

Miss Janie Draper Graham
Marries James B. Wilson,
Formerly Of Farmville

The wedding of Miss Janie Draper Graham to James Bassett Wilson was solemnized on Friday, June 20, in the New Dublin Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Graham and the late Mr. Graham, and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard M. Wilson, all of Dublin, Va.

The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, father of the bridegroom, assisted by Dr. William N. Mebane. Evergreens, white gladioli and cathedral candles effectively decorated the church.

Before the ceremony Mrs. William H. Poole of Mullins, S. C., played a program of nuptial music, including "Traumerie," Schubert's "Serenade," "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony, "To A Wild Rose." Miss Kent Bentley sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Judge John S. Draper of Pulaski, the bride wore a dress of white eyelid over a white satin slip with white lace hat and she carried a showered bouquet of white asters, roses and stephanotis.

Miss Barbara Ann Rawlings, of Mobile, Ala., was maid of honor. She wore an aqua dress with white hat and carried a showered bouquet of yellow roses and carnations.

Jane Whitman Graham, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white dotted swiss and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and white stephanotis and wore a band of white carnations and stephanotis in her hair.

Col. H. S. Rawlings of Mobile, Ala., served as his nephew's best man.

Ushers were Charles Sutton, Geo. Skaggs, J. C. Bell, Jr., Francis Bell, III, Billy Guthrie, George Wyson, John Draper and Gordon Harman.

The Wilsons are former residents of Farmville, the Rev. Wilson having served several years as pastor of Farmville Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, wore black marquisette, embroidered in white, black accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Wilson, mother of the groom, was in blue crepe, trimmed in pastel embroidery, black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Miss Annie E. Withrow.

The buffet table was arranged with a three-tiered wedding cake and decorated with arrangements of white snapdragons and sweetpeas. Punch, individual cakes, mints and nuts were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in the New Dublin Presbyterian manse in Dublin.

Relatives from a distance attending the wedding were: Miss Gertrude Graham of Arlington; Mrs. J. T. Sayers and Mrs. Robert Coffman, Roanoke; Mrs. O. H. Buchanan, Tazewell; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Clark, Hi-
