FASHION SHOW FEATURE OF FARMVILLE PTA MEET

A fashion show under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Harrell, home economics teacher, was presented by her pupils at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting Thursday afternoon.
Taking the form of a day in a girl's life with the models stepping from a huge fashion book, clothes for lounging and sleeping, morning, shopping, luncheon, college, afternoon, and play were shown. The program was interspersed with a poem, "Ballet to the Chapeau," recited by Marie Tyndall, a song by Seleta Tucker and "I'll Never Smile Again," sung by Janet Stansil. Jean Bynum also gave a poem. Ruth Moore was narrator. On one side of the book was a memorandum of summer fabrics.

Miss Rosemary Holmes led the opening song of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Rev. E. W. Holmes, Baptist minister, read Psalm 121:1-15 and part of Paul's third letter and by illustrations showed that an upward look will lead to high ideals and morals.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. L. P. Thomas, who assisted Miss Marjorie Freeman in conducting the room roll call, which was won by Mrs. Harrell's ninth grade home room.

George W. Davis presided over the meeting, the last of the school year. Punch, cookies and cheese crackers were served by the refreshment committee, Mrs. John B. Lewis, Mrs. J. H. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Mrs. W. E. Joyner and Mrs. Harrell, from two tables in the main hall, which bore arrangements of iris, spirea and crabapple.

The fashion show was given for the students at chapel, Thursday
