CORRECTION

The personals in the issue of November 29 which used the name of Mrs. W. H. Curtis should have read Mrs. A. J. Curtis. Our apologies.

CLUBS and PARTIES

Contract Club
 Mrs. R. E. Fickett, Mrs. Ted Albritton, Mrs. E. A. Roebuck and Mrs. H. L. Holden, hostess and mother of the hostess, were guests of Mrs. Neal Howard, Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the Contract Club.

Upon arrival individual apple pie, ice cream and hot coffee were served by the hostess. During play visited peanuts and cakes were passed. Santa Claus, colored balls, candies and gossamer carried out the Christmas idea and made a lovely setting for the two tables.

High score for members, toilet water, went to Mrs. C. H. Joyner and high for visitors, a double deck of Congress cards, to Mrs. R. E. Fickett.

Seven Pines H. D. Club
 The Seven Pines Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Russell Meeks and Mrs. Joe Jones as joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Meeks, with Mrs. Clifton Ellis, presiding.

Plans for the Christmas party to be held December 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Garris were completed; the annual joint meeting with the husbands was planned to take the place of the regular January meeting. This got-together will be in the form of a basket supper.

Miss Verna Lowrey, assistant home agent, gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Accessories for the Home."

During the recreation period, names were drawn for the Christmas party, after which the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Honors Teachers
 Mary Frances and Jimmie Joyner entertained at a lovely dinner party, Monday evening, in compliment to their teachers, Miss Edna Robinson, Miss Virginia Ussie, Mrs. Haywood Smith and Miss Rosemary Holmes.

Additional guests were Mrs. W. E. Joyner, Miss Anne L. Jones, Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

The table was centered with forest greens, red candles and Christmas tree balls. Covers were laid for twelve. A three course dinner was served at 7 o'clock.

Following the dinner, the hostess, Mrs. C. H. Joyner, entertained the guests at contract bridge. Mrs. Moore scored high and won the award of note paper, Mrs. W. E. Joyner retained the slam prize, hi-jacs, and Miss Ussie received the consolation, ash trays.

The honorees were remembered with coffee spoon pins.

Literary Club
 Mrs. J. H. Harris was a gracious hostess, on Wednesday afternoon, when she entertained members of the Literary Club and special guests, Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. Bennett Fields, Mrs. Layne Dall and Miss Edna Robinson, at her home on Wilson street.

Mrs. Bennett Fields, guest speaker of the afternoon, discussed "Europe's Culture After the War Years," pointing out the fact that Germany is rebuilding culturally through its theater, opera and symphony.

In her study of this subject, Mrs. Fields found that in the American Zone of occupation, "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder is very popular because of its symbolism and fantasy. She brought out the fact that France is spiritually dead though Paris is still the most beautiful and gayest city in the world.

Despite the bravery of the French underworld in the late war, Mrs. Fields declared that the French are not proud of the part they played in the late war, Italy through her painters, artists and musicians is going forward with a cultural program, although under the surface her people are poor and politically weak.

In closing, Mrs. Fields gave an illustration of proof that Europe's culture, like truth, crushed to earth, will rise again in the story of St. Stephens Church in Vienna, which dates from the 18th century and is now in process of being restored again as it has many times before as the result of war devastation.

The hostess served delicious Russian tea as the guests arrived and after adjournment, cake and ice cream topped with strawberries, miniature popcorn Christmas trees, stuffed dates, almonds and mints were enjoyed.

New Deal Club
 Mrs. Paul E. Jones delightfully entertained members of the New Deal Club, Wednesday afternoon, and additional guests, Mrs. Ted L. Albritton, Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. W. M. Willis and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner, at her home in which arrangements of white chrysanthemums and potted plants were used with pleasing effect.

Table appointments were suggestive of the Thanksgiving season. Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, scoring high, and Mrs. L. E. Walston, scoring low, received canape trays.

A chicken salad plate and coffee were served prior to the game, the sandwiches being cut in card motifs.

Junior Women's Club
 Red berries, greenery, silver balls, a Christmas scene on the mantle and an artistic arrangement of fruit and evergreens on the coffee table made an attractive setting for the Junior Women's Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. M. J. Gregg with Mrs. Stuart Sugg as co-hostess, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Nolan, presiding, opened the meeting with the prayers. The welfare department chairman, Mrs. Sam Lewis, thanked the members for their contributions of Christmas gifts for the needy and requested gifts for other families in taken to Mrs. J. M. Mewborn by Tuesday.

The club voted to give a Christmas party for Mrs. W. S. Carraway's second grade; Mrs. W. Jesse Moyer is chairman of this project.

Miss Margaret Smith, program chairman, presented as guest speaker Mrs. Cherry Easley, who told the story of "The Other Wise Man" by Henry Van Dyke.

Following the repeating of the Collect in union Mrs. David Harris and Mrs. T. S. Ryan assisted in serving congealed fruit salad, cheese straws, saltines and Russian tea.

Wednesday Afternoon Club
 Members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club and additional friends enjoyed an afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Wednesday. Yellow chrysanthemums and other flowers suggestive of the Thanksgiving season were used in artistic arrangements.

Refreshments were served before play from the dining room table which was centered with a horn of plenty out of which fruits and nuts poured. Tallow candles completed the centerpiece. Mince-meat pies topped with whipped cream, cheese straws, and salted nuts were enjoyed.

Miss Elizabeth Davis, club president, poured coffee from one end of the table.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver scoring high for members was awarded a potted primrose; Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss won the guest high, a double deck of cards, and the low prize, a bread tray, was retained by Mrs. T. Eli Joyner, Jr.

Mrs. B. T. Williams, Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Irvin Morgan and Mrs. Eli Joyner, Jr., were guests.

Honors House Guests
 Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss delightfully entertained 19 friends at a coca cola party Saturday afternoon, honoring her house guests, Mrs. C. E. Finegan and Mrs. H. A. Kusterer, both of Richmond, Va.

Ivy and cedar were used as attractive decorations. The coffee table bore an arrangement of red candles, magnolia leaves and poinsettias and was centered with a hostess tray, which contained green and red leed cakes, decorated sandwiches, colored mints, nuts, assorted pickles, potato chips and coca colas.

During the afternoon Mrs. Hotchkiss remembered the honored guests with handpainted serving plates.

Attend Wedding
 Shelton-Britt

Mrs. Marguerite Britt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pierce, of Ayden, and William Penn Shelton, of Buffalo Springs, Virginia, son of Mrs. B. W. Shelton and the late Mr. Shelton, of Richmond, Virginia, were united in marriage in a ceremony at the Ayden Christian church on Saturday morning, November 23, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. W. H. Brunson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Agnes Virginia Quinerly attended her cousin as a bridesmaid; she wore a pink wool jersey dress with brown accessories and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Charles Blount Quinerly, a cousin, gave the bride in marriage. She was attired in a blue suit with a matching hat trimmed with a fuchsia feather and wore brown accessories. Her flower was a red-throated orchid. Bob Fiser was an usher.

Mrs. Agnes Blount, aunt of the bride, who announced her engagement, was in attendance and wore a black dress. Her corsage was an orchid.

After a trip to northern points the couple will be at home in Ayden.

Attending from Farmville were the above mentioned relatives and friends and Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, Mrs. C. R. Townsend and Miss Mary Ann Townsend.

Mrs. Shelton is well known here, having visited in Farmville from time to time in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Blount, and her cousin, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr.

Mr. Shelton was auctioneer at the Farmers' Warehouse here for several years.

Impressive In Beautiful Simplicity

was the marriage of Miss Martha Joyner Lang and Allen Carr Darden, which was solemnized at 9:30 o'clock Thanksgiving morning at the home of the bride.

The Rev. Ernest H. Clegg, pastor of the Farmville Methodist church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Quantities of Oregon fern, white chrysanthemums and white cathedral candles were arranged to make a setting for the vows, which were spoken in the presence of the immediate families.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Lang, sister of the bride. Prior to the ceremony she played Serenade by Schubert and during the ceremony to a Wild Rose, by MacDowell. Traditional wedding marches were used. Lutkin's Benediction was rendered after the prayer.

The bride and groom entered together. The bride wore a beige crepe dress trimmed with sequins. Her gray fitted coat had beaded embroidery on the full sleeves. Her hat was a gray off-the-face model trimmed with feathers. She wore white kid gloves and her accessories were black. Purple orchids formed her corsage.

Mrs. Darden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ward Lang, is a young woman of much personal charm and beauty. Since her graduation from E.O.T.C., Greenville, she has taught in Washington, Farmville and Greene county schools.

Mr. Darden is the son of George Darden and the late Mrs. Abbie Carr Darden. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and served with the armed forces in World War II for four years. He is now associated with Liggett-Myers Tobacco Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Darden left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to unannounced points. They will be at home in Mayaville, Ky., during the tobacco season.

GIRL SCOUT DANCE

The Girl Scouts were hostess for a card dance, Wednesday evening at the Country Club. A turkey cutout, fall leaves and yellow ears of corn were used on one mantle and a pumpkin, leaves and corn were used on the opposite one. Decorations on the piano also expressed the Thanksgiving season theme.

Punch was poured by Grace Miller, chairman of the refreshment committee and the members of her committee served cookies, potato chips and pickles. Candles and napkins on the refreshment table were emposed with the Scout emblem.

Shirley Newton and her escort led the Grand March which concluded the card dance.

Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mrs. Walter B. Jones and Mrs. J. M. Carraway, leaders, were chaperones.

Jesse Carraway was chairman of the decorations committee, Vivian Morgan, the arrangements and there were other committees.

LEGIONNAIRES BEST

MAURY 45-16;
 LOSE TO SNOW HILL

The Farmville Legion Basketball Team lost a very close return game to Snow Hill on Monday. The locals were far behind for the entire first half but staged a rally in the second and closed the game with Snow Hill leading by a one point margin, 27 to 26.

Maury was overcome by the locals in a one-sided game on Wednesday. An early lead was taken by Farmville and maintained with ease for the whole game. Final score showed Farmville winner by 45 to 16. Morton, Barfield and Paylor were heavy scorers while Tugwell, Lester Turnage, Joyner and Darden turned in excellent floor games.

The next scheduled game is for Monday night at 8 o'clock with Pine-top. This game is to be played in Farmville and promises to be a thriller.

BIRD NOTES

At the Bird Club, Saturday, Marion Corbett read an article on the Turkey Vulture, alias the Turkey Buzzard or Carrion Crow, who measures two and a half feet. The wings when folded reach to or beyond the tip of the tail.

The reddish tinged head and upper part of the neck are entirely bare, sometimes having a few bristles. The lower neck is black glossed with green or purple; beneath it is dull brownish-brown. The bill is dull white and the eyes are brown and the feet are flesh colored.

This bird is ugly to the last degree, except in flight, but it is an irrefragable health protector in warm climates where it exists in all forms of avian. Its eyesight, which is many times more powerful than human vision, is its guide to food and not the sense of smell. In fair weather, it will be on the wing scanning the ground below.

The food of the Turkey Buzzard is mainly carrion, but it also eats snakes, toads and probably rats and mice. There has been known to attack poultry or game birds, on the whole it is a beneficial species and should be rigorously protected.

You can't get on by merely getting by.

RICHARDSON-TREVATHAN

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornell Trevathan, of Raleigh, formerly of Farmville and Pine-top, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dora Speight, to Frederick Glenn Richardson of November 15. Mr. Richardson is the son of Mrs. Eugene G. Richardson and the late Mr. Richardson, of Durham. The bride attended the Farmville school, Finland Junior College, Selma, and Peace Junior College, Raleigh. Mr. Richardson is a graduate of Edwards Military Institute, Salisbury, and has recently received his discharge from the United States Army. At home, Durham.

AWARDED SAFETY COMMENDATION

With Headquarters U. S. Constabulary, Hamburg, Germany—T/V Willie L. Wooten, of Farmville, is one of the fifty U. S. Constabulary drivers whose Safety Commendations were personally presented by Lieutenant General Geoffrey Keyes, Commanding General Third United States Army, in a parade ceremony at Constabulary Headquarters, Hamburg, Germany, October 29. Wooten was publicly congratulated by General Keyes and Major General Ernest N. Harmon, Commanding General U. S. Constabulary, on his having driven 25,000 miles without accident since January 1, 1946.

This distance, equal to the distance around the globe, was driven by T/V Wooten in helping to carry out the many security missions of the U. S. Constabulary, all mobile occupation force in Germany. He is a member of Service Troop, 6th Regiment, stationed in Gablingen.

The fellow who toots his own horn will end up playing out of tune.
