

WALSTONBURG NEWS

Revival services will begin at the Christian church Sunday night, Oct. 5, at 7:30. Rev. Z. B. T. Cox of Farmville will bring the message each evening. Rev. Howard James of Winterville will conduct the singing. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church will sponsor an amateur program in the near future—the date to be announced later. Tentative headings of the program are: Musical, vocal and instrumental; dramatic, reading, blackface sketch, comedy sketch, imitations and dancing. Prizes will be awarded. Anyone who will enter please contact Mrs. J. C. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Parker and son of Raleigh were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bailey.

Dr. E. W. Circle of Springfield, Ohio, and Miss Juanita Reddick of Raleigh were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Redick Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Jenkins and Miss Clara Jenkins were Rocky Mount visitors Tuesday.

Students home for the week end included Ola Grace Gardner and Leonard Mann from A. C. C. Wilson, and Stewart McKeel and H. T. Herring from UNC in Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Clarence Jones was a visitor in Kingston Friday.

Mrs. W. E. Lang, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Simpson, in Arlington, Va., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Brooks shopped in Rocky Mount Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fields spent the week end in Beaufort.

The Tobacco Contest, which was scheduled to close last week, will end today. The extension was due to the bad weather last week and the difficulty the students had in bringing tobacco under such adverse conditions.

With the help of Miss Worley and her home economics students, who are making curtains, Miss Davis' first grade will soon have a bright and lovely room of which they can be proud. At the present time, Miss Davis plans to do some painting and repairing and also to present several new projects to her pupils.

Officers for the 1947-48 series of school papers have been elected as follows: Editor, Doris Wheeler; assistant editor, Jean Riddick; business manager, Alvin Diddy.

Miss Gray Worley spent the week end in Sanford with her sister, Miss Mason Worley, who is recovering from a serious illness.

Miss Sue Hunsucker spent Sunday in Elm City with friends.

Miss Mary Irma Rives spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rives of Goldston.

Mrs. Inez Smith was home for the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lang visited in Rocky Mount recently.

SEVEN PINES CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Seven Pines Home Demonstration club met Tuesday, Sept. 23, at the home of Mrs. Ferrell Morgan. Mrs. Clifton Ellis presided over the meeting.

New officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. L. E. Garris, president, Mrs. Lyman Heath, vice president, and Mrs. Ichabod Allen, secretary and treasurer.

Plans were made for the club to sponsor a stand at the Pitt County Fair and Mrs. Lyman Heath was made chairman of the committee composed of Mrs. Alton Brock, Jr., and Mrs. Ichabod Allen. The garden leader, Mrs. Bert Little, gave an interesting report and the Family Life leader, Mrs. L. E. Garris, gave a report. Mrs. Garris also gave a report on France. Mrs. Clifton Ellis gave a book report on "Jansy Jeems" by Bernice Kelly Harris and Mrs. Ferrell Morgan gave two book reports, "Talking Through My Hats" by Lily Dacho, and "Deborah."

Miss Verna Belle Lowery, assistant county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on the new fall wearing apparel and accessories, exhibiting clothing from Farmville stores.

During the social period, Mrs. Morgan served banana splits and cookies to 17 members and four guests.

AMAN-DAVIS

Mrs. O. D. Davis of Farmville announces the marriage of her daughter, Geneva, to Howard E. Aman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Aman of Jacksonville, Friday, September 26.

The couple are making their home in Snow Hill.

Mrs. Aman has been employed by the Vogue Beauty Salon since February.

A married woman wrote us that she quit an office job because the tax was so terrific. We wonder how much of this is going on.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION AND NEW REGISTRATION THEREOF

Notice is hereby given that the question of the approval or disapproval of the levy of a special tax of not to exceed fifteen (15) cents on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable property, both real and personal located within the Farmville School District, to provide supplemental funds with which to operate schools of a higher standard than that provided by state support, or to employ additional vocational teachers, or both, will be submitted to the voters of Farmville School District at a special election to be held on October 18, 1947. The resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County calling said special election and ordering a new registration therefor is published in full below as a notice of such special election and the new registration therefor.

A Resolution providing for and ordering a special election in and a new registration of all qualified voters in the Farmville School District on the question of levying a tax to provide supplemental funds for the operation of schools in the Farmville School District of a higher standard than that provided by State support, or to employ additional vocational teachers, or both.

WHEREAS, on May 23, 1938, the Board of Education of Pitt County, North Carolina, in regular adjourned session, held a public hearing upon the question of creating a special school district to be known as the "Farmville School District of Pitt County" and after hearing all tax-payers and other interested persons who appeared pursuant to the notices of Education of Pitt County created a school district to be known as "Farmville School District of Pitt County" and then there defined and described the boundary lines of said district as follows:

BEGINNING at the Greene County line at the junction of Winterville Township and the Greene County line at the junction of Little Contentnea Creek and Middle Swamp; thence a northerly course along and with Contentnea Creek and Old Woman's Branch to the junction of the Falkland and Beaverdam Township line to the junction of the Fountain and Falkland district lines; from thence southeast with the Fountain district line to Toddy's station; thence west with the public road to the Greene County line; thence south with the Greene County line to the plank road; thence southeast along Greene County line to Contentnea Creek, the POINT OF BEGINNING. And thereafter recorded the boundary lines and the action of the said Board of Education on the minutes of said board; and

WHEREAS, on the 6th day of May, 1947, the Farmville School District Committee duly held a meeting and in said meeting, resolved to petition that an election be held and had in the Farmville School District to determine whether there should be levied in said school district a tax of not to exceed 15c on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable property, both real and personal, within said district in order to provide supplemental funds for the operation of schools of a higher standard than that provided by state support or to employ additional vocational teachers or both; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid petition of the Farmville School District was duly made and after due consideration by the Board of Education of Pitt County was approved in a meeting of said Board held on May 12, 1947; and

WHEREAS, the said petition of the Farmville School District, together with the approval of the Board of Education of Pitt County, was received by the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County and after due consideration of the same was duly approved by said Board of Commissioners of Pitt County in a lawful meeting of said Board held on the 18th day of June, 1947; and

WHEREAS, the Farmville School District has a school population of 1400 or more, as has been certified by the Board of Education of Pitt County, and the said Board of Education of Pitt County has duly requested the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County to provide for an election in the Farmville School District upon the question of levying a special school tax of not more than 15c on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable property in the Farmville School District in order to provide funds with which to operate schools of a higher standard than that provided by state support, or to employ additional vocational teachers, or both;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, and it is hereby ordered that:

(1) An election shall be held in the Farmville School District to determine whether there shall be levied a tax of not to exceed 15c on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable property, both real and personal, located within said Farmville School District, to provide supplemental funds with which to operate schools of a higher standard than that provided by state support, or to employ additional vocational teachers, or both;

(2) The said election shall be held on Saturday, the 18th day of October, 1947, and the polls shall be open on said date from the hour of 6:30 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, to the hour of 6:30 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, and each person who is duly registered and who is otherwise qualified to vote shall be qualified to vote at said election;

(3) For the purpose of said election the territory comprising the Farmville School District and embraced within the boundaries of said school district, which said boundaries are as follows: BEGINNING at the Greene County line at the junction of Winterville Township and the Greene County line at the junction of Little Contentnea Creek and Middle Swamp; thence a northerly course along and with Contentnea Creek and Old Woman's Branch to the junction of the Falkland and Beaverdam Township line to the junction of the Fountain and Falkland district lines; from thence southeast with the Fountain district line to Toddy's station; thence west with the public road to the Greene County line; thence south with the Greene County line to the plank road; thence southeast along Greene County line to Contentnea Creek, the POINT OF BEGINNING, shall be and the same is hereby designated, combined, and created as one precinct and the polling place for said precinct is hereby designated as the City Hall in Farmville, N. C.;

(4) A new registration of all qualified voters in the Farmville School District is hereby ordered for the purpose of the aforesaid election and for the purpose of said election the following persons are named as and are hereby appointed as registrar and judges of election:

Registrar: C. M. Taylor. Judges: J. B. Joyner and Mrs. Sarah H. Albritton and George W. Davis and Mrs. Walter B. Jones are named and are hereby appointed as alternate judges of election to serve in the event that either J. B. Joyner or Mrs. Sarah H. Albritton or both of them shall be unable, for any reason, to serve on the date of such election.

(5) Notice of said new registration shall be given by publication in the Farmville Enterprise, a newspaper published in and circulating in Farmville School District, once at least twenty (20) days before October 7, 1947, and notice of the election shall be given in the Farmville Enterprise, a newspaper published in and circulating in said district, three times prior to the election date, and the notice of the new registration, herein provided for to be published once at least twenty (20) days before October 4, 1947, shall also be considered and counted as one of the three notices required to be published concerning the election and shall be considered the first notice of such election, the same to be published more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the election;

(6) The registration books for said new registration shall be kept open between the hours of 9:00 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, and 6:00 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, on each day (Sundays and holidays excepted) from Saturday, September 20, 1947, up to and including Saturday, the 4th day of October, 1947. On each Saturday during the period of said new registration, an alternate set forth, the registrar shall attend with his registration book at the polling place herein above designated for said election, namely: the City Hall in Farmville, North Carolina. Saturday, the 11th day of October, 1947, shall be challenge day for said election, and the registrar shall attend at the above designated polling place on said date between the hours of 9:00 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, and 3:00 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, for the purpose of affording opportunity to all interested parties to challenge any registration, in accordance with the law governing general elections;

(7) The ballots to be used in said election shall be mimeographed and shall be in the following form:
