrs. Belle Smith.

The Halloween Carnival was held at the school, October 31, when a barbecue supper was served to approximately 350 people. Everyone, afterwards, proceeded to the auditorium where cake walks were held. Homemade cakes were auctioned and turkey and nylon prizes made lucky people happy. Old and young enjoyed Bingo, The House of Horrors, Penny Pitching, Fishing, Visiting the Curb Market and Pony Rides. The hot dog stand added the good old carnival aroma to the festive atmosphere provided further by the use of colorful crepe paper festoons and clowns, pumpkins, black cats and witches.

The Fountain School faculty and P. T. A. through the columns of this paper wish to thank everyone for the hearty cooperation that brought success to this project. The net profit was $388.83.

About half of our time is spent in doing things we should have done yesterday.
