A. J. Melton and son, Alvin, Jr., returned Wednesday from Wichita, Kan., flying their new Cessna plane, purchased from the Wichita company, the distance of 1,100 miles in 10 hours and 20 minutes, actual flying time. The trip by rail takes 63 hours.

CLUBS AND PARTIES

Mrs. Barden Hostess. Lovely in every detail was the bridge party of Saturday afternoon, at which Mrs. J. H. Barden was hostess, in compliment to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Cowan Barden, a recent bride, and to Miss Nancy Newmons, of Durham, fiancée of her other son, James H. Barden. Floral arrangements of gladioli and spring flowers were used with pleasing effect throughout the Barden home and as a setting for the eight tables in play. Places of the honorees were marked by corsages of gardenias.

Literary Club

Featuring the business session of the Literary Club meeting, held Wednesday with Mrs. John B. Joyner as hostess, was the recitation of the following officers: Miss Elizabeth Davis, president; Mrs. J. H. Darden, vice president; Mrs. W. P. Easley, secretary; Mrs. J. L. Morgan, Sr., treasurer; Miss Tabitha DeVivian, librarian. The club voted to donate $5.00 each to Philippine and Greek causes.

Dance Club

Latest addition to social organizations here is the Dance Club, which held its first meeting at the Country Club, Saturday evening, with the president, John C. Parker, and Mrs. Parker, the vice president, Dr. Frank Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith as hosts. Mrs. David T. Harris is secretary of the club.

Contract Club

The Contract Club was graciously entertained, Tuesday afternoon, by Mrs. W. Leslie Smith in her home on West Church street which was attractive with its arrangements of jonquils, narcissus, quince and camellias. The high score awarded, a set of ash trays, was won by Mrs. W. M. Willis, a guest, and the low, note paper, by Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

Junior Woman's Club

The report of the nominating committee, given by Mrs. Richard D. Harris at the regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, Tuesday evening, was accepted in its entirety. New officers elected at this time were: Mrs. W. C. Garner, president; Mrs. J. T. Nolen, first vice-president; Miss Rosemary Holmes, second vice-president; Mrs. Sam Lewis, recording secretary; Mrs. E. N. Petteway, corresponding secretary; Miss Elvira Tyson, treasurer; Mrs. Charles S. Edwards, reporter; and Mrs. H. D. Johnson, parliamentarian.

Miss Margaret Smith, co-chairman of the March of Dimes Ball, reported that a total of $275.95 was netted from the dance. She thanked all the members who assisted in making this part of the infantile paralysis drive a success.

Mrs. J. T. Nolen, presided, opening the meeting with the pledge, and announcing that the national Junior Woman's club meeting will be held in New York on June 22-23. The president also extended an invitation from Mrs. J. M. Hobgood for the members to join with the Woman's Club in a covered dish supper at her home on February 14, when Mrs. R. S. Ferguson will speak. The group was urged, if possible, to attend some of the sessions of the Institute for Social Recreation being held in Wilson this week.

Mrs. E. C. Copenhaver read a letter from Mrs. Karl Bihlberg, of Spry, state president, which dealt with the subject—announcement of Brotherhood Week, plus plan practical scholarship and news from Green.

Several books were passed to illustrate points of her talk. Mrs. J. M. Newborn was program chairman for the evening.

Honors Beids-Elect

Lovely in every detail was the bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. E. T. Williams, Tuesday, honoring Miss Vivian Davenport of Rocky Mount, whose marriage to Mrs. Williams' brother, Gifford Worley, will occur February 13. Upon arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations. Floral decorations of carnations, suspiragons, callias, hawthorn and ivy were in effective arrangement; white candles were also used. A barbecue luncheon was served at card tables by the hostess assisted by Mrs. G. M. Holden and Mrs. C. S. Hutchings. The dessert course of Bavarian cream was served from one end of the dining table by Mrs. Hutchings and coffee poured from the other by Mrs. Lyman Jones, of Rocky Mount.

In the bridge games, Mrs. R. R. Daughtride, of Rocky Mount, scoring high, received an after-dinner coffee cup; Mrs. Bruce Savage, of Rocky Mount, won an antique German vegetable dish as low scorer; Mrs. E. L. Ponton, of Rocky Mount, received the floating prize, a flower bowl. A corsage of carnations was wrapped with each prize. The honoree was remembered with silver in her pattern. Guests were Miss Davenport, Mrs. Daughtride, Mrs. Savage, Mrs. Ponton, Mrs. G. M. Young, Mrs. George Harris, Mrs. Leon Jenking, Mrs. Lewis Scruggs, Mrs. Lyman Jones and Mrs. Mary Robbins Oliver, all of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. H. H. Bradham and Mrs. Pat Ruffin.
