MERRY MATRONS

Mrs. J. M. Hobgood was hostess to the Merry Matrons Tuesday afternoon at her home in which fall flowers were in decorative arrangements.

"This Is a Man's World, Maybe" was the subject of the talk given by Mrs. B. R. Fields, guest speaker. In comparing the position of men with women, she brought out the advantages women have over the opposite sex in that the former always have neat tickets and can slow down when they begin growing old but men must keep working and seldom, if ever, do they get free meals.

Women can wear a variety of colors and different types of clothes but men are tied to custom and must wear the same styles winter and summer.

The hostess was assisted in serving a fruit salad plate, pickles, cheese straws and cranberry sauce by Mrs. C. H. Joyner and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith. Special guests sharing in pleasures of the afternoon were Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mrs. I. D. Kirklin, Mrs. Joyner, Mrs. James B. Hockaday, Mrs. Fields and Miss Edna Robinson.

The guests were served individual cakes, ice cream, candy and suckers from tables placed on the spacious porch of the home. The birthday cake decorated with pink and green trimmings was used as a centerpiece.

HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS HAVE MEETING IN AYDEN

The monthly meeting of the Pitt County Vocational Home Economics teachers was held on Tuesday, Sept. 16, in the Ayden Home Economics department with Mrs. Elsie Edwards acting as hostess. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Alya Rae Taylor, and the minutes were read by the secretary, Nora Lee Hinnant.

New business started with a discussion of the exhibits for the county fair which is to be held in Greenville, Oct. 20. It was left up to the individual teacher whether or not she will have an exhibit since the preparation time for it is so short.

Greenville F.H.A. chapter is to be hostess for the first county unit F. H. A. meeting which is to be held on October 4 in Greenville high school. All F. H. A. members in the county are eligible to attend. Non-vocational teachers and students from their classes will be invited to encourage them to organize F. H. A. chapters in their schools. A district meeting of F. H. A. is to be held on October 18.

Since the third Tuesday in each month has proved an unsatisfactory time to hold the vocational meeting, the fourth Tuesday was decided to be more suitable.

Nora Lee Hinnant led the discussion for the day on unit planning which included the importance of planning units to be taught and what a unit includes.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30 to meet again Oct. 28 in the Winterville Home Economics department.

Those who attended the meeting Tuesday were Alya Rae Taylor, Thelma Whitehead Page, Ruth Parker, Elfinor Watkins, Nora Lee Hinnant, Alice Strawn and Mrs. James, teachers in Greenville high school and Miss Mabel Lacy, district advisor from E. C. T. C., Greenville, and the hostess, Elsie Edwards.

MISS CLYDE BROOKS WEDS S/SGT. W. D. LETCHWORTH

Beauty and simplicity characterized the wedding of Miss Clyde Elisabeth Brooks of Walsenburg and S/SGT. W. D. Letchworth of Greenville, S. C., formerly of Walsenburg, Friday, September 12. The vows were spoken before a background of ferns, white candles and floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums in the living room of the bride's home.
