Farmville Soldier Killed In Air Crash'in Japan

Jesse Smith Gay One Of 40 Casualties In May 29 Disaster; Details Of Accident Have Not Been Received Here Yet

Mrs. Archie Cayton and Mrs. Mack Abrams, sisters of Jesse Smith Gay, with the Tarboro Kiwanians. have received from the war department a terse announcement that their 26-year-old soldier-brother was one of 40 killed in an Army airplane crash in Japan on May 29. Details of the crash were lacking but, if the usual procedure is followed, a letter of explanation will be received as Tarboro club, who called on Presisoon as all the circumstances sur- dent Alex Allen to introduce memrounding the death are known in Gay had been in the Army since October, 1946, and early in January the House of Representatives, who he was shipped overseas. He had gave a comprehensive survey of the been stationed in Korea. Since he was not attached to the air forces, it humorous anecdotes, the speaker disis thought he was being transferred.

Mrs. Cayton last Sunday received a letter from her brother that was to his untimely death. He made no mention of any impending transfer or change of duty. In his letter, he told her that he had been assigned to kitchen and mess hall duties.

In addition to his two sisters who reside here now, the soldier leaves one brother, Walter Gay, Jr., who is seriously ill in the Veterans' hospital Favetteville.

Prior to his entrance into service. Gay was employed by the Farmville Radio Shop.

Kindergarten Class Presents Program

Mrs. Florence Thorne's kinder garten presented its annual program. at the high school auditorium, Thursday evening with seven members graduating.

The singing of "Welcome Sweet Springtime" by the graduating class opened the exercises. "Good Evenwas sung after which Alex Allen, Jackie Nolen and Jean Farr spoke. The Juniors assisted the graduates in singing "Kindergarten for six months, following which he Diplomas were presented to Alex Allen, Pat Bergeron, Jean Farr, Jo he participated in the invasions of Ann Gregg, Hadley Morgan, Linda Murphrey and Jackie Nolen.

"My Grandpa;" Noel Lang, "My the United States and was placed in Washington, D. C., to join the staff command of a submarine chaser, re- of Representative Herbert C. Bonner Farr, "Just a Little Salt."

The decorating committees wishe to express its thanks through these assumes his new work. ns to the Farmville Furniture pany for the use of rugs and irniture.

Western Union Sets

Farmville's 'Chamber of Con ek when its office in the old bank able to locate quarters elsewhere and the town probably would have been without telegraphic services had not the Chamber of Commerce mov-ed over to make room for the West-

George R. Smith, Jr., will be in charge of the office this summer.

MISS MARY LEAH THORNE AMONG ST. MARY'S SENIORS

At The Kiwanis Club

Beginning a series of plan inter-city meetings, the Farmville Kiwanis club, 35-strong, rode over to Tarboro on Tuesday night and met

Group singing was enjoyed prior to a delicious supper of ham and accessories. Gene Simmons and "Cousin" Willie Clark were special guests of the Tarboro club.

The meeting was presided over by Marshall Staton, president of the bers of his Farmville club. State Senator L. H. Fountain introd ced Tom Pearsall, speaker of recent Legislature. After several cussed in a serious vein the accomplishments of the recent legislature in regards to education, health, highwritten May 20, just nine days prior way safety, alcoholic beverages, etc.

W. C. Harrell Heads Gates County Schools attractive rate for any lender.

Former Farmville Teacher And Wife Will Move To Gatesville July 1; He Served As Coach Before And After War

Another member of the Farmville high school faculty steps up in the teaching profession July 1 when W. C. Harrell, who taught and coached in the local school before and after the war; takes over the superintendency of Gates county schools, succeeding Henry Overman who becomes superintendent of the Halifax county

A native of Gates, Mr. Harrell was graduated from High Point college in 1968 and came to Farmville in the fall of that year as teacher and coach.

In May, 1942, he entered the Coast Guard and received a commission as ensign four months later. He was placed in command of a submarine chaser and served in that capacity was assigned to a landing craft as executive officer. While on this ship, Sicily, Salerno and Normandy, landing assault troop on the three Recitations were given with the beaches on "D" day. After serving following taking part: Billy Briley, overseas 20 months, he returned to "My Grandpa;" Noel Lang, "My the United States and was placed in Man;" Shipley Ryon, "That Nibby maining in this assignment until he of the First district. placed on inactive duty in March and Mrs. Harrell were memoris on the faculty. They and their son, pany.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones accompanied for the faculty. Mr. and Mrs. Jones accompanied for the faculty of A playlet entitled "Springtime," in Bill, will move to Gatesville July 1. which the children taking the parts of animals and flowers welcomed the queen of spring, concluded the pro-City as head, of the Pasquotank schools the same time Mr. Harrell

Interested Spectators

at the regular meeting of the B of Commissioners Tuesday night were Roland Lang, Jr., and Walter B. Jones, who in July change fro the role of spectator to participant.

Elected to membership on the board, the two will begin their ner uties next month.

Town Short-Term Note Brings Low

Interstate Securities Corporation Of Charlotte Bids 1 Per Cent And Offers Premium Of $1.56 To $35,000 90-Day Note

That Farmville is considered good risk financially was indicate again Tuesday morning when the Interstate Securities Corporation of Charlotte entered a bid of one per cent for a $85,000 revenue anticipa-tion note and supplemented its bid with a premium of $1.56. Approved by the Local Government Commis sion, the sale of the note will cost the town about $85 for the use of $35,000 for 90 days. This is equivalent to .982 per cent interest, a Three financial institutions bid or the Farmville note. The Bank of 9 to 11 o'clock, daily through Friday. Farmville entered a flat bid of one The theme is "Discovering God in per cent and missed the purchase by the slim margin of $1.56, the premiun offered by the Charlotte corporation The Branch Banking and Trust Company offered to lend the money for one and one-half per cent interest.

Officials of the town were well leased with the low interest rate obtained. Short-term notes for the Town of Jackson were sold for two per cent interest and the Cumberland county schools issued $116,000 at a nage. flat one per cent rate.

Cleveland M. Paylor, town clerk and John B. Lewis, town attorney were present in Raleigh when the bids were opened Tuesday.

Commissioners decided to issue the note when it became apparent that the money on hand would not be sufficient to meet the costs of the street improvement program. Payments on street paving assessments which become due July 1, will enable the town to repay the loan.

FARMVILLE GIRL JOINS BONNER'S OFFICE STAFF

Miss Anne Jones left Sunday for

FLY TO INDIANAPOLIS RACES

chools the same time Mr. Harrell A. J. Melton and son, Allie, flew to Indianapolis, Ind., Thursday to attend the 500-mile speedway classic.

Mr. and Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins and Leaving Wilson at 10 o'clock Thursiture.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lekoy Rollins and son, Robert, left Sunday to attend the Rotary International convention in San Francisco. They will visit points of interest in the West before returning.

Mrs. A. McAdams, Mrs. W. J. Rasberry, day morning, they reached Indianapolis at 8 in the evening. They left Indianapolis Saturday morning and were back at home by 2:30 that afternoon.

A. McAdams, Mrs. W. J. Rasberry, day morning and were back at home by 2:30 that afternoon.

rmville's 'Chamber of Commerce Farmville Man is Pioneer Iding on North Main street beses headquarters for the Western Type Setting Machine Operator

Waverley C. Holston of Farmville, the kind of fellow who can work for one man part of the year and with a competitor the rest of the time without straining friendships, is one of the pioneer operators of type-setting machines, the intricate pieces of mechanism which make modern newspapers and magazines possible.

Starting as an apprentice back in the days when type-setting machines were few and far between, and very crude in comparison with the streamline models which grace newspaper plants nowadays. Wave developed with the machine, becoming more and

Vacation Bible

The Bell Arthur Methodist chu will hold its annual Vacation B school beginning Monday morning a 9 o'clock. Four ministerial students from Duke University-Rev. C. T. Rate Of Interest Howard of Alabama, Rev. Milton Robinson of Texas and Rev. Pete Spitzkeit of Louisiana will lead the school, assisted by local ladies. The school lasts one week.

The new church bus will start out on its route at 8:15 each morning to pick up all children, who do not have other means of transportation.

Revival services will be held the same week, in the evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. Wade Golston of Evansdale will preach and Rev. Spitzkeit will have charge of the singing. Starting at 7:15, the bus each even ing will follow its regular route in taking members to and from church.

Farmville Methodist Vacation Bible school at the Farm ville Methodist church will open Monday morning. Hours will be from the Universe." Workers in the school are: director Miss Bettie Joyner; beginners' department, Mrs. Allen Darden, Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Jr.; primary, Mrs. L. P. Thomas, Mrs. Ed Nash Warren: junior, Mrs. S. T. Lewis, Mrs. Claude Tyson; intermediate, Rev. E. R. Clegg, Miss Betsy Morriss; music, Miss Elizabeth Lang; recreation Mrs. Marvin Speight, Miss Jane Tur-

Farmville Presbyterian Opening Monday morning at o'clock, the Presbyterian Vacation

Bible school continues through the Wesley

Beginning June 9, the Wesley Community church will have its Bible school at 4 o'clock each afternoon. The four Duke students who are working in this community will help with the school.

Activities Of Local

"Love Divine, All Loves Excel-Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville schools last September.

Kay Allen, "The Big Broom;" Pat of last year. He resumed his work in the Farmville is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, and Marjorie Webster Business College, Washington, D. C. For the last year, Mr. Harrell had lege, Washington, D. C. For the last year she has been employed by the Farmville Leaf Tobacco Com
Monday afternoon, with Mrs. J. R. Shearin presiding. Miss Annie Perkins, who had charge of the devoctional, read Psalm 96, adding that it fits into a universal religion and accepted work in Durham, Both he and Mrs. Harrell were members of the Farmville Leaf Tobacco Com
Monday afternoon, with Mrs. J. R. Shearin presiding. Miss Annie Perkins, who had charge of the devoctional properties of the Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. M. V. Jones of Farmville, is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, and Marjorie Webster Business College, Washington, D. C. For the last year, Mrs. M. V. Jones of Farmville, is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, and Marjorie Webster Business College, Washington, D. C. For the last year, Mrs. M. V. Jones of Farmville, is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, Shearin presiding. Miss Annie Perkins, A veteran educator, "Miss Annie Perkins, A ve

Mrs. G. D. Hathaway spoke about "American Negroes," after which Mrs. Shearin led in a closing pray-

Hostesses for the social hour which followed were Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, Mrs. J. C. Parker, Mrs. H. D. Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. W. A. McAdams, Mrs. W. J. Rasberry, Mrs. B. Edison Moore and Mrs. Z. B. T. Cox, program leaders, dis-cussed "Walking India's Road" at the Woman's Council, Monday after noon. The devotional study, "And a Highway Shall Be There and a Way," was led by Mrs. Clarence and Mrs. Howard Moye.

In the absence of the president,

Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, vice president, presided, and announced the opening hymn as "Blessed Assur-

After the council benediction, the members were invited out to the lawn where punch, sandwiches and cookies were served.

Mrs. T. S. Ryon was hostess to the Episcopal Auxiliary, Monday afternoon, Mrs. Jack Lewis, educational secretary, announced that the study for the summer would be lepers; she presented an article "American Mission to the Lepers" as an introduction to the study.

The members agreed to meet only once a month during the summer. Mrs. G. Alex Rouse read a letter from Mrs. Gower thanking the group for taking part on the program at the district meeting, May 22, and Miss Helen Smith, president, gave a summary of this meeting.

Mrs. Will Jones, Jr., was appointed to send news of the parish to the "Mission Herald." The group voted to send another box of clothing and food for overseas retief.

Miss Smith had charge of the

In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Candler have the distinction of being the first to occupy one of the new "GI" home in Victory Park. They moved in the Flanagan home early this week.

The Candlers are new-comers to Farmville, having moved here from Henderson. He is manager of the Farmville Auto Sales Company.

Several of the other homes nearing completion and the owners are anxiously awaiting the day when they can join the Candlers in having a place of their own.

Rev. Z. B. T. Cox Speaker Sunday At Memorial Services

Songs, a prayer by C. F. Baucom noon at Forest Hill cemetery. The and consideration, freely express American Legion and the Auxiliary their ideas on the hospital. sponsored the service.

women who died that we may live prevailed as to the best method of We owe them a debt. This debt is getting the hospital. be erased. It must be paid, the end that the peace in their hearts may be real. This will call for unselfishness on our part. We cannot Mr. Worthington and Mr. Smith fail them. They gave their all; now made short talks. let us give our best for peace and

Merchants Vote To Retain Present Hours

The Board of Directors of the Farmville Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association met in regular session on Tuesday afternoon The financial statement was disrussed and adopted. The trade and commerce committee reported on the plan for the Farmville Bargain Days to be held here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The report on the poll of retail merchants as to closing on Saturdays at 6 o'clock and on the basis of the poll it was recommended that the hours remain at 7 o'clock.

Sec. Sam Bundy brought to the attention of the board the annual Merchants' Association Convention to be held in Raleigh on June 16 and Church Organizations 17. Any member of the association is privileged to attend.

Miss Annie Perkins Had Birthday Tuesday

to extend birthday felicitations and pupils, retired last year after 50 years of service to the schools in this Tuesday was typical of the days 'Miss Annie" devotes to serving the community. Most of the morni was taken up with teaching Bibl school? in the afternoon she attend ed a church meeting and that even ing she was one of the hostesses to the circle of the Baptist church which bears her name.

The Enterprise proudly adds its names to the list of those who wish "Miss Annie" many more happy

C. L. Ivey, Sr., and C. L. Ivey, Jr. attended a meeting of the Home Se-curity Life Insurance agents in Dur-

Service met in the church, Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Alton Bobbitt presiding. Plans to serve supper to the men's Bible class, Thurday night, to have each circle take turns in fur-

Pitt-Greene REA Holds Annual Meet Tomorrou

At The Rotary Club

Charlie Fitzgerald had charge the Rotary club program Tuesday night and presented Irvin Morgan, Jr., who introduced the guest speak-Carr presented to the club the idea of a new Pitt county hospital, which would cost $900,000, divided equally between Federal, state and county

Mr. Carr explained that in order for this to be accomplished the Com-missioners of Pitt county would have to call a special election on issuing $300,000 in bonds for the propo and a brief tribute by Rev. Z. B. T. 142-bed hospital. Since many of the Cox, a former Army chaplain, and members were hearing this propo the decoration of the graves of de- for the first time, they were relucceased veterans were included in the tant to express an opinion. Others, Memorial day exercises Sunday after- who had given the idea much thought

All agreed that we need more h Rev. Cox stated, "We are here to- pital facilities to care for the sick day to pay tribute to those men and of Pitt county but different views written in our memories and cannot The club was glad to have as its e erased. It must be paid. guests the Bell Arthur school board.

"We must work without ceasing to John Lewis introduced Mark Smith, > Marvin V. Jones and Oscar G. Spell were given the club's official welcome to membership and were presented with the Rotary pin.

> Robert Rouse received the attendance prize.

Douglas Jones Picked For E. C. T. C. Honor

Christenbury Memorial award presented annually at the college to an sons he has been a member of the basketball and tennis teams at East Carolina.

He has taken part in other student activities also. He is a member of bership has staged a phenomenature of the care of the car the Varsity club, the Veterans club, growth. An additional 1000 3 and Phi Sigma Pi, national honorary ers are waiting to have their educational fraternity for men stumen's judiciary, he served in one of the key positions of the govern

This year Jones was one of a small group of students chosen to repre-sent the college in the nationallyknown publication "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

As a student Jones is spe in mathematics and science. He is a graduate of Farmville high school.

'GI' Homes Boost May Building Permit Totals

Building permits issued by the Town of Farmville during the month of May totaled $21,430 and consisted chiefly of the new homes which former servicemen are constructing in Victory Park and elsewhere about of health, officiated at the cerem he town.

The permits follow:

The permits follow:

Howard M. Allen, residence, $2,000; John T. Walston, residence and private garage, $2,500; J. T. Windham, residence, $2,000; W. E. Hardy, residence and private garage, $8,400;
H. C. Outland, residence, $2,000;
Farmville Oif and Fertilizer Co., storage garage, $500; T. C. Turnage, Jr.,

the king and queen. Each of to have each circle take turns in furnishing refreshments for the Daily Vacation Bible school which starts June 9, and to have a Youth Fellowship week, June 23-27 were discussed.

After the opening hymn, Miss Bettle Joyner gave the devotional Mrs.

L. E. Walston, continuing the study of children, spoke about "Children and the Law."

Farmville Oil and Fertilizer Co., storage garage, $500; T. C. Turnage, Jr., residence, $2,000; Joe Blount, repairs to porches, $80; Arthur F. Joyner, addition of room and general repairs, $900; Daniel Tyson, residence, $500 Edward Nichola, private garage and utility room, $250; J. M. Gibbs, residence and private garage, $2,900; Herbert M. Moore, residence, $2,000.

Reports Of Officers And Election Of Three Directors Are Important Items On Agends; Merchants Donate Prizes The annual meeting of the Pitt and

Among the important items so ion of three directors and receivi ports from officers, director

Chamber of Commerce, will be plans for the REA me

the corporation are: J. Lee Tugw Barrow, Farmyille, route 1, secretary; O. L. Erwin, Farmville, route 2. W. C. Hinson, Walsto 2. J. E. Mewborn, Sn and J. C. Parker, Fountain, route 1 directors. Mr. Hinson has tendered his resignation on account of ill health. His term expires this yes and the committee on nomination has nominated Sam V. Tugwell for two-year term. Mr. Tugwell's sele tion is subject to approval by the membership. Directors re-nominate for additional two-year terms as Mr. Nethercutt and Mr. Erwin, ject to the membership's approv Donated by merchants of Fa ville and Fountain, prizes will warded at the annual meeting. The practical and valuable gifts with the Announcement was made at commencement exercises Monday morning at East Carolina Teachers college that Douglas Jones, son of Mr. and announced later); Economy Auto Supply Company, electric toasters. name of the donors, follow: We Auto Associate Store, electric Southern Supply Company, electric clock; Farmville Furniture Companielectric lamp; Manning Refrigition and Electric Service, electric serv outstanding student-athlete.

Jones has served for the past two years as president of the Varsity club at the college. For several seapany, Fountain, electric fron; R. Fountain and Sons, Fountain, electric

William Owens Is Crowned Health King

William Owens, of the Farmvil Community club, and Pauline Robi son, of the Bell Arthur Senior ch vere erowned county seniors king an queen of health in an impressiv queen of health in an impressive ceremony Thursday night in the ar-mory at Greenville.

The junior winners were Wesley Manning of the Belvoir club and Marcelene Deal of the Falkland jun

Dr. D. L. Moore, Greenville p. cian who had been very coopera-in making examinations to determ which of the 4-H club members w

Local Merchants Featuring Special Bargain Day Prices

Farmville merchants are this weak end cooperating in the sponsorship of a trade promotion event which they hope will induce more persons in surrounding neighborhoods to make this town their shopping headquarters. Heading the work is Sam D. Bundy, secretary of the Chamber of money now than at any time of the money now than at any time of the