CLUBS and PARTIES

Woman's Club

Mrs. C. H. Mosingo and Mrs. E. F. Gaynor were hostesses to the Woman's Club, Friday afternoon, in the home of the former, which was attractively decorated with potted plants.

Miss Tabitha M. DeVisconti presided over the business session in which two memorials of books given by Mrs. Kate H. Reynolds were announced. "The American" was given in memory of Mrs. B. S. Sheppard and "Love's Meaning" by Archibald Rutledge, in memory of Miss Embra Morton, of Rocky Mount. A $5 check for the library fund was presented in memory of Mrs. Sheppard also.

A resolution of appreciation for Mrs. Sheppard and her work in the club was prepared by Mrs. E. R. Clegg and Mrs. W. J. Raspberry and read at this meeting.

The letter from Mrs. Dickinson, national federation president, urging clubs to contribute school supplies for overseas schools, was read by Mrs. W. Jesse Mays.

Members agreed to bring their contributions to the next meeting.

Miss Annie Perkins based her interesting and informative program on a collection of poems and stories of the Old North State, which was published in book form several years ago by the state federation.

According to a report given, supplies for the essay contest to be participated in by high school students have been ordered. "Is World Government the Path to Peace?" has been chosen for the essay subject.

The hostesses were assisted by two special guests, Mrs. C. A. Mosingo and Mrs. Claude Tyson, in serving fruit cake topped with cream and cherries, nuts and coffee.

The January meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. B., was held in the Chapter House, Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. D. S. Morrill and Mrs. Charles H. Mosingo as gracious hostesses.

The meeting was opened with the singing of Joy To The World. Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, 1st vice regent, presided and Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley conducted the devotional. Mrs. Beasley's inspiring meditation had as its theme the new year and its challenge to service for God, country and the world.

As this was the initial meeting of the new year, it was devoted wholly to a discussion of business matters and activities connected with the chapter. Announcement was made of another generous gift to the chapter from A. C. Monk, Sr., to be used for additional fencing and upkeep of the building, which was accepted with deep appreciation by the members.

Mrs. J. O. Pollard and Mrs. Williamson gave reports of the parties and dances, sponsored by the Daughters, during the Yuletide season.

Featuring the business session were plans for the anniversary meeting to be held in February with the state regent, Miss Gertrude Carraway, as honor guest and speaker.

The meeting will take the form of a covered dish luncheon with Mrs. W. H. Whitmore and Mrs. Hugh Sheppard, of Wilson, as hostesses. A silver shower will be held by the members at this time in observance of the chapter's birthday.

Delegates elected to represent the organization at the annual state meeting, to be held in New Bern, were: Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, Mrs. J. O. Pollard and Mrs. G. Alex Rouse; alternates, Mrs. Paul E. Jones, Mrs. T. E. Hooker and Mrs. A. C. Monk.

Mrs. W. S. Brown, of Greenville, applied at this time for transfer of her membership to this chapter, and her application was accepted.

The hostesses were assisted by the daughters of Mrs. Mosingo, Mrs. Melton Allen and Mrs. J. C. Brock, Jr., and by Mrs. Marvin Spaight in serving a delectable chicken salad course with coffee.

Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Brock, Jr., and Mrs. Speight were special guests of the hostesses.

Merry Matrons

Hawthorne and other seasonal shrubs were used in decorating the home of Mrs. J. W. Parker, when she was hostess to the Merry Matrons, Tuesday afternoon.

After opening the meeting, Mrs. Altor Bobbitt, retiring president, turned the presidency over to Mrs. G. M. Holden, who welcomed two new members, Mrs. Jimmie Davidson and Miss Annie Perkins.

Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, program chairman, presented Miss Perkins, who interestingly reviewed the autobiography of Louise Baker, "Out on a Limb," which tells of the life of a cripple.

After adjournment a salad course with coffee and nuts was served.

Literary Club

The Literary Club held a delightful meeting, Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. G. M. Holden acting as hostess for Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, at the home of Mrs. Richard D. Harris, in which sprays of quince and winter berries were used with artistic effect.

Mrs. John B. Joyner made a splendid talk on the varied types of literature as expressive of the highest ideals of genius, and she declared that "for a better understanding of the countries of the world we must know their literature." As illustration of her subject, the speaker read selections from the Greek poet, Eschylus, and the Latin poet, Vergil, and English...

At The Rotary Club

L. E. Wainwright, program leader at the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening, made an appeal in his interesting talk to fellow Rotarians to exemplify the principles and ideals of Rotary in their daily lives and in contacts with other people, both in their business and social lives. He appealed to fathers to give more of their time and personal attention to their own children for development of comradeship and understanding and urged that Rotarians take their motto of "Service above Self" seriously as a club and as individuals.

Carl Blackwood won the attendance prize.

When some people say "I'll think it over" they flatter themselves.
