WALSTONBURG NEWS...

Mrs. Tommie Heard, of Florence, S. C., and Mrs. Bob Phillips and son, Bobby, of Phoenix, Ariz., are visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Evans and daughters, Betty and Martha, of Maxton, spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whicker.

Mrs. W. E. Ling is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. F. L. Eagles, in Fountain.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. J. R. Peeler is improving, and has returned from a Wilson hospital where she has been receiving treatment for the past few days.

Sam Lewis Jenkins, Billy Marlowe and H. T. Herring, Jr., of Oak Ridge Military Institute, spent the week end at their homes here.

Miss Pattie and Robert Wooten, of Tarboro, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mann, Sunday.

G. W. Holmes, of Chapel Hill, was a week end guest of J. R. Peeler.

Friends will regret to learn that Miss Helen Beaman is ill in a Wilson hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron West, of Farmington, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ray West, Sr.

Mrs. R. G. Fields has returned from Laurel, Del., where she spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Bounds.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sanderson, of Morehead City, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fields.

Miss Ollie Mae Owens, of Saratoga, and John Joyner, of Fountain, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Gardner, Sunday.

Honoring Mrs. Vinson

Misses Raynell Bailey and Ann Hicks entertained at a miscellaneous shower, Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Tom Vinson, of Clayton, who is the former Miss Pauline Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. S. Dixon, and a recent bride.

Mrs. Vinson received many useful and lovely gifts.

Woman's Club Meets

The Woman's Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Lang, Sr., as hostess. After the business session, Mrs. D. D. Fields, program chairman, presented Miss Jane Kittrell who rendered two vocal solos: "Why Can't I," by Little Strickland, and "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Miss Kittrell was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carlos Walston. Miss Emogene Redick gave a piano selection, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy. A synopsis of the life of Carrie Jacobs Bond was given by Mrs. W. E. Lang, Sr.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Miss Lillian Corbett, served an ice course followed by coffee and cheese straws.

V. A. CONTACT OFFICE REPORT

Veterans' activities at the Veterans Administration Contact Office, Greenville, reached a new high during the month of January. 1194 personal contacts were made, 128 telephone calls received and made, 789 letters were written and 104 applications for V. A. benefits were prepared.

These activities related to reinstatement and conversion of Veterans insurance, educational and training benefits, hospitalization and medical care, disability compensation, and veterans' affairs in general.

Arrives in Germany

Furstenfeldbruck, Germany — Here to do his bit in "winning the peace," Pvt. Clifton Jones, from 612 Wilson St., Farmville, N. C., has arrived at the European Theater Army Air Forces Replacement Depot, and will soon be assigned to permanent duties with the occupational Air Force.

From this depot he may be assigned to units servicing Army Air Force planes in Germany, Austria, Italy or France. While here, in the heart of picturesque Bavaria, he will have an opportunity to enjoy the scenic beauties of the wooded foothills of the Alps. He will also be able to visit the notorious Dachau Concentration Camp.

Located about 20 miles from Munich, this $15,000,000 former Luftwaffe flying school was Germany's Randolph Field. Now under the command of Col. Malcolm H. Stewart, Hampton, Va., it is one of the best equipped and most attractive air fields in Europe. At present several thousand GI's each month are processed and orientated for their occupation duties at this key station.

Pvt. Jones entered the service in April of 1943.
