CLUBS and PARTIES

Supper Club
Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Mowbray and Mr. and Mrs. T. Eli Joyner, Jr., delightfully entertained members of the Supper Club and additional friends, Saturday evening. A superb supper with devil's food cake for dessert was served buffet style from a table covered with a white cloth and contaced with an arrangement of white snapdragons and carnations, flanked by candles.

Red berries and white candles were on the mantles. Gladioli and snapdragons were used in other arrangements.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Eason, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Monk and Miss Elizabeth Davis were guests.

Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening.

Junior Woman's Club
Mrs. Ernest N. Petteway graciously entertained the Junior Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Nolen presided and led in the repeating of the pledge.

For the program, Mrs. T. S. Ryan, presented Miss Annie Perkins, chairman of the Woman's Club Literary Department, as guest speaker. Miss Perkins gave the history of the compilation of the book, "Stories and Poems from the Old North State."

This book was compiled by the Federation of Women's Clubs in North Carolina and includes writings by women who are not yet well known in the literary field.

The treasurer told of a letter she received from the Leonard Wood Foundation for Leprosy, thanking the club for their contribution. Mrs. J. T. Nolen stated that plans for the March of Dimes ball were going forward; she also appointed several committees to assist in this project.

Mrs. Alex Allen was selected to head the scrapbook committee and Mrs. Mabrey Pollard, Mrs. Stuart Sugg and Mrs. R. T. Williams will serve with her.

The meeting was adjourned by quoting the collect.

Mrs. J. M. Mowbray and Mrs. Holden assisted the hostess in serving frozen fruit salad, saltines, sandwiches, cheese straws, pickles and coffee.

Guests were Mrs. Don Cleveland, Mrs. Archie Clayton, Mrs. Billy Smith and Mrs. Sam Bundy.

Japanese quince was used in the home as decoration.

Au Fait Club
Mrs. David T. Harris was a gracious hostess to the Au Fait Club, Wednesday afternoon, entertaining at her home in which camellias, hawthorn and potted plants were used with artistic effect.

The tables were spread with refreshment covers and following arrival of the guests, the hostess placed a hostess plate on each table, containing a variety of party sandwiches, pickles, cookies and salted nuts, and passed coca-colas.

In the progressive bridge games, Mrs. Emerson Smith won the high score award, a fista pitcher, and Mrs. Charles S. Edwards received note paper as consolation prize. Mrs. Howard Harris, a recent bride, was remembered by the hostess, her sister-in-law, with a serving tray. Mrs. Allen Moore Harris was a special guest at this time.

At a recent business meeting held by this group, Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby was elected president and Mrs. Emerson Smith secretary-treasurer.

New Deal Club
Mrs. Paul E. Jones delightfully entertained the New Deal Club and additional friends, Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mrs. J. H. Paylor, Wednesday afternoon. Camellias predominated in the lovely floral decorations of the Jones home.

Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt was winner of high score prize for the club, a dainty plastic apron, and Mrs. J. H. Paylor won the guest award, a sheer handkerchief.

The hostess served ice cream and black chocolate cake, followed by nuts and coffee, when cards were laid aside.

American Legion Auxiliary
The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. H. W. Kemp with Mrs. Frances K. Allen, Mrs. Nona Barrett and Mrs. T. H. Nichols as joint hostess, Thursday afternoon. The pledge to the flag, followed by the singing of the Star-Spangled Banner and a silent prayer, opened the meeting. Mrs. Alton Bobbitt gave the devotional from the ninth chapter of Matthew and led in prayer.

Miss Mamie Davis, president, made inspiring remarks on national defense and the part expected of women in peace time.

Officers reports were given and a thank you note, from the Veterans Hospital at Osteen for Christmas cheer sent by the group, was read.

Mrs. J. Frank Harper read a report of the National American Legion Auxiliary Convention at San Francisco, which was written by Mrs. Tom Bird, of Charlotte, state president.

During the social hour delicious coconut cake, salted nuts, watermelon rind pickles and hot coffee were served by the hostesses assisted by Misses Lola Gray Kemp and Betty Rose Wilkerson.

Potted begonias and early spring flowers decorated the Kemp home.

CLUBS and PARTIES

Mrs. Parker Honored
Complimenting Mrs. R. A. Parker, of Farmville, a member of the Benson school family, who was a house guest of Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson during the week end, were two delightful social events held Saturday: a luncheon at which Mrs. W. R. Burke was charming hostess, and a lovely club party in the evening at which her hostess entertained.

The Burke home was decorated with yellow pompon chrysanthemums carrying the color note of yellow and green which was effectively emphasized in the course luncheon served at one o'clock, at individual tables arranged with white, embroidered refreshment covers. The place of the honoree was marked by a corsage of tansies and she was later presented with a gift of toiletries by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Rouse, Jr., announce the birth of a son, Robert D. III, Tuesday, January 21, at Duke Hospital, Durham. Mrs. Rouse is the former Miss Letha Holloman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Horton Rountree announce the birth of a daughter, Catherine Victoria, on Thursday, January 16, in a Dayton, Ohio, hospital. Mrs. Rountree is the former Miss Helen Lutz, of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Rouse, of Norfolk, Va., announce the birth of a son, Thomas Herman, on Friday, January 17, at Norfolk General Hospital. Mrs. Rouse is the former Miss Annie Laura Finch, of Wilson. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rouse, of Farmville.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Miss Grace Miller, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, celebrated her eleventh birthday with a theater party, Friday afternoon. Punch and fudge were served upon arrival of the guests at the hostess' home, after which the gifts were opened and cake and ice cream enjoyed.

Later in the afternoon the group attended the showing of "Sister Kenny" at the theater.

GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES
Troop 2 met Thursday afternoon to work on their bibliophile badges. Mrs. George Farr, a former librarian, told them the history of libraries, history and evolution of printing, kinds of paper, the names of printing tools, explanations of first editions and rare books and showed them how to rebind a book, which the group did.

A few of the girls in Troop 1 met Monday afternoon to complete two badges in community service.

Their new leader, Mrs. Don Cleveland, a former Eagle Scout, who has participated in Scout work in other towns, was introduced and extended a cordial welcome. Mrs. J. M. Carraway and Mrs. Sam Lewis will continue to assist in this work.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION
Robert Pollard celebrated his fourteenth birthday with a lovely party at his home, Friday evening. The decorations of japonicas, pansies, ivy and lighted red tapers were suggestive of the approaching Valentine season.

Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt assisted the host in serving the birthday cake with ice cream, assorted candies and nuts.

Bingo was played and prizes awarded the winners. Robert Rollins was the winner of a contest. Later in the evening, dancing was enjoyed.

Guests were Misses Dot and Rae Hathaway, Nancy Lu Moore, Ruth Tyson, Connie Rollins and Ann Bynum, James Thorne, Everett Roebuck, Donald Baucum, Robert Rollins, John Russell Joyner, and Jimmy Horton, of Fountain.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION
I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses shown me during my recent illness.
A. B. Tyson.

FREE WILL BAPTIST NEWS
The Free Will Baptist Prayer meeting will be held in the home of L. D. Braxton, Friday evening, tonight, at 7:30. Rev. J. D. Venable, of Fountain, will be the guest speaker. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

If Farmville made a survey of personal talent, along the line of a financial survey, the people might be surprised at what we have.
