IT'S CHRISTMAS . . .

It's Christmas time again and the Christmas spirit fills the land. You hear it in the tinkling laughter of the children—you see it in the smiling welcomes and outstretched hands—you feel it in the expectant hush that fills all homes on Christmas Eve.

This is a homey season; a season filled with the poignant scent of holly and pine, of mysterious packages and children's hopes. This is a season of giving, of hospitality and joyous good fellowship.

With this thought in mind, we, of the Enterprise staff—Editor G. A. Rouse, Associate Editor Mrs. G. A. Rouse, Miss Elizabeth May, T. B. Rouse and Charles Gayle extend our heartfelt wishes for your Christmas cheer.

A bright and blessed Christmas Day. With echoes of the angel's song, And peace that cannot pass away, And holy gladness, calm and strong, And sweet, heart carols, ringing true, These form our Christmas wish for you.

TODAY IS GOOD WILL DAY

"Peace on Earth, good will to men" . . . In this joyous season of the year do these words mean to you what they ought to? A Texas reader of the Progressive Farmer suggested a way to help them mean something to us. She wanted a day set apart for the members of the white race to do a kindness or good deed for a member of another race and each person in the colored race and other races, of course, in turn could do something helpful and kind for a white person.

Just speaking a kind word or leaving off some criticism of a person of the opposite race would indeed be one way of helping to observe this day. Whatever you do for someone else will make your Christmas happier.

Let's take time out from wrapping presents, shopping and preparing for the Christmas Day just ahead to add our bit of fuel to the flame of GOOD WILL.

Good Will

Another year. Another Christmas. Once more children look up, the very Star of Bethlehem reflected in their eyes, as they hear the story of the infant Jesus. And who can fail to be filled with awe at remembrance of the little Nazarene and the angelic chorus bringing their message of "peace on earth, good will to men."

Nineteen hundred and forty-six years have been recorded since, yet this remains this world's most blessed birth.

Once more the parents of little children everywhere pray that there should be peace on earth—for never before in all history, has His lesson been more worthy of repetition.

Good will toward men—let every man say it over and over. Let it be instilled in the hearts of those just learning the ways of life. No man can observe Christmas reverently—without doing sacrifice to His name—if he fails to practice the lesson of "Good will toward men!"

Christmas Cheer

Make this a really old fashioned Christmas—make the festive air tinged with the element of surprise. Wrap your things to give more festively than you've ever attempted to do before! Scatter cheer wherever you go, visiting your friends, writing say greetings, calling out across the street and saying over the telephone—"Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas to you all!"

For one day—Christmas Day—leave your streamlined and heated auto safely in its garage and borrow or hire a horse and buggy for travel 'round the countryside, driving thru the snow piled high, warmly wrapped in all the weather and scurrying you need. It will be a world of fun—and you may recapture the spirit of those first Christmases in America.

Yes, get out and have fun this Christmas! Ask friends to meet you and go about singing Christmas Carols together! You'll enjoy it more if you get right into the spirit of Christmas—with a song!

When you stand behind this you have to have fun—but that's progress, always a risk.

A certain report on health says that the nutritional quality means more than quantity—maybe so but we know this is true after eating.

STUDENTS RETURN FOR THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Among the students returning to spend the holidays at their respective homes are the following:

Miss Jean Beckman, Meredith, Raleigh; Miss Mary Leah Thorne and Vivian Scott, St. Mary's, Raleigh; Johnnie Moore, Wilma Stancill, Margaret Tyson and Mary Parker, W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro; Miss Mary Elizabeth Carr, Margaret Bynum and Jane Turnage, Louisburg College; Miss Jamie Kemp, Mary Hill; Miss Agnes Quinerly, Salem, Winston-Salem; Misses Ann Turnage and Gladys Crawford, Flora MacDonald; Miss Nell Beaman, Campbell, Buies Creek; Misses Margaret Costas and Frances Lewis, Joe Gregory, Chester Langley and Douglas Jones, E. C. T. C., Greenville; Neal Howard, Jr., Woodberry Forest, Va.; George Robert Smith, Jr., P. J. C., Maxton; Milton Williamson, Wake Forest; Edward Beckman and Harold Rouse, O. E. M. I.; Bill Rasberry, Tommy Lang, Bill Pollard, Marvin Horton, Bill Monk, Elbert Moyer and L. B. MEMBER OF CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The senior class of St. Mary's Junior College presented the annual Christmas pageant, "Peace on Earth," Sunday afternoon in the college chapel with Miss Florence C. Davis and Russell Broughton directing.

Miss Mary Leah Thorne, daughter of Mrs. John T. Thorne, was one of the wise men.

INITIATED INTO STATE COLLEGE MUSIC CHAPTER

Among the six new members initiated into the State College Chapter of Mu Beta Psi, national honorary music fraternity, is Alton W. Thomas, of Farmville, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Thomas.

ATTENDED NATIONAL FARM BUREAU CONVENTION

Mrs. L. R. Jones and Mrs. Herman Baker returned Tuesday from the National Farm Bureau Convention in San Francisco, Calif.

Enroute, the North Carolina delegates enjoyed a gay evening in Hollywood with a dinner party at the famous Earl Carroll Theater-Restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Kay Kyser, of Hollywood, were guests of honor.

Also in the convention party and at Earl Carroll's were Fred C. Darden and daughter, Miss Adelaide, of near Ayden, and many others from nearby towns.

M. Y. F.

Jimmy Jones was host to the Wesley Community Youth Fellowship. A splendid program was given by Miss Lorena Andrews after which a worship service was held.

Names for the Christmas party on December 23 were drawn. Recreation was directed by Miss Lydia Tugwell and enjoyed by the 32 present.

A joint meeting with the Walstonburg Fellowship is planned for December 29. The first meeting of the new year will be at the home of Miss Lydia Tugwell on January 5.

The only sure way to live within your income is to keep adding to it.

BIRD NOTES

The Black Phoebe was the topic given by Tommy Little at the Bird Club, Saturday morning. Seven and three-fourths inches in length, its upper parts are sooty black and the under sides are the same color with white.

It is considered by other birds as one of the finest fly catchers. Its department makes it almost staid. Comfort to the Black Phoebe is a matter of indifference. Today you may meet one of the species in town and see its nest under the eaves of a kitchen. Tomorrow you may find its brother living just as contentedly in a lonely canyon.
