Activities of Local Church Organizations

Episcopal

In place of a program at the auxiliary Monday afternoon, the members practiced a playlet about the United Thank offering to be given at the district meeting in Grifton, Thursday.

After the opening hymn, Miss Helen Smith, president, gave the scripture reading and a prayer. Mrs. Frank A. Williams announced that linoleum had been laid in the rest room and one class room. The group decided to send several get well cards to absent members, after which the creed was repeated.

Mrs. G. Alex Rouse was hostess in the church.

Methodist

The program study at Circle 5, Monday afternoon, dealt with Hannah, the devoted mother, and was led by Mrs. Herbert E. Hart. Mrs. R. D. Harris gave the call to worship.

Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., chairman, presided and announced that the circle would be discontinued for the summer months.

The hostess, Mrs. M. J. Gregg, served ice cream, cake and salted nuts in a social period.

Presbyterian

Mrs. J. C. Corbett was hostess to Circle 1 Monday afternoon. Continuing the devotional studies of "Thou Kingdom Come," Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr., spoke on the topic, "How Do I Affect People?"

Mrs. Mabry Pollard read an article from "The Survey," and Mrs. C. F. Baucum, secretary of spiritual life and evangelism, talked about how to become a more conscientious Bible reader.

Ice cream and cake were served to the members and two visitors.

Baptist

The Y. W. A. held a short meeting highlighted by the showing of a film taken during Y. W. A. week at Ridgecrest by Mrs. George W. Davis.

Miss Elvira Tyson presided over the business session, which was held in the church, Monday evening.

Presbyterian

Ellen Norris Spencer presided at the Presbyterian Juniors, Thursday afternoon, in the absence of the president, Ann Pollard. Roy Moore led the devotion; Mrs. J. M. Stansell, advisor, presented the program about school days in China after which she asked questions dealing with the ark.

A prayer by the presiding officer closed the meeting. The host, Roy Moore, passed cookies, drinks and suckers to the members and the two visitors.

Presbyterian

Circle 2 met with Mrs. Cherry Easley, Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Joe Flake, chairman, presiding. The story of the auxiliary's birthday was presented by Mrs. C. F. Baucum, who, also, as secretary of spiritual life, emphasized the need for daily Bible reading.

Mrs. Easley led the devotional. Peach shortcake topped with cream was served to the 14 members by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Jen.

SUPPER CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Harris were hosts to the supper club, Saturday evening, at the Country club.

A Brunswick stew supper was served to the members and additional guests, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Gibbs, Dr. and Mrs. Ashby Winstead, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Eason, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lang, Jr., and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ben O. Turnage, Jr., of Fort Monroe, Va., who were visiting here.

Floor baskets of Paul Scarlet roses, arrangements of pansies and mixed garden flowers were used in the club lounge.

SENIOR PARTY

After the graduation exercises Monday evening the seniors went to Clark's in Greenville. Upon their return they were guests at a party given by Jack Willis and Leland Flanagan at the home of Miss Betty Morris.

Potato chips, sandwiches, peanuts, candy and coca colas were served after which dancing was enjoyed.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Mrs. G. E. Gichrist are leaving today to attend the graduation exercises at Darlington School for Boys, Roanoke, Ga. Mrs. Morgan's son, Dan, will be among the high school graduates.

BRIDE-ELECT, NEW DEAL CLUB ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

Miss Virginia Uzle, bride-elect of June, was honored at a lovely bridge party given by Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, Tuesday afternoon.

Upon arrival guests found their place at the tables which bore centerpieces of pink rose buds. Mrs. Louise Harris, Miss Grace Whitehurst, Mrs. J. H. Paylor and Mrs. C. S. Eagles, of Saratoga, sister of the hostess, assisted Mrs. Williamson in serving bridal ices, decorated cakes and nuts. Mrs. Robert Lee Smith compiled the high score in the games and was awarded a double deck of Congress cards. The low prize, Dorothy Gray cologne, was given to Mrs. J. F. Uzle, of Raleigh.

The honoree was remembered with silver in her pattern and a corsage of roses.

Pink and red roses, larkspur and iris made an attractive setting for the six tables. Bridal tallies and place cards were used.

In the evening, Mrs. Williamson entertained her New Deal club and additional guests, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner, Mrs. W. C. Holston, Mrs. J. H. Moore, Mrs. Ashby Winstead, Mrs. Lath Morris, Mrs. Madeline Rountree, Mrs. Louis Allen, Mrs. J. H. Darden, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. Sam Lewis, Mrs. Archie Speight, Mrs. W. E. Joyner, Mrs. Herman Baker, Mrs. Zeb Whitehurst, Mrs. Walter E. Jones, Mrs. J. H. Paylor and Mrs. E. B. Beasley and Mrs. Roderick Harris of Fourtaint.

Ice cream, cake and nuts were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Archie Speight, Mrs. Louise Harris and Miss Grace Whitehurst.

The club award, a double deck of cards, was given to Mrs. P. E. Jones; Mrs. J. H. Paylor, scoring high for guests, received a box of Dorothy Gray face powder.

LAMRAD

Mrs. R. D. Harris graciously entertained the Lamrad club and a special guest, Mrs. T. S. Ryan, Friday afternoon in her home which was attractively decorated with roses.

Between progressions cookies, sandwiches, and coca colas were passed.

Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., received the high score award and was also presented an arrangement of rose buds by the hostess. Mrs. Ryan was remembered with a box of gift-wrappings.

INVITATIONS ISSUED

Invitations reading as follows have been received here: "Mrs. James Henry Hinson requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Lydia Frances, to Mr. Herman Baxter West, Jr., on Saturday, May the twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, at five o'clock in the afternoon, First Christian Church, Newport News, Virginia."

The enclosed cards read: "Reception immediately after the ceremony, Palm Room, Hotel Warwick."

MRS. WHEELS HONORS SENIORS AT PARTY

Mrs. J. M. Wheels, Jr., senior class sponsor, entertained the graduating class at a lovely party at her home Friday morning at 10:45. The hostess greeted guests at the door.

Upon arrival of all the group, Jack Willis, class president, presented Mrs. Wheels a silver tray as a token of the class' appreciation.

Barbara Jean Wheelless, small daughter of the hostess, passed napkins after which the guests were invited into the dining room where assorted sandwiches, nuts, sand tarts, cookies and coca colas were served.

Mrs. Charles S. Edwards assisted in serving. The table bore a centerpiece of crimson roses carrying out the class colors of crimson and gray. Roses were used throughout the house.

After the social hour, the hostess remembered each guest with a box of note paper.

LITERARY CLUB

Mrs. Henrietta Williamson delightfully entertained the Literary club and additional guests at her home on Home avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Davis, president, presided.

During the business period, the president announced that Miss Jean Flora was awarded the English prize of $5 given each year by the club. The resignations of Mrs. J. W. Joyner and Mrs. Henrietta Williamson were considered and accepted, with regrets.

Mrs. Williamson, program chairman for the afternoon, introduced as her speaker, Mrs. Z. B. T. Cox. Mrs. Cox brought an interesting review of the book, "Miracle of the Belle"—a sensational book, written in a down-to-earth style, giving the story of a funeral and depicting the struggle of transformation that falls upon people's hearts. After adjournment, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Special guests were Mrs. Joel Moye, Jr., Mrs. L. E. Turnage, Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Jr., Mrs. G. E. Beckman, Mrs. G. W. Davis, Mrs. R. E. Swell, Mrs. Alex Rouse and Mrs. C. L. Langley.

MRS. DIXON AND MRS. PROCTOR HONOR MISS UZLE

Complimenting Miss Virginia Uzle whose marriage to Paul Dixon of Farmville and Morehead will be solemnized June 7, Mrs. J. Knott Proctor of Greenville and Mrs. John D. Dixon entertained at five tables of bridge, Friday afternoon, at the home of the latter. Pink roses were used in the living room and miniature brides' slippers were on the mantle.

Prior to the games the guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Louise D. Harris, sister of the groom-elect, served bridal ices and Mrs. G. C. Uzle, Sr., of Wilson Mills, mother of the bride-elect, passed decorated cakes from the other end of the table. Nuts and mints were also served. The table was centered with an arrangement of white roses. The tables were spread with refreshment covers and centered with brides' slippers filled with mixed flowers.

Mrs. Charles Bisette of Greenville received a handpainted plate as the high award; Mrs. J. H. Moore retained the floating prize, a handpainted ash tray, and Mrs. Allen M. Harris won the low prize, a china pin box.

The hostesses presented the honoree a corsage of white carnations and a linen bridge set.

MRS. HOTCHKISS HONORED

In the evening, Mrs. Dixon complimented Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, who leaves soon to live in Elizabeth City, at a bridge party.

The honoree, upon arrival, was presented a corsage of pink roses by the hostess, and later in the evening was remembered with a vase.

The high score prize, a handpainted plate, went to Mrs. Will Joyner and the low award, a novelty vase, to Mrs. Madeline H. Rountree. A floating prize was also given.

Brick cream and decorated cakes were served from the dining room table by Mrs. Frank K. Allen and Mrs. B. C. Copenhaver. Other refreshments were mints and nuts.

Eight tables were in play.
