

COME TO CHURCH

Easter

EASTER'S message of Eternal Hope for the world holds greater meaning than ever for all of us this year. Through the fight for a permanent peace that lies before us, we must have deep-rooted spiritual courage and steadfast faith in the good for which we strive. We wish to give, we MUST give, the fullest measure of support. In these crucial days each of us has a very real personal need for Almighty guidance. Come to Church and receive the renewed strength that is Easter's shining promise to those who listen for its message of Hope.

Prayers for those who sit around the peace tables. . . . these are prayers from our hearts. But the message of Easter has broader dimensions. This is an Easter season in which we should give thoughtful consideration to the better world that was the goal of our war. This Easter brings the promise of broader horizons, brighter horizons. . . . for this promise we can thank together. . . . toward the realization of this promise we can gain new inspiration by joining together on Easter.

The early morning Easter Service, in which all the churches will participate, will be held at the Christian Church at Sunrise.
