John C. Parker On State Committee

Judson H. Blount of Greenville, president of the North Carolina Merchants Association, announces the appointment of John Council Parker of Farmville to the important transportation committee of the organization, which now has a membership of more than 6,000 merchants.

In releasing the announcement of Blount's appointments, Willard L. Dowell, executive vice president and secretary of the Association, reported that special standing committees have been appointed to: (1) investigate and recommend new services which the organization might render its members; (2) investigate motor and rail freight rates being charged in North Carolina and to report to the Board of Directors any discriminations which might be found; (3) recommend to the Board of Directors policies for the Association to pursue on various legislative, governmental and public affairs matters; (4) have jurisdiction over the finances of the Association, and (5) arbitrate differences and complaints which might arise between local associations or direct members of the Association.

The committee of which Mr. Parker is a member will function during the 1947-48 convention year.

METHODIST COLLEGE STUDENTS HONORED

BOWEN-JONES YOWS ARE SPOKEN WEDNESDAY

In a double ring ceremony solemnized Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 3, at 5 o'clock in the Methodist Church of Farmville, Miss Dorothy Dean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones of Farmville, and Earl Grayson Bowen of Plymouth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowen of Plymouth, were united in marriage by the Rev. E. R. Clegg, pastor of the church.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Haywood Smith, organist, and Donald Perry, soloist, of Washington, N. C.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of ice blue silk fashioned with a round neck and fitted bodice. The skirt was draped with a bow in the back. Her accessories were black. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis and white streamers. Her only ornament was a cameo, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. C. J. Tyson of Greensboro was her sister's only attendant. Her street length dress of royal blue crepe was designed with a round neck, fitted bodice, and a straight skirt with a double peplum. She wore black accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pastel colored asters tied with yellow ribbon.

William E. Bowen was his brother's best man. Ushers were Douglas Jones of Farmville, brother of the bride, and Philip Liverman, Edward Willoughby and Frank Mayo, all of Plymouth.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress trimmed with silver sequins with black accessories and a corsage of red roses and stephanotis. The mother of the bridegroom wore a green and white sheer dress, black accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Bowen was graduated from Farmville high school and attended East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville.

Mr. Bowen was graduated from Plymouth high school and attended State college where he was a member of the Theta Tau fraternity. He is now in grocery business with his

FATHER IN PLYMOUTH

Following the wedding, the couple left on a tour to unannounced points. For traveling the bride wore a green gabardine suit with a white blouse and brown accessories. She wore the orchid from her prayer book.

Following the wedding rehearsal Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Eason, 205 S. George street.

Fruit punch was served in the living room by Mrs. L. R. Jones.

A two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served from one end of the bridal table which was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of asters in a crystal bowl flanked by burning tapers.

Mrs. E. R. Clegg served cake assisted by Mrs. C. L. Eason, after the bridal couple-elect had cut the first slice.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen will be at home in Plymouth.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL BOND ELECTION AND NEW REGISTRATION

FARMVILLE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PITT COUNTY $200,000 SCHOOL BONDS

A special election will be held between the hours of 6:30 A. M. and 6:30 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, on Saturday, October 18, 1947, at which time there will be submitted to the qualified voters of Farmville School District of Pitt County, which comprises the territory hereinafter described, the question of issuing $200,000 bonds for the purpose of erecting and equipping a new school building, purchasing a site therefor, and altering and equipping existing school buildings in said school district.

The boundary lines of Farmville School District of Pitt County are as follows:

Beginning at the Greene County line at the junction of Winterville Township and the Greene County line at the junction of Little Contentnea Creek and Middle Swamp; from thence a northerly course along Contentnea Creek and Old Woman's Branch to the junction of the Falkland and Beaver Dam Township line to the junction of the Fountain and Falkland district lines; from thence southeast with Fountain District's line to Toddy's Station; thence West with the Public road to the Greene County line; thence South with the Greene County line to the plank road; thence southeast along Greene County line to Contentnea Creek and the beginning.

If said bonds shall be issued, a tax will be levied on all taxable property within Farmville School District of Pitt County sufficient for the payment of the principal of and the interest on said bonds.

A new registration has been ordered and no one will be permitted to vote unless registered anew. The books for such registration will remain open from 9:00 A. M. until sunset on each day, except Sundays and holidays, beginning Saturday, September 20, 1947, and closing Saturday night, October 4, 1947. On each Saturday during said registration period said books will be kept open at the polling place.

The polling place and the names of the election officers, subject to change as provided by law, are as follows:

Polling Place: City Hall, Fire Truck Station.
Registrar: C. M. Taylor.
Judges: J. B. Joyner, Mrs. Sarah H. Johnston, alternates, George W. Davis, Mrs. Walter B. Jones.
